REGULATE BUT NOT PROHIBIT.

Editor James A. Hoyt of the Columbia Record with others connected with the same news paper, has applied to Judge Jones for an injunction against the racing meet in Columbia. On the ground that it is a public nuisance; the rule was returnable today, but was continued until January 4th, and if Judge Jones grants the injunction, we have no doubt but that it will have its bearing on the Charleston meet also. Horse racing cannot be decreed a nuisance, but the court may enjoin those promoting the racing game from betting, and a horse race without stakes will be a tame business we imagine. No, no Mr Hoyt is not a minister, but the next best thing to it, a newspaper editor, and there is no quicker way to break into the lime light than to assume the role of moral sponsor. We have no objection to good, clean, horse racing, it is fine sport, and it will encourage the improvement of stock raising in this State, of course, racing meets can be over-done like everything else, but if the proposed meet in Columbia and Charleston is conducted properly, in our opinion, it should not be interfered with. What strikes us about this matter is, that so little attention is given to the many immoral things which are permitted to exist in both the cities of Columbia and Charleston, and now to select for the activity of those who would assume moral sponsorship over the races, is what we do not understand.

The supreme court, in our opinion, can only go so far as to decree against betting, because it is against the law to bet, but we cannot see how it can say "Thou shalt not race." True, a horse race without betting will not appeal to the average lover of the game sport in existence, and it will be a losing proposition to the promoters, at the same time we hope that it will not be prohibited, but regulated so that the public may enjoy the game without being buncoed.

GOOD IMMIGRANTS WELCOMED.

At the recent conference of Governors in Baltimore Governor Blease made a speech, which is being commented upon by the press quite generally. He declared that immigration in South Carolina was a failure, but he neglected to give the cause. Had Governor Blease told his conferees that the failure of immigration was due to prejudice aroused by politicians appealing to the ignorance of the masses he would have placed the blame where it belongs. He also declared that South Carolina would not welcome "exiles" from foreign lands, evidently classing the exiles with the pauper class who flood this country. The "exiles" as a rule, are those who have sacrificed themselves on the altar of liberty, they are offensive to monarchial tyranny, and because of their patriotic independence they cannot remain at home without suffering imprisonment for their convictions, hence they come to the land of the free and home of the brave, where freedom of thought and speech is vouchsafed. We have no idea the governor objects to such, but his objection is to the element which come here with their bags filled with dynamite, and the class who come here to receive support without work, and in this, his speech is endorsed by a large majority of the people. South Carolina is always ready to welcome honest toilers from foreign lands, those who wish to come here to be a part of the country, and aid in its development.

LEGRAND WALKER FOR COMMITTEEMAN.

The city of Georgetown is the first to organize a Woodrow Wilson Club and it started out right by putting at its head LeGrand Walker, but it made a mistake when it asked the State convention to instruct the delegates to the National convention. South Carolina will not be guilty of such folly any more, the principle of instructing delegates to convention is wrong, there is nothing what will turn up, and the delegates should be in position to exercise their judgment. To send to a convention instructed delegates, them with out their own minds, and they may as well remain at home, send their votes by mail, instead of sending an instructed delegation we should see to see our State convention elect LeGrand Walker South Carolina's representative on the National Democratic Executive Committee, in the place of the present incumbent who is incapacitated on account of the condition of his health to undergo the strenuousness of an exciting campaign. Walker would make us a first class man on that committee.

IT IS A HERCULEAN TASK.

Senator Howard Carlisle of Spartanburg will introduce a bill at the next session which has for its purpose the driving out of money loaning sharks by making it a criminal offense to charge more than double the rate of legal interest. The Senator's purpose is a good one, but we doubt very much if he or any one else can frame a law to carry it out, as those engaged in the "big interest loaning game" are shrewd enough to fix their papers so the law cannot reach them. The principal borrowers at robbery interest is a class who cannot afford to seek the law's protection, because the amounts they borrow are small, and they usually sign papers which they are not permitted to repudiate in court, as the paper speaks for itself, and is higher evidence than oral testimony. There is no doubt that the money loaning sharks are an evil to a community, not only those who lend money, but those who sell patent medicines, books, bibles, clocks, cooking stoves, furniture and numbers of other things at tremendous prices to people who will sign any kind of a paper to buy on credit, do lots of harm, their methods of doing business demoralizes labor, nevertheless we can see no way by legislation to put a stop to it.

There is an element in the United States working overtime to get ex President Roosevelt into the race for president, but Teddy is not the kind to lend his fingers to pull chestnuts.

Secretary of War Stimson in his annual report is of the opinion that the United States is unprepared for war. He thinks we would not be able to cope with a first class power, and urges a larger army. What do we want with a war anyway, isn't the price of living high enough?

The McNamara brothers are now in the California State prison at San Quentin, but we believe there is an understanding between them and the prosecution that they will be pardoned and brought into court as witnesses against others who will be charged with the same and other offenses.

Joseph M. Brown has come out victorious as the gubernatorial candidate in Georgia. He succeeds Hoke Smith who succeeded him. They have a queer way of doing things over the Savannah river, they elect a governor overwhelmingly one year, and the very next time they beat him out of his boots, then turn around and put him back.

Because Senator Tillman declined to allow a hack driver to extort from him double fare, some of the South Carolina newspapers charge him with being small. The Senator has been living in Washington a long time, and it supposed he knows the usual charge for public hacks, and if a caddy attempted to impose upon him he did right in refusing to submit to it. Because a man gets $625 a month from the treasury is no reason why he should submit to extortion, and we think it silly on the part of South Carolina newspapers to criticize the Senator for refusing to be held up by a cab driver.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
