FARMERS: The heavy rains of August have insured fine hay crop, this as you well know is becoming each year more valuable and in consequence the necessity of saving it greater, in order to do this economically you must use machinery, now when you buy machinery; "do not fail to buy the best." There are several Mowing Machines that are recognized as standard, we have selected from these and are selling the "Deering Ideal Mower." from these and are selling the "Deering Ideal Mower." from these and are selling the "Deering Ideal Mower."
Our reasons for handling this Mower are many, among which are: Because it is the strongest made and owing to it being evenly balanced is as light in draft as many machines of less weight. These are the most important, but we are prepared to show our machines point for point against anything made. "We are sorry to say that they are made by the trust, we will sell the first machine that we can find that is not made by the trust, when we are we can find that is not made by the trust, when we are &:

we can find that is not made by the trust, when we are a convinced that it is as good as our Ideal Deering Mower."

We keep a full stock of repairs at all times. The Deering Rake sold with Ideal Mowers has the advantage of simplicity of operation, any boy can work one after a short trial who can drive a horse. It is made solidly of

In connection with hay-saving machinery, every farmer or community should have a Hay Press. With this in view we have placed on the market the Red Ripper Hay Press. We have this press now in stock, the press is set up ready for use so that any one can see how simple and rapidly the operation of baling can be carried on. This is the ideal way of storing hay. Buy a press and bale your hay, in this shape it is not only more economically stored, but will keep better and fresher and make better feed than if stacked in the open or housed loose in barns. Let us show you this press, if you are not convinced that it is the best and easiest press operated on the market we will not ask you to invest your money in it. Very truly yours,
