A few mornings ago there was a strong smell of cloth burning. Investigation discovered that it came from Mr. Joe Wells' but Mr. Wells does not sit down to brood over it. It is interesting to hear his tell of the accident.

There was a ruckus at Howie Chapman's New Zion last Thursday in which a number of negroes were implicated and James Brown shot Willie Rose in both hands, wounding him severely. It is claimed by Brown that he shot Rose accidentally.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thomas, the parents of Mrs. W. S. Harvin of this town, met with a serious accident at Charleston last Monday afternoon being thrown out of their automobile into a ditch. Both were bruised but not badly hurt.

The ambition to get-rich-quick has been the undoing of many a young man. The latest hail from Summerton, that is to say, he did live in Summerton, but there he is now. However, he left behind a number to mourn his departure, and to wonder how they are going to get the money back this young man's ambition filched from them.

The sheriff sold at public outcry the following tracts of land: A. L. Lessee vs. Abie Butler, 154 acres $8000, to A. L. Lessee; B. A. Johnson vs. T. S. Tissue Charles et al, 123 acres $1100, to B. A. Johnson; R. H. Moore vs. R. E. Middleton, two lots in Pinewood $170, to J. A. Weinberg, attorney. These lands were sold under mortgage.

The linking of the South with the West through the Southern Special is one of the greatest railroad movements in many years, and which means much for the city of Charleston and the State at large. We have long hoped for this connection, and now that we have it, there will be great developments for the various industries.

Mr. Julian Clark, of Los Angeles, California, arrived in Manning on Sunday in Manning visiting his relatives, and on the 10th he is to marry Miss "Jack" Rogers, of Lake City, and a few years ago went West where he has made his home. He and his bride will immediately after the marriage.

A motion was argued before Judge W. C. Davis, Monday, for bail for R. M. Bateson, charged with being an accomplice to the murder of Bossard, the negro huckster in Sumter. The motion was withdrawn temporarily in order to secure additional evidence. The case is set for trial at the state and Capt. W. C. Davis, the accused.

There has been complaint to the Magistrate of the conduct of the changing guards, Powell and White, and warrants have been issued for the parties. Supervisor McFadden when he found out that the guards were acting badly, he ordered them to be removed. He is not satisfied with the conduct of the party of those whom he places in charge of the convicts. We understand that White has been arrested, and that Powell has left for parts unknown.

There will be much building improvement in Manning this year. Mrs. W. E. Brown is to tear down the shacks now being occupied as restaurants, and build three modern stores; Leon Weinberg is to put up two modern stores across the street where the Legg stables now are, and W. P. Legg is to build a modern stable on the lot now being used by himself as a warehouse. All of these buildings are to be of brick.

A No. 1, a celebrated tramp spent Sunday in Manning, a while before he sought aid from a number of individuals to help him on to Charleston. The fellow is a man of nice address and intelligence, well dressed and possessed of a modesty becoming a gentleman. He has travelled the world over and speaks several languages. He claims to be an engraver by profession, and as his custom he made his mark upon the bulletin board in the post office. It is known that he has visited Manning. He is the tramp "Jack Woodford," writes about.

When young ladies get the habit of using strong language, it is a bad thing. It may be said that all the same it does not add to the dignity of womanhood nor does it elevate them in the estimation of MAN. It seems to be a bad thing for young women to say things that come as profanity as they can without saying anything. We might call it near-sightedness, as to the ears of a gentleman, it is a sign of nothing more disgusting than to hear a decent woman utter the language of a "high-flyer."

By permitting people who did not have any idea what they were doing to handle our files, we find that we are now with the files broken, and unless our friends can help us we will be in a bad fix. Hereafter we shall forbid the handling of our files. We are in need of full issues of Sept. 28th, Oct. 5th, Nov. 9th, and Dec. 12th. It is almost absolutely necessary for us to have these numbers, and we appeal to our friends to look through their copies and retain and send us these missing numbers complete, promising to keep preachers, lawyers and other folks from meddling with the files in the future.

The colored people celebrated their greatest day here last Monday with speech making, music, and a general jollification. There were two near-bands discoursing loud and lusty sounds. One came from Sammy Swamp and the other belonged here. A large crowd of well-behaved negroes was here all day and they seemed to enjoy the Emancipation Day ceremonies. The old court house was used for the speaking but the building could not hold one-third of the crowd. The speaker for the occasion was D. R. Anderson, of Georgetown, and those who heard the deliverance speak in high terms of the effort. Those who had charge of the arrangements deserve credit for the manner in which they managed the large crowd, and the conduct of these people deserves commendation.

Dr. A. S. Todd will have charge of the editorial department of THE TIMES while THE TIMES are in the hands of the publishers in Columbia. We would be glad to give him all the aid they can by getting him all the news. We shall be our custom write a letter each week to keep our readers in touch with the general assembly, as our effort will be to make our letters as interesting as well as instructive. If you are away if they will address at Columbia we shall be pleased to send you a copy. It is our purpose to represent the people and to do it which is for the best as we see it. Dr. Todd is an experienced newspaper man and we can sincerely commend himself in being so fortunate as to secure his assistance. So THE TIMES will not lose anything by our absence from the editorial desk.

January 23rd, Judge J. G. Wells, near Summerton, occurred the death of Mrs. Lawrence Robert Chewning, Jr. For some weeks past Mrs. Chewning's health had been seriously impaired by a recent illness, from the effects of which she was unable to rally, by reason of extreme weakness. Surrounded by her large family of devoted and grief-stricken children and grandchildren, the soul of this truly good woman took its flight back to the bosom of Him who said "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Mrs. Chewning, nee Ragan, the daughter of David Ragan, is survived by the following children, having been the mother of thirteen.

Dr. R. Chewning, of Hendersonville, N. C.; Peter Chewning, H. C. Chewning, L. R. Chewning, S. H. Chewning, all of Summerton; Mrs. J. G. Wells, of Summerton; Mrs. M. R. Rantin, of Hendersonville, N. C.; Mrs. J. S. Watts and Mrs. R. J. Carragan, of Summerton.

The interment was at St. Paul's Methodist Church, at 11:30 o'clock on Friday morning.

The family share their grief with the entire community. At 3:30 o'clock on the afternoon of the same day was laid to rest in St. Paul's Methodist Church cemetery the remains of Miss Martha Eadon, whose death occurred on Thursday afternoon last, at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. J. Gardner, in the Davis Station. Miss Eadon's end came after a long and painful illness, but the news of her death was a shock to her many friends in and about Summerton.

She was near four score years of age, and had lived a thoroughly unselfish and useful life. She was the granddaughter of Messrs. J. R. and I. Y. Eadon, and of Mrs. A. G. Chewning and Mrs. J. M. Rowe, of Summerton, as well as leaving behind to mourn her taking off, a large family connection. Both services were conducted by the Rev. Edward S. Jones, of Georgetown.

During the next ten days several families who have bought property elsewhere will be engaged in moving their families and effects to their new homes.

Mr. J. M. Woodley, who has purchased a thousand cleared acre farm in Georgia, expects to get away this week. Mr. Woodley states that he regrets exceedingly to leave this neighborhood because he has made money while here, but leaves because he cannot secure a tract of 1000 acres in one piece, such as is his ambition to plant. We give him up with great regret. His place known as the Rutledge place was sold at a considerable advance to Mr. "Jud" Plowden.

Over on the Benbow place, on which Mr. Woodley raised some fine crops this year, is located Mr. C. W. Wilson, son of Col. Thos. Wilson, of Sumter. Mr. Wilson will superintend the planting of the place in 1911, and everyone wishes him a successful year.

The Plumer Burgess tract has also changed hands, having been bought in by Mr. D. W. Allen, of Troy, N. C. Mr. Allen is a farmer of some considerable experience and will be a desirable addition to our agriculturists. He will move into his new home within a fortnight.

Mr. Ed. B. Felder is engaged in disposing of remaining property on his place before leaving for Rome, Ga., where he will in the future make his home. Mr. Felder's place has been bought in by Mr. Bunyan Harvin who, it is understood, will take possession before long.

Mr. C. M. Simmons is also leaving for Georgia this week with his family. Mr. Olin Caskrey will immediately install his family in the Simmons' home, which place, along with considerable land about it, he purchased some time ago.

Mr. Jas. Deas has moved into the home of the late Mr. Richard Felder, and is much more comfortably situated in his new place of residence.

The Rev. Mr. W. S. Porter, former pastor of the local Presbyterian church, moved his family this week to their new home at Townville, in Anderson county. Mr. Porter will be greatly missed by those who had learned to love him for his many excellent traits. There has been no action taken as yet, it is stated, by the Presbyterian church members to secure the services of another minister. At a recent election Dr. Joseph Burgess was chosen Elder in the church.

During the next few days Dr. Burgess will move his family from Seneca, S. C., to the old family home here in Summerton. Dr. Burgess is running an extensive farm near here, and hopes to live here permanently. We are glad to welcome him "home" again.

The Christmas holidays have not been allowed by the young people of this community to go by without numerous parties and entertainments. Among these may be mentioned a dance given at the home of Mr. R. C. Richardson, Jr., on Thursday night. Among those present and enjoying the dance were Misses Ada Tennant, Mildred Jones, Bertha Davis, Ellen Deas, and Mary Briggs. The gentlemen present were Messrs. McClary, Baskins, Morris, Ellison Capers, Jr., Deas, and Clifton Wells.

On the same night at the home of Mr. Beauregard Davis the younger set enjoyed a party, at which many pleasant hours were

WHY DOES ONE PLAGUE BECOME THE RIGHT PLACE? THAT IS SIMPLE: BECAUSE AT THAT PLACE THEY TREAT PEOPLE RIGHT, BY GIVING GOOD GOODS FOR THE MONEY. THE GOODS WE SELL ARE GOOD, BETTER, BEST—NEVER TRASH. WHATEVER PRICE WE CHARGE YOU, YOU MAY DEPEND UPON IT THAT YOU WILL GET SOMETHING GOOD. YOU CAN NO MORE AFFORD TO WEAR POOR CLOTHES THAN WE CAN AFFORD TO SELL THEM. IF WE SELL POOR CLOTHES IT WILL HURT OUR REPUTATION; IF YOU WEAR POOR CLOTHES IT WILL HURT YOUR REPUTATION. DID YOU EVER THINK ABOUT THE VALUE OF WHAT OTHERS THINK OF YOU?
