KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS WITH DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY FOR COUGHS AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES. GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY OR MONEY REFUNDED.

HEED THE WARNING. Many Flanning People Have Done So. When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys with the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brick-dust" sediment and painful in passage. Stagnant kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizziness, tired, languid feelings and frequently rheumatic twinges. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only; they cure sick kidneys, and rid the blood of uric poison. If you suffer from any of the above symptoms you can use no better remedy. Manning people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. C. L. McElveen, South Church St., Manning, S. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be the best kidney remedy I ever used. My kidneys were weak for some time and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused me to arise often during the night. I suffered severely from backache and pains in my legs and at times I was so lame that I could not stoop or lift. I finally read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. Since using them, my backache has disappeared, the lameness has been removed and I do not have to arise at night. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York. Beware of the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Grim Sest Wit. A Scottish minister had among his parishioners a man who dealt in old horses, alternating his spells of labor with heavy sprees. During the period of depression which followed each overindulgence John habitually took to bed and there diligently studied the family Bible. During one of these fits of attempted reformation his condition prompted his wife to call in the Rev. Mr. Wallace, the parish minister, who at the time happened to be passing. "Oh, Maister Wallace, come in and see our John; he's a real bad man." "What's wrong wi' him?" "He's fear to meet his Makker," said Mrs. John. Quick as fire came the crushing reply: "Humph! The'll be hee na be fear for that; he'll never see'm."

The Taj Mahal. The Taj Mahal, at Agra, India, is said to be the most beautiful structure in the world. It was built by Shah Jehan as a tomb for his wife and is of the purest white marble. It shines so dazzlingly in the sun that you can scarcely look at it except in the morning or evening. Every part is inlaid with the most exquisite designs in marble of different colors, the finish being so perfect that the entire building may be said to resemble in the delicacy of its workmanship one of those Chinese caskets of ivory and ebony which are now so common in Europe and America. —New York American.

Foley's Kidney Remedy is a safe and certain remedy for all kidney and bladder diseases, whether acute or chronic. It is a splendid tonic for middle aged and elderly people and a sure cure for all annoyances and irritations of the kidney and bladder. W. E. Brown & Co.

The Aged and Infirm One. The Haldane family has always been noted in England for its famous walkers, and the present head of the family tells this story of one of his ancestors: This old gentleman, having been prayed for by a clergyman as "thine aged and infirm servant," immediately suggested a little walk with his surprised clerical friend. The latter consented, and the "aged and infirm" Mr. Haldane took him for such a tremendously long walk that when the clergyman returned, utterly exhausted, he fell asleep and could only with difficulty be awakened to conduct a religious service.—London M. A. P.

Profanity of His Profession. "Who is that scientific reek in room 15?" asked the scrub lady. "I dunno," answered the broom gentleman. "But he's a funny one to swear. You ought to hear him. When he saw a lot of mold on top of his ink he said, 'Bellus! Just that way.'"—Chicago Tribune.

How Good News Spreads. "I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B. F. Tolson, of Elizabethton, Ky. "Everywhere I go I recommend Electric Bitters, because I owe my excellent health and vitality to them. They cure a cure every time. They never fail to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. They work wonders for weak, run-down men and women, restoring strength, vigor and health to a daily job. Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction is positively guaranteed by all druggists."

Rapid Army Mobilization. The finest example of rapid organization of an army was certainly the mobilization of the German army in 1870. On July 17 in that year the famous telegram, the shortest and most momentous ever dispatched, "Krieg Mobil," went forth from the headquarters at Berlin, and within a fortnight an army of 500,000 men, fully uniformed, equipped and provided with commissariat, was on its way to the French frontier. Of course it must be remembered that all these men had been previously warned and that all had been through their period of military training.—London Answers.

There is No Right. "What is the right thing to do when your wife asks you for money and you haven't got it?" "Under those circumstances anything you do will be wrong!"—New York Herald.

GATARRH CURED AT HOME. Trial Treatment of Dr. Blosser's Catarrh Remedy Free to Sufferers. If you have catarrh of the nose, throat, or lungs, if you are constantly spitting, blowing your nose, have a sore throat, feel tired, have weakness, asthma, bronchitis or weak lungs, you can cure yourself at home by a remedy so simple that even a child can use it. It will cost you only a postal card to get a thorough trial package of Blosser's Catarrh Remedy. It is sent by mail to every interested sufferer. Certainly no other could be more liberal.

Damascus of Marvellous View. The view of Damascus from the mountain where Mohammed made his great renunciation is one of the marvellous views of the world. Again and again I deserted the mosques, the bazaars, the marble baths, the courts of the fountains, the shadowy khans and the gardens by the streams for that bare height on which Abraham is said to have had the unity of God revealed to him.—Robert Hichens in Century.

A Night Alarm. Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it the first sign of danger. Foley's Honey and Tar has saved many little lives and is the only safe preparation for children as it contains no opiates. W. E. Brown & Co.

The Text. The minister had preached on the text, "Why hath ye between two opinions?" and upon little Cora's return home from church her grandmother asked what the text was. "I don't remember exactly," answered Cora, "but it was something about a hawk between two pigeons."—Chicago News.

CRUDE ASTRONOMY. Russian Peasants Have Queer Ideas of Sun, Moon and Stars. We have it on no less authority than that of Caesar that the Druids taught their disciples many things about the form and dimensions of the earth and the heavens and a body of doctrines on the motions of the stars. Even death itself was to them an astronomical fact. They held that from this life one of the heavenly bodies. That they firmly held to this belief is manifest from the fact that they had no objection to lending money to be repaid in the other world. They looked upon the passage of life in much the same way as we regard a journey across the Atlantic. There is no doubt that even now in various parts of Europe the views of the peasantry as to the heavenly bodies and celestial phenomena have changed but little from those of a thousand years ago. A Russian contributed to the bulletin of the Astronomical Society of France has given the results of his observations on this point extending over ten years. The astronomical lore of the Russian peasantry of the north, center and south is limited to a knowledge of the existence of the sun and moon, of three constellations, of the Milky way, of one planet, of comets, shooting stars and meteors. The sun is to all a mysterious and beneficent being. The moon covered with ice and snow is ever in flight from his brother, the sun. Upon his disk may be seen unmistakably portrayed the murder of Abel by Cain, the latter being done to death by a pitchfork. Chill are the lunar rays, and woe betide the child of man who shall sleep unprotected therefrom! From the horns of the crescent much useful information as to the forthcoming weather may be derived by the learned in such things. The stars are lamps or candles which are lit and extinguished daily by the Eternal. A shooting star is the soul of one who has just passed away. Comets are heralds of war and famine. No Russian ever forgets that the Napoleonic war followed the great comet of 1811.—Westminster Gazette.

An Awful Eruption of a volcano excites brief interest, and your interest in it is quickly over. As a short cut to your Bucklen's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst boils, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Chilblains and Piles. It gives instant relief. 25c at all druggists.

Four Extremes. The coldest place on earth inhabited by man is Verkhoyansk, above the arctic circle, in northeastern Siberia. The thermometer there drops to 90 degrees below zero in January, but sometimes rises to 85 degrees above zero in the shade in July, dropping, however, to the freezing point at the warmest summertime. The hottest place in the world is the interior of the great Sahara desert. In Africa, where the thermometer rises to 122 degrees. The wettest place is Greytown, Nicaragua, where the mean annual rainfall is 260 inches. The place of least rain is Port Nolloth, in South Africa, where less than an inch sometimes falls in a year.

All For Love. "Did you ever know a girl to die for love?" "Yes." "Did she just fade away and die because some man deserted her?" "No; she just took in washing and worked herself to death because the man she loved married her."—Houston Post.

A Cruel Hint. Nell-Harry had such a masterful way with his proposing that I liked. Belle—Did you? That's queer, for it was exactly what made most of us other girls turn him down.—Baltimore American.

Coughs That Hang On. Coughs that start in the fall and hang on until spring are sure trouble breeders and check and cure. Brochitis, pneumonia and consumption are the direct result. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough, stops the hard breathing and heals and soothes the inflamed air passages. Refuse substitutes. W. E. Brown & Co.

Practiced. "Hello, Barker," said Smith, meeting his friend on the street. "How goes it?" "All right, I guess," said Barker. "Seen Bobbie Sponger lately?" "Yes; Bobbie is down at my place at Westhampton now. I invited him down for the week end." "Why, I thought that was three weeks ago?" "It was," said Barker, "but you know, Bobbie is an expert at banking both ends meet."—Harper's Weekly.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR stops the cough and heals lungs.

For Lame Back. An aching back is instantly relieved by an application of Sloan's Liniment. Sloan's Liniment takes the place of massage and is better than sticky plasters. It penetrates—without rubbing—through the skin and muscular tissue right to the bone, quickens the blood, relieves congestion, and gives permanent as well as temporary relief.

Here's the Proof. Mr. W. C. Carr, of 199 9th St., S.E., Washington, D.C., writes: "Thirty years ago I fell from a scaffold and sustained a severe injury to my back. I was unable to get up and lay in bed for six weeks. I had been beaten with a club. I used every plaster I could get with no relief. Sloan's Liniment took the pain right out, and I can now do so much ladder work as any man in the shop, thanks to Sloan's Liniment."

Sloan's Liniment. Mr. J. P. Evans, of Mt. Airy, Ga., says: "I have suffered for three years with rheumatism. I used Sloan's Liniment, and was cured sound and well. I am glad to say I have not been troubled with rheumatism since. My leg was so stiff that I could not get up to my knee. One-half a bottle took the pain and swelling out." Sloan's Liniment has no equal as a remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia or any pain or stiffness in the muscles or joints. Prices, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sloan's book on rheumatism, neuralgia and poultry scald free. Address: Dr. E. S. Sloan, Boston, Mass., U.S.A.
