Weinberg's Grocery.

"Where quality reigns."

The people of Manning will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. D. Gerald has decided to move his family back with us again. Once people get a taste of the water in Manning they may go where they may but back they will come to the best town in the State.

There was a bad row near Greeleyville last Friday in which Charlie Ard, and his uncle Ben Barfield were involved and resulting in the death of Barfield. Ard is now in the Kingsree jail.

The negroes had a high-beel old time at Law Church last Sunday. Several of the Manning crowd came away with bruised heads.

Yesterday afternoon about the time most people were eating their dinners the alarm of fire was sounded and in a few minutes the firemen responded.

The following very encouraging letter has been received by the Board of Trade regarding the tobacco experiment station for Clarendon County:

Dear Mr. Lever—I have received your recent letter, also communications from Commissioner Watson, Mr. DuRant, and others concerning the proposed tobacco work in Clarendon County, S. C.

We have had the project under consideration ever since you and Commissioner Watson and others visited us last summer and have been hoping to see a change in the South Carolina law to allow the people to grow tobacco.

Every member of the Eastern Star should be out at the meeting next Tuesday night.

The bird season begins November 1st, and it is said that birds are plentiful this year.

Of course the council will have the police house moved from in front of the court house square.

The cash trade of Manning is increasing every week. All the merchants are doing a good business.

Mrs. H. Thomas of Florence, is in Manning visiting the family of her brother-in-law, Mr. F. C. Thomas.

There was a good attendance at the boy's farmers meeting yesterday and some good talks were made.

Mr. Charles DuRant has returned from Charlotte where he was attending the Layman's Missionary meeting.

The ladies are going to organize a civic society, and their first work will be to beautify the court house square.

The Manning Board of Trade is contemplating having issued pamphlets showing the advantages of the town. A good idea.

There will be an oyster supper at Wilson's Friday night for the benefit of the church at that place. The public is cordially invited.

The stockmen of this town are certainly in luck, and their staples are constantly being replenished with high-grade horses and mules.

THE TIMES editor is in Charleston attending the festival. Clarendon is well represented in the city this week from all over the country.

Mr. S. M. Keardon brought to this office two pears, one weighed 1 lb., 75 ounces and the other weighed 1 lb., 55 ounces. How is that for pears?

The town is not large enough for a lodge of Eagles or Elks, and besides it is not needed. The soft drink establishments is sufficient for a dry town.

Married at the parsonage of the First Baptist church by Rev. L. M. Holloway, last Monday afternoon, Mr. Charlie White and Miss Maggie Sheppard.

Remember THE TIMES will give away a town lot on the 15th, of December. Read the advertisement and may be it will be you. Somebody will get it.

The sale stables of F. C. Thomas has received a beautiful lot of horses and mules. Mr. Thomas has three pairs of the prettiest mules we have ever seen on this market.

Bradham—Oliver. Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church when Miss Minnie Lucile Oliver became the bride of Hon. David A. Bradham.

The church was beautifully decorated, Miss Mertel Keam at the organ and Mr. J. A. Wells violinist, rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered.

The groom, a native of South Carolina and has been a resident of Warren for the past four years. Through a poor boy on a farm he is a graduate of the South Carolina Military school.

He came to Warren in 1905 and taught in the Warren high school during the session of 1905-06. Since that time he has been actively engaged in the practice of law.

He is active in church and social affairs in every movement for the advancement of the community. He is a hundred point man and has made good since he has been among us.

The groom's personal friends wish for him a position of honor to himself and credit to his county; he being author of several important laws, one of which is the act creating the State Tax Commission.

He is active in church and social affairs in every movement for the advancement of the community. He is a hundred point man and has made good since he has been among us.

Try Your Luck. The Charleston News and Courier is now conducting one of the largest contests ever conducted by a southern newspaper.

They are giving away a Maxwell touring car, valued at $1,600 as first grand prize, a Buick touring car, valued at $1,400 as second grand prize, and a Maxwell runabout, valued at $850 as third grand prize.

These automobiles will be awarded to the candidates holding the highest number of votes throughout the State, regardless of district, and then there are thirty-six other prizes.

These prizes are: 300 Kingsburg pianos, six $100 furniture outfits, six $65 tailored suits, six $50 bank accounts, six $40 gold watches and six $25 trunks.

For the purpose of this contest, the State of South Carolina has been divided into six districts, and one piano, one furniture outfit, one suit, one $50 bank account, one watch and one trunk must go into each district.

They will be awarded to the candidates having the six highest number of votes in their district after the grand prizes have been awarded, therefore they are having six contests in one big one, and everybody has a chance to win a prize.

Any of these prizes are worthy of the little effort required to become the proud possessor of any one of them.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a nomination ballot and a daily ballot. All you have to do is to clip these and fill in with your own name or that of a friend and send it to the Editor.

Dr. Clifton, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be in Summer for one week, November 1st to 6th inclusive. Operations on the eye, ear, nose and throat, etc., at special rates. Examinations free.

Dr. F. F. Highsmith, the well known Ophthalmic and Optician of Atlanta, Ga. (Formerly of Sumter, S. C.) makes the following announcement: To the General Public:

I have decided to make frequent visits to Manning, and shall be in the city every day or week at each visit, for the purpose of making eye-examinations and fitting eye-glasses and spectacles.

I shall be located at Hotel Mecca. The date of my first visit is from October 25 until the 31st inclusive. I use the latest design electric eye-testing instruments in making my examinations and diagnoses.

I carry a complete line of spectacles and eye-glasses and such will be supplied for you. Come in and have your eyes examined, and if you do not need glasses I will frankly tell you so.

Home Missions. The ladies of the Clarendon county Home Missions Association to promote a worthy object will have a Bazaar in the old court house on the morning, afternoon and evening of November 10th inst., at which time pretty and useful articles and some money will be sold.

Refreshments will be served all day at reasonable cost. It is hoped that the project will be well patronized as the proceeds will go to the hospital fund. Ladies who have already promised articles to the Bazaar should bring them in by November 2nd to the home of Mrs. C. B. Geiger, where the articles will be inspected and valued by a committee before they are arranged for sale at the place designated.

Ladies and gentlemen who read this advertisement will do a good work by sending any donation of material or money, and will certainly give encouragement to those who are working so earnestly for a hospital in Clarendon county.

How's Great London Shows. What Brain and Money Will Do—Acknowledged by Competitors to be Worthy Their Imputation.

Acts, many and novel, have been added to the repertoire of Howe's Great London Shows this season, and as the management registered a vow to equal any tented show, the result is a plethora of attractions fitted to evoke an enthusiasm from a performance where hundreds of skilled performers vie with each other in friendly contests for supremacy and public appreciation.

So successful has this effort been that view-partners show an acknowledgment that a competitor has entered the lists that demands their recognition. Although this has cost a lot of money, the public are the gainers, and Howe's Great London Shows will be classed as the outer among names more familiar to circus goers in the past.

This great show will visit us, with all its attractions, to please and educate the old and the young alike. In case of inclement weather the water-proof tents insure perfect protection and comfort.

Don't forget the date, Thursday, October 28.

A Card. Mr. Editor—I take this means of extending to my friends and the good people of the community my heartfelt thanks for the sympathy and liberality extended to me, after my terrible loss by cyclone. There is something yet to live for.
