HEN FEED

MAKES HENS LAY. FOR SALE BY Weinberg's Grocery. "Where quality reigns."

There will be a picnic at Sardinia tomorrow.

Mrs. G. M. Smith is at Whitmires visiting her relatives.

Miss Corinne Barfield left yesterday for Waynesville, N. C.

Several left yesterday for the reunion at Sparta, N. C.

Mrs. T. M. Moxson has returned home from Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Mattie Appel, is spending a while at Waynesville, N. C.

Mr. H. D. Clark and family, left last Thursday for Hendersonville, N. C.

Mrs. J. W. McLeod, who has been quite sick at Asheville, we are told is improving.

Mr. Simon Iseman, wife and daughter, are in Baltimore. Mr. Iseman is there for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bradham and family are not back from a vacation at Black Mountain, N. C.

Mr. Louis Levi arrived home last Monday from Baltimore where he has been the past two weeks.

Mr. D. Hirschman has returned from the northern markets and he has prepared for a big fall business.

If his man wins, "I did it," but should be lost, "oh well two years is a long way off and people will forget."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riser of Greenville, are visiting their sister, Mrs. J. McDowell McFaddin near Manning.

Attention is directed to the notice relating to the filing of duplicate club rolls with the secretary of the executive committee.

Last Saturday it was easily seen a county campaign was near at hand, the usual crew of quarter borrowers were on hand.

Miss Gladys Thames, after a visit to friends in Cheraw, Florence and other points, returned home last Thursday evening.

The town council is determined to have the streets in first class condition if experimenting with the sand and clay mixture will accomplish it.

Mr. J. H. Rigby left today for New York, Boston, and the other leading markets for the purpose of getting the best there is in the way of fall goods.

Messrs. Fred Lesene and Julian Weinberg are now enroute on an excursion to Canada. It is to be hoped that Fred will not lead Julian astray.

The great tobacco warehousemen, Lea & Tredway of Timmonsville, have a card in this issue which worth reading as it contains interesting figures.

No man should attempt to seek office by trying to pull down his opponent, nor should the voters be influenced by the man who can best juggle with words.

Mr. W. G. King of Spartanburg, spent a couple of days in Manning this week, looking over the cotton prospect for this season. He will be on the Manning market this fall.

There was no preaching in the Presbyterian or Methodist churches in Manning last Sunday, the pastors being off on their vacation, and the supply preachers did not come.

In another column you will find a card from Lea & Tredway at Timmonsville. It contains some very interesting reading matter, and statistics for tobacco planters.

Mr. H. R. Bozer, recent foreman of THE TIMES, left for Columbia Sunday to be at his new post Monday. His family will remain here for a while pending the sale of their home.

The Krasoff sale now going on is certainly making things up. On last Saturday that store remained open all day. There is nothing like push for success.

The merchants are now having to arrive every day new goods for the fall trade, and judging from the quantity which is coming in, Manning will not be short on all kinds of merchandise.

THE TIMES editor is off on the campaign this week, and will be again next week, however he hopes THE TIMES readers will not become impatient with the paper if it does not contain as much news as it should.

There is one thing the voters of Clarendon should beware of, and that is, campaign canards. It is a pity that some people will start a false rumor about a candidate and that rumor has an influence to turn votes. It should not

We are requested to announce that the ladies of the Paxville Baptist church will have dinner and refreshments to serve on Tuesday August 23rd, campaign day. The proceeds to be for the benefit of the Hardin church.

Quite a lot of our common people have had to keep their eyes open and judge for themselves as to whether or not they are others who will have to be awake before long on account of autumn—owe-bills, the pesky non-liable things.

It is against the law to use money for the purpose of influencing voters in a primary election. It is against the law for a candidate to do this, but it is equally against the law for some friend of his to use money for him. A prize bought is not worth having.

The store of M. D. DeLorme at Greenville was destroyed by fire last Monday morning. The clerk opened the store and lighted an oil lamp which exploded, and the flames spread. The stock was insured, or $3,000, and $1,700 on the three buildings which were destroyed.

Remember a voter is not required to exhibit his registration certificate or pay taxes to vote in a primary. A primary is to get a free and untrammelled expression of the white voters of the county, and every man should go out on the 30th and exercise his right of suffrage.

Mr. Nat Davis and family, while on their way to Home Branch church last Thursday between Tindal's mill and the church ran over a large rattlesnake in the road. The rattlesnake had nine rattles and a button. The snake was killed and now Mr. Davis is entitled to the rank of Colonel.

It is to be hoped that those who are now away from Clarendon enjoying themselves at summer resorts will have the kindness to get home not later than the 29th, as the primary election comes off on the 30th, and every vote counts especially in the first race where there are but two running for one office.

Some of the Turbeville farmers have already disposed of their entire tobacco crop at good prices. We are told that on last Wednesday Mr. Martin Turbeville sold for 16. Mr. Moran Morris 22, Mr. Lewis Turbeville 15, Mr. L. J. Kennedy 15, Mr. Sam Powell 13. All of this ungraded and taken from the barn.

There must be more in the Magistrate office than appears on the surface judging from the number of candidates for these positions in different parts of the county. The Turbeville Magistrate has two opponents, so has the Magistrate at New Zion, Paxville has one, Manning has one, and Pinewood two. Foresters and Sammerson are breathing easy.

The opening up of the old Jenkinson store has added a new life to Manning, and the J. M. Bradham Company is doing a good business from the start. Mr. Bradham is personally very popular, having been in the mercantile business for many years and always noted for his square dealing, naturally the people have confidence in him and this alone is a valuable asset to any business.

We would ask our correspondents to help us for the next few weeks by sending their communications as early as possible, for the reason THE TIMES editor is engaged in the county campaign and will be able to give but little attention to the details of his paper until the campaign is over, and besides the office force is limited and they are compelled to have copy in the office on time.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. P. B. Moxson in this issue who has opened up a new business in the store formerly occupied by his father, Mr. Moxson handles farm and groceries and everything in his store is bran new. He is giving his personal attention to the purchasing of stock and having had considerable experience we venture that a nice line will always be kept by him.

In this issue will be found the official list of candidates and the managers of the primary election. Do not fail to have your name enrolled on a club. Those who have been in the State one year and the county sixty days, and who will be twenty-one years of age between now and November are entitled to be enrolled and to vote in the primary. No registration certificates are required to vote in the primary.

A party of gentlemen from Batesburg and Aiken passed through Manning yesterday enroute to Summerton to look at the crops of this section. They came in two automobiles, the party consisted of the following persons, Rev. S. Q. Conner, J. B. Bates, N. E. Bates, T. S. Bates, D. B. Rawl, M. E. Rutland, Ray Rutland of Batesburg, and C. J. Hill of Aiken. They left Batesburg Monday morning.

There was shown to us yesterday a hand bill without any signature or date which attacks candidate Featherstone, evidently sent out by some individual who has a grudge against the man. We do not approve of such nor do we think these methods are calculated to appeal to fair minded men. If attacks upon a candidate are to be made let it be done in an open square manner. No bush-whacking tactics for us.

No candidate should be judged by his manner of making speeches for it is often the case that an orator is an orator only. What the people need is earnestness, intelligence and faithfulness. Speeches in a law-making body have but little effect. Appeals to the fancies, the prejudices, and to the passions may do to fill up time before a jury but when it comes to the voters who are to elect, they want common sense.

We are informed that some of the census enumerators for this county have not yet received their pay for the services rendered, and we do not see any reason for the delay. There must be a hitch somewhere, but where, we are unable to find out as yet. On receiving this information we immediately wrote to the Supervisor of Census asking him for an explanation but as yet we have not heard from him. The pay will come as Uncle Sam is good, but the delay is harassing, when the money is needed and the work is done.

Let the campaign in Clarendon be a model for the future, no mud-slinging and no heeler at the campaign meetings for when things are fair for all, in other words, let every candidate be treated respectfully. There has been in the past for the effect it would have, men at the campaign meetings to manufacture applause for their favorite thinking "it would fall like a bomb" on his opponent. It has no effect whatever, because the voter is not guided by the noise made to select his candidate. The fact is, in most cases where the candidates are known the voter has made up his mind who he will support.

The work has been started on the building of the Paxville graded school, and from what we can hear the structure will be of great comfort to the students and it will be an ornament to the community as well. The property values have already advanced, and when the building is completed there will be an increase in the population of that town from those farms several miles away moving in to send their children to the school. We hope the State will give help to the people of that district as it is deserving. To have bonded themselves to build the house and to have it moving in to send their children to the school, is heavy on a district situated as that one is, it manifests a fine article of grit in those people and the State of South Carolina could not do a better work than by lending aid to the Paxville school district.

Candidate Ailsbrook's Statement.

Our educational institutions should be sustained in their good work, and the usual appropriations should be continued. Special efforts should be continued in improving the county schools, and in increasing their number. The new life and evidences of prosperity around us are largely due to the work done in these schools, and this work will have its influence in the future progress of the State.

The building of good roads has done more to enhance the value of property in those counties where this work has been done than any other one thing done in years, and the owners of real estate in counties where this work is now being built will in the near future, be surprised to find their property so much increased in value. Good roads are a great convenience to the traveling public, and I might say everybody is in favor of having more of them.

On the liquor question I believe it would be well to let the law remain as it now stands until we can get something better. But I would like to see the option state-wide instead of by counties, and let the voters by their vote at a special election for the purpose decide whether we shall have liquor sold or have prohibition through the state. At such an election the people would be unbiased by other influences, and if the question was decided by a majority vote in favor of prohibition or vice versa, we might hope to see the law better enforced; public sentiment would by this election be greatly strengthened, and it takes strong public sentiment to sustain the regulation or restriction of the sale of liquors.

These necessary advantages are expensive, and must be paid for if we enjoy them, but every possible economy should be exercised in the public expense account, as taxes are becoming burdensome. Respectfully, J. D. ALSBROOK.

Struck a Rich Mine. S. W. Bonds of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine when he drilled for the New Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. A CARD. A Very Strong Argument. Below we give the sworn tobacco report for the month of July, 1910. You will see that only one market sold as much tobacco as Lea & Tredway sold in the Banner Warehouse alone, and that Lea & Tredway's average was by far the highest in the State. Did you sell with them and get the north of your tobacco? and not why not? Study carefully the figures below they speak for themselves:

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Morris died yesterday and was buried today in the Pine Grove cemetery. Rev. Thos. H. Leitch is drawing large congregations to the Methodist church where he is conducting a revival meeting. The services will continue until Sunday night.

Padding Swamp News Items. The section from which these dots come is located between Padding Swamp on the north and Newman's Branch on the south. Some of the finest land in the Salem section of Clarendon county is to be found in this locality.

The seasons this year have not been what we would term usual, but they have been far more favorable than in many other sections. The recent dry weather cut the corn crop somewhat short, but nevertheless I think it will not fall behind last year's yield much. The cotton acreage was somewhat increased this year but there will be very little difference in the number of bales picked last year and this, unless the seasons are more favorable or unfavorable than hitherto. The tobacco crop is considered to be better than last year's crop, and as prices are better on the weed those who planted it may consider that they are fortunate.

The principal obstacle that retards the progress of our community, is that owing to contentions and strife, caused by sectional feeling, our schools are not as good as they should be. We hope that all interested in the schools; patrons and trustees may lay aside all bitterness and prejudice, unite heart and soul for better schools.

We are glad to see Mr. J. C. Baker, who has been sick for some months out again. Though he is not fully restored to health he looks about as well as ever, and his hearty laugh rings as clear as ever.

Mr. R. Baker contemplates erecting a new store, and he means to make things hum.

The report that revenue officers had made a raid at Olanda, S. C., has some of our local merchants who sell cocoa cola and cider a little frightened.

One of our old bachelors has taken to making flying trips over in the fork section. His business must be right secret, as he lets no one go with him.

Miss Ethel Welsh of Spartanburg, S. C., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Barrow, is stopping the week with another sister, Mrs. Wallace near Turbeville, August 12, 1910.

Barrow's Mill. Editor The Manning Times. Mrs. R. P. Barrow has been very sick and she is not much better today.

Mrs. W. T. Huggins, accompanied by her young son and daughter, spent the week end at Ethingham.

Mr. E. C. Burton spent some time in Timmonsville this week.

Miss Lenora Morris is our Sunday school organizer and we regard her one of the best in the State.

Little Mouse is improving. Those Workman people have a fine school. Well Mr. Editor come down to the school at Morris' school house if you want to enjoy yourself.

A Strong Assertion. Editor The Manning Times. I desire to state through your column, my views on Leach's Option. I assert that local option is un-American, un-Democratic, unconstitutional, and un-Godly. You can educate morals into children, but you will have to legislate morals into grown-up people.

JOHN C. GRAHAM, Davis Station, S. C., August 12th, 1910.
