Awake on the Tip Question.

The regular patron was indignant as the waiter spilled the soup. "You're tipsy!" he exclaimed. "Couldn't be on your tips. See?" responded the waiter, at least not so inebriated as to impede his mental processes.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Brute. Mother-in-Law—Has the young man who saved my life yesterday called upon you yet? Son-in-Law—Yes, indeed. He has already made his apologies.—Flegende Blatter.

What is good is never too abundant.—Don Quixote.

Pale People Made Ruddy By Rydale's Tonic. Pale people are pale because the blood is deficient in quantity or poor in quality, or both. This impoverished condition of the blood is almost invariably caused by some wasting disease. The cause may be a chronic disease, such as dyspepsia, consumption, malaria, etc., or it may be the result of an acute disease such as fever, etc. It matters not what causes produces this impoverished condition of the blood, Rydale's Tonic will restore it to its normal state and bring back the hue of health to the pale cheek.

Rydale's Tonic is put up in 50c. and 1.00 sizes. The large size contains 2 1/2 times the small size. Dr. W. E. Brown & Co.

Mentally. "You have been abroad, haven't you, Mr. Snippley?" "No, Miss Sharp. What made you think I had been abroad?" "Why, I heard papa say you were 'way off'."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Canoe. Mabel (aged six)—Ain't you afraid of our big dog? The Parson (very thin)—No, my dear. He would not make much of a meal off me. Mabel—Oh, but he likes bones best.—Chicago News.

Every brave heart must consider society as a child and not allow it to dictate.—Emerson.

There's a reason for that ache in your backright, where it "stitches" every time you bend over, turn around or walk any distance. It's your kidney. Take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are unequalled for backache, weak kidneys and inflammation of the bladder. A week's treatment cures. Sold by Dr. W. E. Brown.

LAWYERS IN ENGLAND.

The Difference Between the Barrister and the Solicitor.

The barrister in England is the very salt of the earth. He it is who makes the laws, who goes into parliament, who sits on the bench, who considers himself seven or eight degrees higher up in the social scale than any other poor or middle class mortal, and with all this he has absolutely no responsibility toward his clients. That ancient, much abused thing called custom in this country has created for the law two separate and distinct kinds, which may be compared in a measure to the life of the bee. One is the drone and the other the queen. The drone is the solicitor, who sits in an office working up a case, examining clients, drawing bills, controlling estate transactions and controlling the incomes of people who are unfortunate enough to be saddled under the trust deeds. The solicitor, who has his own tradition to work out, does not ever get to himself any glory whatever. Except in police and court cases, he is person non grata, one in the words of the Judges, "he is not seen." If he has a case on hand, he is obliged to take it to a barrister, who, though he may never have heard of the matter in dispute before, dons his wig and gown, proceeds into court and argues till all is black and blue, as if he knew all about it, for which he draws a most prodigious fee, quite big enough to enable him to appear nicely mounted in the row every morning. If he spoils the case, there is no chance for redress, because the barrister is merely a gentleman whom fiction politely assumes to be a friend in need. All the onus of failure falls upon the poor solicitor. There are no barristers in prison, but there are a good many solicitors who wear the broad arrow which is the trademark of his majesty's prisons. The solicitor remains the old time family adviser, to whom all sorts of foolish people bring their trust deeds, their stock certificates, their government bonds and all such things, and as a consequence to lead a weak man into temptation, and that is why so many solicitors, when they need money, find it impossible to resist the desire to take that which is not theirs.—London Letter in Town and Country.

A Stubborn Cough Quickly Relieved by Rydale's Cough Elixir.

Mrs. Yvonne Creech, Selma, N. C., writes: "I had a very severe and stubborn cough and was spitting up blood nearly all the time. I began using Rydale's Cough Elixir. It stopped the blood at once, I began to gain flesh and strength. I believe your cough medicine is the best in the world and will do all you claim for it. Rydale's Cough Elixir is especially valuable in chronic throat and lung diseases. It is sold under guarantee. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you are not satisfied. Trial size 25c., large size 50c. W. E. Brown & Co.

GRAVITATION.

Its Wonderful and Far Reaching Effects Upon the World.

"The effects of gravitation are so familiar as to demand only the briefest mention, yet most of us perhaps seldom stop to consider how far reaching these effects are," says Dr. Henry Smith Williams. "But for gravitation the winds would not blow, the waters would not descend, and the mountain tops would not crumble into the valleys. Each particle of pulverized matter would remain where it was formed, and there would be no such thing as a mixed soil. "But as matters are actually arranged gravitation is perpetually active, and every particle of matter is being eternally tugged at and urged to get nearer to the earth's center. So no sooner does a fragment of rock at a mountain crest become loosened than gravitation flurries it crashing down into the valley, shattering it into fragments perhaps or at the least grinding off some portions of its surface as well as of the surface of the rocks against which it is dashed. "By such means and with the further aid of its handmaidens, wind and water, gravitation works its unceasing purpose of leveling the surface of the earth. In a few brief geological moments it rounds the shoulders of the haughtiest mountain, and given time enough, it will bring every particle of rock back to the sea bed, whence it originally sprung. Short of that, as a transition stage, it is forever mixing the different soil constituents on the one hand and sorting them out again on the other."—Appleton's.

Endorsed by a Minister.

Rev. Parker Holmes, pastor of the first M. E. church, South Hickory, N. C., says: "I have used Rydale's Stomach Tablets for indigestion and regard them as a perfect remedy for this disease. I take pleasure in recommending them to all sufferers from indigestion." Use Rydale's Stomach Tablets for your trouble and you will join Dr. Holmes in this strong endorsement. These tablets will enable you to stomach your food, and thus nourish the body and prevent the partial starvation from which all dyspeptics suffer. These tablets relieve disagreeable symptoms at once. They will increase your strength and flesh almost from the first day's use, and will soon restore you to perfect health. W. E. Brown & Co.

Origin of Attar of Roses.

The preparation of the famous attar of roses, according to the Circle, seems to have been discovered by accident. From India we get the tradition. The favorite Sultana of Selaharip caused a bath of rosewater to be prepared for her use. The burning sun of India brought its might upon the bath prepared in the royal garden and soon globules of oil were found floating upon the fragrant water. Deeming the bath impure and attempting to skim off the film, the attendants broke the globules, and at once the garden was filled with fragrance. The finest essence is not gathered from the rarest and most costly flowers, for the fragrant oil glands are most abundant in the petals of the free blooming, old, common kinds.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a preparation known as Dr. Shoop's Restorative, everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the stomach, etc. A weak Stomach, causing dyspepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation or intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves. Heart and Stomach strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, Wis. will mail samples free. Write for a test, will tell. Your health is at stake. Get this simple trial. Sold by Dr. W. E. Brown & Co.

Weak Kidneys

Cause more trouble than any other organ of the body. The function of the kidneys is to separate inorganic salt and water in the process of circulation, and to remove them and their attendant poisons from the body through the bladder. Therefore when the kidneys become diseased and weak they are naturally unable to perform their work properly, and pains in the back, inflammation of the bladder and urinary disorders are the result. It is imperative that a prompt relief be afforded, which is impossible unless you remove the cause.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills

promptly eliminate poisons from the system and at the same time make the kidneys well and strong.
