Summerton News.

Editor The Manning Times: Married at the Methodist parsonage last week by Rev. E. S. Jones, Mr. A. C. Cobia of this community and Mrs. Lizzie Mason of West Point, Tenn.

The above looks innocent enough when put as it is in conventional form, but the fact that it does not tell for thereby hangs a tale, the like of which has never been told in this section, nor equalled even by the famous Bob Rites. This tale is unique. Mr. Cobia "met" his bride through a matrimonial newspaper. The negotiations resulted, as it often does, without this medium, in a promise to marry, and further that the bridegroom was to come to the ceremony. Several appointments were made and the expectant groom would meet the train with a crowd of friends and no Dulcinea would appear. But last week the announcement came that the bride had been aboard the one and only North-western, headed for this town. The town turned out and as the train pulled in a crowd of friends surrounded Mr. Cobia, as he awaited the "appearance." Captain James soon made his appearance, conducting the lady, and as he faced the crowd realized what an awful responsibility rested upon him in choosing the right man for her. Just suppose he had pointed out the wrong man! There was not a man who would have been so ungallant as to refuse! But calm and steady was the voice that said: "There is Mr. Cobia, ma'am." Just what he opened the door for public print. From the depot after some spruving up, the contracting parties repaired to the parsonage where they were united in marriage, and may they live happily ever after.

There is so much being said about instructing delegates to Denver that the matter came up before our Pastime Club this week and a resolution was passed that in case the State convention did read and defend delegates that the cheapest, surest way would be to buy a $5 Edison Phonograph, talk the instructions on a record and send the two by express. When South Carolina's name would be called just let the secretary turn the crank.

Considerable cotton has changed hands this week, being tempted from its place of retirement by the present good price. Most of this came from the warehouse of the Summerton Warehouse Co.

Cotton is recovering rapidly now from the effects of the cold weather and prospects in this section are for a good crop.

Preparations for harvesting the out crop are active. They are ripening rapidly and will make a pretty full crop.

No contract to finish the new graded school building has been let. The first of the exercises will have to be held once more in the old building.

Perhaps, Mr. Editor, if you make it plain that your change for candidate is for the season, maybe they would come out, for they are losing a great deal of advertising time and every man wants the value of his money even if he be not elected.

There was in our town one day last week a young man whom rumor says will run for the Legislature. I won't give his name, but when he went to school here some years ago, the girls all called him "Beauty."

Wants the Magistrates Elected. In last week's TIMES I noticed that the county democratic convention passed a resolution recommending to the county executive committee the elimination of all the magistrates of the county from the primary. Now if the office of magistrate is made appointive, the appointment like most, others will be made on the recommendation of the men of the town in which the office to be filled is located. The office of magistrate is supported by the public, and is of more importance to the common country man than any other in the county.

Now must we country people stand aside and let the town people appoint or furnish the recommendations on which the appointments of our magistrates are made. The towns have their officers to attend to town affairs and the country people don't have any say in their election. I am not trying to pick a quarrel with the towns but just state the fact that appointments are made on recommendations from town people rather than country people. In making an appointment one would naturally take the first man who comes out. It seems to possess the ability to fill the office thereby nine out of ten times securing a very poor man. We are getting along all right electing our magistrates. Why make a change who the article does not state who the promoter of the resolution is, neither does it matter except he deserves the cussing of the whole county.

I wish the editor would take hold of this fellow who is trying to deprive us of the right to name our magistrates and give him a good shake. I feel confident that the executive committee will not make any change in the way our magistrates is chosen. R. D. WHITE. Alcola R. F. D. May 14, 1908.
