

THE GREAT AND GRAND MAJESTIC RANGE THE RANGE WITH A REPUTATION MADE IN ALL SIZES AND STYLES.

Set of Ware FREE

If you call at our store during our Majestic Demonstration Week and allow us to show you the many advantages and superior qualities of the Great and Majestic Range, and will purchase one at the regular price, we will give you Free the beautiful and useful Souvenir Set of Ware illustrated in this advertisement. This ware is made to match the quality of the Majestic Ranges, and we know all ladies will see the beauty and utility of this set, especially the first three pieces, which are entirely new and cannot be had alone by purchase, except at a very high price. The prices of Majestic Ranges are the same, but we give the set FREE with each Majestic Range bought during the demonstration week only.

Reasons Why The Great Majestic You Should Buy

1st. It has the reputation of being the best range money can buy.
2nd. It not only has the reputation but IS the best range made,
and we will prove this to you if you will let us.

3rd. It is constructed of malleable iron, material you can't beat, and of Charcoal iron, material that resists rust 300 per cent greater than steel, is riveted together air tight. No heat escapes or cold air enters the range, thus uses very little fuel to do perfect work.

4th. The reservoir alone is worth the price of range over any other reservoir made. It boils 15 gallons of water; is haved like a tea kettle, with pocket against left hand lining, and is movable and sets on a frame, hence cannot wear out. When water gets too hot it can be moved away from fire.

Majestic ranges use less fuel; heat more water-and heat it hotter; costs practically nothing for repairs; lasts three times as long; bakes better; easier to keep clean and gives better satisfaction than any other range on the market. If you know positively that the above statements are true, would you buy a Majestic at once? Come in Demonstration Week and We'll Prove It to You.

European Hotels. Most American travelers on their first trips on the continent of Europe are astounded when upon the day of their departure from a hotel they are presented with their bill by the head waiter instead of by the landlord or by his chief clerk. But it is the custom, and this important individual is thus assured of his tip. But they fret and fume inwardly as they think of There are two ways of avoiding this worry if they only knew. In small hotels and pensions where an average of $2 or 10 francs a day is paid for pension it is proper to allow 1 franc a day for each person for service and when going away divide it accordingly among those who have served you. In larger hotels a more satisfactory way is to take 10 per cent of the hotel bill, whatever it is, add it to the amount of the bill and request the head waiter to divide, it among the servants. Thus is the tipping question very much simplified .- New York Tribune.

Sweet Mother Love. A man awoke one night with a toothache. He grouned, be turned and twisted, he howled, he sat up and lay down again. He arranged his pillow and pressed it against his face, with another groan. His wife slept on and never moved.

He wanted attention, he wanted sympatthy, and he groaned again. Sall she slept. Injury added to the pain; it wasn't treating a fellow right to sleep like that when he was suffering with a bainful tooth, and he called her name Still she slept laden with laurels." He had grouned three times as loud as he could, and she didn't awake. Then the baby, in its crib in another room, sighed softly in its sleep. The woman was on ber fect and standing beside its crib. anxious eyed. in an instant.

National Purses.

The Englishman carries gold, silver and copper loose in his trousers pock et, pulls out a handful of mixed coins and selects the one he needs. The American carries his "wad of bills" in a long, narrow pocketbook in which the greenbacks lie flat. The Frenchman makes use of a leather purse with no distinguishing characteristics. The German uses one gayly embroidered in silks by the fair hands of some Lottchen. The half civilized capitalist from a torrid South American city carries his dollars in a belt with cunningly devised pockets. The Italian of the poorer classes ties up his little fortune in a gayly colored handkerchief, which he hides about his clothes. A similar course finds favor with the Spaniard, while the lower class Russian exhibits a preference for his boots or the lining of his clothes as a biding place for his savings .- London

Selling Papers on the Roof. Not all enterprising newsboys are in the United States. The small street merchants of Paris, when forbidden to enter tramcars and omnibuses, got over the difficulty in real Yankee fashion. It was easy, of course, to sell papers through the windows to passengers seated in the vehicles, but how was it possible to reach would-be cus tomers perched on the seats provided all the other servants to be tipped on the roof? A youth promptly solved and usually end by giving each one the problem. He procured a stick sevabout three times what he expects. en or eight feet long, with wire clamps fastened to the sides. Papers were put in the clamps. On top of the stick there was a small cup with a hole in the bottom. The hole was an important part of the apparatus, for it reached all the way down, and through it came the copper coins of one or two sous, according to the price of the paper the patron selected when the boy held up the stick.-Chicago Rec-

> Louis' Compliment to Conde. One need not overlook the enormous shortcomings of Louis XIV. as a man and as a king to admit that in some important respects he "tried to do his duty." He was a hardworking sovereign both in the sphere of administration and in that social sphere which was, to his mind, no less important. So courteous that he never passed the poorest woman about the palace without lifting his hat, he carried polite consideration to the level of a fine art. In the way of courteous speech there are few things nobler than his remark to the great Conde as the old hero was slowly ascending the great marble staircase at Versailles. Conde apologized for being so long in mounting the steps, at the top of which the king stood waiting. "Ah, cousin," Louis replied, "one moves slowly when one is Objected to the Publicity. Man's instinctive and perfectly reasonable preference for reprimand delivered in private is illustrated by a story told by Lieutenant General Sir William Butler, G. C. B., in his "Au-had been forcibly reprimanded by a royal commander in chief. He openly rebelled. "I don't mind being called a fool."

called a fool before your royal highness' other fools," sweeping his hand toward the commander in chief's large and brilliant staff.

Sympathetic. "By ginger!" roared Blithers wrathfully when his son informed him that he had flunked at college. "I'm blest if I know what to say. I"-

"I sympathize with you, dad," said Blithers, Jr., feelingly. "That's just the way it was with me when they asked me those blasted questions at examination!"-Harper's Weekly.
