Last Saturday was cotton day in Manning. The streets presented a lively and bustling appearance.

The young society folks had a very enjoyable dance last Monday night with Pinkney's orchestra of Columbia to furnish the music.

The shapes these days look more like an image whittled out of a white pine stick, especially when they are shapeliness to start with.

Magistrate Dickson fined Mr. Forest Taylor, of Sumter, $20 yesterday for running an automobile without having a sign as required by law.

Those merchants who do not advertise have only themselves to blame when our readers do not give them the preference when they want to make purchases.

Everybody that can do so should attend the concert next Friday night in the school auditorium. These things should be encouraged so that Manning will be placed on the good attraction list.

It is sad to think of the destruction wrought to the middle row of trees on Broad street, but now that they were ruthlessly killed, and must be removed, the only reparations council can make is to set out new trees for a future generation to enjoy.

The Bank of Manning in its statement of September 8th, showed a deposit of $129,207.66, and since then there has been a most remarkable increase of business. On yesterday the books showed the deposits to be $236,640.09, an increase in twelve days of $97,432.43.

The trade of Manning was a record breaker last Saturday, but where did so many get booze from? Whether the stuff is being sold here, or is brought here from Sumter we do not know, but there was an unusual amount of drinking here Saturday.

They are coming in right along paying up their subscriptions and taking advantage of our proposition to give away a town lot. The lot we are going to give away is but a short distance from the court house square. Only those who have paid up and a year's subscription in advance will be considered.

Wanted, a live wide awake correspondent at Pinewood, we had one there once but for some reason he writes no more unless he wants to advertise something of entertainment. Our readers at Pinewood are entitled to the most interesting news in this town every week.

Mr. A. C. Bradham of the firm of D. M. Bradham & Son, the best of the St. Louis stock market, and the latter part of the week there still arrive at the Bradham stables a fine lot of horses and mules. The Bradhams are bustling stock dealers and they realize that competition means to have good stock at close prices.

We direct attention to the statement in this issue of the bank at Olanita. It shows what can be done by business men even in the most out of the way places. Olanita is twenty-eight miles from a county seat, but it is nestled right in the center of one of the best farming sections in the State, and it is bound to become a commercial point of great importance.

George W. Murray, the last negro congressman from South Carolina is a fugitive from justice, and was arrested in Chicago recently to be brought back to this State. Murray had accumulated quite an extensive property in Sumter county, and this, in the opinion of many is attributed to his prostration. Deputy Sheriff Sumner was here yesterday to confer with Solicitor Stoll about getting requisition papers.

There are several in Manning that claim to have planted trees here, and from the number claiming to have planted, there were not so many planted after all by the late Dr. G. Allen Hyatt, whom we have all ways thought was credited with having set out, at his own expense, the beautiful trees on Brooks street, and which were killed unnecessarily by a former county, or its employees.

Paxville, Sept. 17.—Eliherbe Davis, the 16-year-old son of Mr. J. D. Davis, had both of his hands badly cut by a gin here Thursday afternoon. He was taken to the hospital in Sumter, where he rendered medical assistance. Dr. Stukes of Summerton was later called into consultation. Some of the fingers of both hands had to be amputated. The wounds were dressed and the boy was taken home last night. The latest report is that he is doing as well as could be expected.

The Grand Lodge Good Samaritan's a temperance and benevolent organization of colored people, convened in Manning last week, the number of delegates was something over 500. It was a representative gathering of negroes from all over the State and they conducted themselves in a manner commensurate with the principles of the organization they represented. There was to be a parade on Thursday afternoon but a heavy rain prevented which was a disappointment.

Mr. S. G. Stukes, of Manning, S. C., a Princeton student who has supplied the Accomac and Onancock churches during the summer has returned to the State. Under his ministrations there were fifteen professions, ten union with the Accomac church. He is a young man of marked ability and in his quiet unassuming manner has won the love and respect of the entire community regardless of denominations. Our people shall watch his career with interest.—W. L. R., in Christian Observer.

A very unfortunate accident occurred last Wednesday near Jordan, two sons of Mr. Harvey Mitchum aged six and eight respectively. They were out hunting, and while sitting on the barrel of the gun while his brother Sheppard was unbreaching it. The gun fired and the contents entered the body of Seabrook, killing him. The funeral took place Thursday. Rev. J. W. Godbold of Jordan, assisted by Rev. Mr. Porter of Summerton conducted the service.

When we are hit in the face with a cheap corn whiskey breath in these poor old prohibition days, as we were last Saturday from a citizen of Clarendon, we are almost persuaded that the time has come when The South Carolina Voice, a paper edited by Rev. J. L. Harley can get in some good work for the cause of temperance by being distributed in this county. And now that Mr. Harley has a paper to voice his views, perhaps he will not regard those who differ with him so bad in the future, should they desire to give him the same free advertisement, to receive in return therefore nothing but abuse and misrepresentation.

Court. The fall term opened Monday with His Honor Judge Thos. S. Sease presiding. Solicitor P. H. Stoll and Stenographer Wood were at their respective posts. This is Judge Sease's first visit to Manning, and he has already made a favorable impression on the manner in which he discharges his business. His charge to the Grand Jury was clear and earnest, without any attempt to play to popular sentiment so frequent these days, but instead he endeavored to impress the minds of the jurors that they as well as himself had a duty to perform.

He referred to the reports over the State that the criminal law was not being strictly enforced, and asked what the State had to do about it. It was the Solicitor's fault, nor the Judge's fault, nor the petit jury's in every case, but that of witness who go upon the stand and willfully perjure themselves in order to save a friend from punishment. He said that it was not the State's fault, nor the Judge's fault, nor the petit jury's in every case, but that of witness who go upon the stand and willfully perjure themselves in order to save a friend from punishment. He said that it was not the State's fault, nor the Judge's fault, nor the petit jury's in every case, but that of witness who go upon the stand and willfully perjure themselves in order to save a friend from punishment.

PRESENTMENT OF GRAND JURY FOR SEPTEMBER TERM OF COURT 1909.

The Hon. Thomas S. Sease, presiding Judge. His excellency was met at the court house on all bills of indictment handed us. The committee on public records report that they are present at all other records, except those of some of the Magistrate's and find them all in very satisfactory condition. The committee on chain gang has not visited the camp since the last court, but did so shortly before the last term and reported fully at that time.

A committee appointed to visit the jail reported that the warden of the prison rooms and the bars of the cells are in a tidy condition and recommending that the warden be allowed to improve the jail's sanitary condition. In our last presentation we presented as follows: Two years or more ago an appropriation was made for the purchase of public real estate property covering a period of twenty-five years. This work was awarded, the indexes were made, accepted and paid for. It is found that in these indexes initials only have been used when in the instruments of writing names are given and in many instances this new indexing increases instead of lessens the work in looking up records. Owners and others have been found, rendering them unsafe to public interests and almost worthless as investments except for the finding of direct title. We therefore recommend that these indexes be made reliable which until done the county is exposed to great loss which is practically valueless.

His Honor Judge Sease, instructed us to follow the committee's recommendation, and we were supplied with. We are sorry to report that so little attention has been given to this presentation.

We thank His Honor for his able charge and all courtesies shown us. A. S. BRIGGS, Foreman.

School Opens.

Vacation is ended, and the children are down to it, with every promise of making the coming session a record breaker in fact as well as in name. Last Monday morning the school auditorium was indeed a scene worth witnessing. The children with bright and happy faces and tidily dressed were there in full force, and to give them a good send off were many of the parents, and some who were not parents but who are well wishers to the cause of education.

On the platform was seated Rev. A. R. Woodson, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of the Clarendon Baptist church, and Rev. F. H. Shuler, of the Methodist church; Capt. W. C. Davis, a trustee of the County Board of Education; E. J. Brown, of the Clarendon Baptist church; J. H. Lesesne, Esq., and Senator Louis A. J. C. Daniel. The exercises were opened with a Scripture reading by Rev. Woodson, followed with prayer by Rev. Blanchard.

Then followed speeches by all of the gentlemen who occupied the stage. It was indeed a grand opening of the best and largest in the history of the school. The attendance of patrons and others was very gratifying, and its effect impressed itself upon many of the scholars; they appreciated the interest manifested and its results will be told in the school work. The exercises too highly appreciate the excellent turn out of the patrons, it makes them feel they have the hearts of the people with them in their arduous labors, which is a source of gratification.

The enrollment was the largest the school has ever had on the opening day. 275 was enrolled, and quite a number are boarding pupils and children living in the county but outside the district. Superintendent Daniel announced that the contingent fee would be 25 cents per month as heretofore. This announcement was deemed necessary because of a report that the tributed in this county. And now that Mr. Harley has a paper to voice his views, perhaps he will not regard those who differ with him so bad in the future, should they desire to give him the same free advertisement, to receive in return therefore nothing but abuse and misrepresentation.

Secure your tickets for the Manning City Lyceum Course, course opens September 24th, with "The College Singing Girls." There are ten (10) artists in this company. What are the People's Rights? Magistrate Dickson tried a case in his court which is of unusual interest. Mr. H. D. Plowden was recently arrested on a Game Warden, and in the exercise of his duties, acting under specific instructions from the Audubon society, he went to Brewington lake, found a trap in the waters on private land, but in one of the traps a pair of quail. The trap belonged to Mr. Frank Harrington, but Mr. Plowden cut it open and turned the fish out. Mr. Harrington believing the warden exceeded the law had a warrant issued against Mr. Plowden, charging him with trespass, etc., and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. S. Oliver O'Bryan, Esq., attorney for Mr. Plowden, gave notice of a motion for a new trial, which in all probability will be refused, and then an appeal will be taken to the circuit court, and from there to the State Supreme Court. There is no feeling of animus in the case, but a large number of people are anxious to know their rights and how much of their life-long privileges have been taken away at the instance of this society.

To Our Friends and Customers:

THE MANNING OIL MILL has been recently bought from the South Atlantic Oil Co., and at the beginning of our career under the present ownership we extend our thanks to all of our friends for their support and patronage.

We have tried in the past to deserve your support by being absolutely fair and honest with all of our customers, and we ask for a continuance of your support for the following additional reasons:

FIRST: Ours is a local company—not a dollar of its stock is owned outside of South Carolina.

SECOND: We pay annually to the Town and County Treasurers over $600 taxes which helps that much towards paying the expenses of our local government.

THIRD: It costs us about $30,000 per year to manufacture the seed we purchase, and of this amount, $20,000 is spent right here at Manning. In other words, when you sell us a ton of seed (66 2-3 bushels) you get market price for the seed and the community gets $4 of the amount it costs to manufacture them. When you sell a ton of seed to the other fellow, you get the market price for the seed, and SOME OTHER COMMUNITY gets the benefit of the money paid out to manufacture them.

We could mention a number of other reasons, but we think the above is sufficient to convince you that it pays to patronize home industries.

Yours very truly, Manning Oil Mill, C. R. SPROTT, President and Treasurer.
