LET'S HAVE IT.

The State says, "We believe that if put to the test we could guess more nearly than any other newspaper in South Carolina the number of pounds that the next governor of South Carolina weighs, but we are resolving for the New Year not to guess."

The entire world feels a sympathy for Dr. Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain) in his recent bereavement.

President Taft has at last decided "what is whiskey." There are many less distinguished persons who can render expert opinions on "what is whiskey."

The news of the death of J. C. Garlington, is received with sincere sadness. Mr. Garlington was a splendid newspaper writer and for a number of years was one of the prominent newspaper men of the State.

There is a stronger demand for the repeal of the lien law now than ever before, and we look for the legislature to wipe out the mortgage clause, which if done practically destroys the crop advancing business, and puts the credit system in the hands of the banks and other money lenders.

Post Master General Hitchcock in his report says that there is a deficit in the Post Office Department of $17,479,770, the largest ever had in the department's history.

Now that Dr. Cook has been proclaimed a fraud by several of the geographical societies, it has become the thing to do. It is a clear case of kicking a man that is down. The folks who need kicking are those who permitted themselves to be flamed.

The Governor of Tennessee refuses to honor Governor Ansel's requisition for a C. J. Herbert, wanted in the State for his connection with the great Seminole fraud.

According to Comptroller Jones' report it seems as if the corporations are not bearing their just proportion of taxation. The same might be said of the large land owner, but the small farmer and the salaried man who owns a little home is having it put on to him in full measure.

It now looks like 16 cents cotton any many who study the crop conditions say that cotton will reach 18 cents before March.

Now that "Zack McGhee," correspondent for Columbia State at Washington has fallen down on his inside information in regard to the Cochran appointment, let us wait and see how he comes out in the matter of Col. Hemphill of the News and Courier being the "referee" for the administration, in South Carolina appointments.

J. J. Hemphill is about to lose out, according to the press dispatches, all because he paid poll taxes in South Carolina. Has it ever occurred to Mr. Hemphill that if poll taxes were collected from him in this State, it is an error because he is exempt from poll tax on account of age.

The State penitentiary is a paying institution, Superintendent Griffith thinks he will be able to show a profit for this year of $80,000. If all of our State institutions, schools included, had a D. J. Griffith at their head, perhaps there would be less demands made upon the legislature for appropriations.

Summerton News.

The Christmas season, accompanied by the usual festivities and merry-making was passed quietly and peacefully in Summerton, and a noticeable reaction from the strain of the preceding days is upon us with the stern realization of the closing year.

The many anxious friends of Mrs. R. E. Briggs will be glad to learn that her condition was on yesterday considered much improved. Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Briggs of Clinton, have been present since Mrs. Briggs became apparently worse, and they together with the local physician are rendering every service possible for her comfort.

Mr. H. Anderson of West Point, Miss., returned a few days since, having closed the season's cotton business in that territory. The J. B. Holt Co., represented at West Point by Mr. Anderson, will not compete in that territory another year; and we congratulate Mr. Anderson that he will succeed in his business as we learn that he will another year enter upon business for himself.

Chief among the social festivities of the Christmas season was the entertainment of the Matron's Book Club on Friday afternoon, December 24th, by Mrs. A. A. James. After dispensing the usual business the members were invited from the parlor into the drawing room, beautifully decorated with evergreens and holly in the further corner of the room had been placed the appropriate Christmas tree, which when lighted shed its joyous light over the heretofore dark room, revealing its glittering branches bending under the weight of the Christmas tokens.

Among the young ladies, who are at home for the Christmas holidays are, Misses Cora and Sine Cantey, and Christine Coskey from Columbia College; Miss Nora Nelson from the College for Women, and Miss Etta Scarborough from Greenville Female College.

Mr. R. K. Rutledge of Rocky Mount, N. C., spent Christmas at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rutledge.

Mr. J. C. Hester of Columbia, is a visitor in our midst. Mrs. Jack Hester of Sumter, is spending a few days with her son, Mr. B. C. Hester.

Miss Sallie Anderson and Mrs. J. M. Plowden have returned to town after spending several days last week at Statesburg, in attendance upon the Pierson-Pagan wedding.

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Manning People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Manning people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Manning testimony proves it always reliable.

W. R. White, S. Bondary St., Manning, S. C., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble for some years, I was forced to arise frequently during the night on account of the too frequent passages of the kidney secretions and backaches and sharp pains across my joints made me miserable. At times I was so lame and stiff that I could hardly turn over in bed and mornings I found it very difficult to dress myself. If I sat down for a little while I would have to lift up and I was unable to find a remedy that would help me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. I used but one box of this remedy but the pains were disposed of and the lameness and soreness in my back disappeared. I do not have to get up nights to pass the kidney secretions and I am feeling twenty years younger. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and can say that I never used another remedy that gave me such great relief."
