GREETED STATE CANDIDATES IN THE PEE DEE

NO NEW DEVELOPEMENTS

At the Meeting at Marion Thursday Judge Jones' Speech Was Aggressive and Blease's, Which Followed' Was Largely on the Defensive .-

Dillon For Jones. The meeting at Dillon Wednesday was perhaps the most satisfactory place before the country the Demo- a contingent of the delegates. "Vote, crat, Woodrow Wilson, held in the State campaign so far. It cratic nominee, and I assume that parties concerned since all the speak- wants the nominee elected, and it is read as modified by Mr. Bryan. It lege is upon us. Our fathers wrote be the climatic day, the end of the ers were in good form, the audience in order that we may advance the was large and orderly, and every can-interests of our candidate. didate was well received. So generously demonstrative was the crowd we may assume the American people that Gov. Blease probably accounted are informed," he continued, "and it a very good day for him, though it there is not a delegate in this convenwas an unmistakable Jones day. Ev- tion who does not know that an effort tion. en Mr. Duncan, who is inured by is being made right now to sell the now to the experience of having his Democratic party into the bondage of audience depart as he arises, was the predatory interests.

and the incumbent, Cole L. Blease. confidence and approval was given to ed the speaker to the echo. and this next to the warmth of the Mr. Bryan, "that we have no right out and win. There are some things sand ways throughout the land. members of a State delegation to the facts in the case. He said it was regreetings given Judge Jones was per- to discuss the delegates here." "I which I think it would be wise for haps the most memorable and important feature of the meeting.

About 1.200 prosperous-looking form. citizens, with a number of ladies. were assembled in the large tobacco warehouses, where the meeting was after a few young irrepressibles know we resent the insult. perched upon the exposed joists had as substitute for the county chairman, W. T. Bethca.

Lyon, at this meeting took up the on the contrary Mr. Earle had consistenly aligned himself with the pro-

H. Peeples paid tribute to Mr. Lyon's against the withdrawal of Mr. Ryan, ernment." candidates from elsewhere.

Judge Jones made the best cam- these men." paign' speech he has yet delivered.

Jones Aggressive at Marion.

Before 600 citizens of Marion county, gathered in the opera house at Marion Thursday, the candidates presented their claims, and though the mercury was high, numerous tion. The meeting started at 11 State caucus. They came in while been led to the very gates of success sive voice in Democratic councils. To o'clock with the candidates for Attorney General speaking first. This laugh" greeted J. R. Earle, and sev- appeal for order. ed at B. B. Evans. Attorney Gener- resolution contained "in part some asked for quarter; who has never desea of Republicanism to the paradise Despite these added forces, the sereral "Hurrahs for Blease" were hurl-

and apologized to his hearers for "reed against the dispensary investiga- resolution," he said, "but no one will Missouri." lumbia, and Rogers, of Marlboro, had | it." strongly favored it.

Judge Jones was greeted with loud the discussion of many problems fac- withdrawal of the last part of the res- order. Senator Reed concluded at healthful tone and vigor and civic in a group discussing what Senator cheers. He also outlined his favor of a workmen's liability law. He also self." favored good roads. "I want to tell | you that there's not a word of truth! in the suggestion that I represent floor to the opposition, reserving the corporation," said Judge Jones, em- right to close the discussion," said phasizing each word, in denying the Mr. Bryan. "corporation" charge against him. "I go into office unbought and unbuy- of West Virginia asked for an oppor- air, there was a noisy din, both on and trade will lean and bound reable," further said the judge. The tunity to speak. "The resolution of the floor and in the galleries. One and trade will leap and bound re-discussed in every delegation. The judge then stated: "Ben Abney, itself is one upon which all Democrats of the Wilson banners was hoisted in sponsive to the pulsations of a new cousin of the Governor. lives in the may meet," he said, "but when they will come when through wise reclawhite house in South Caroling, and to most it must be under a life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Onio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Onio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the Credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and read: "Ohio life when his nomination and election ed for the credentials committee and the Ohio delegation and the Ohio delegati Den Abney is head counsel for the stances which make such a measure Southern railway," and he went into necessary. The Democratic party has a lengthy charge that the Governor never been controlled by any interwas a corporation man. The state- est." ments about Abney and the Govern-administrative powers." began the lass and foolish one?" Applause and judge in his attack on the record of cheers greeted him. "Go for him" the present Governor. He called for shouted a delegate. "Hit him again," harmony in the government and ask- called another. ed how could this be had with the Gov. McCorkle hoped it would be Governor at war with all the depart- "the duty of the convention to vote ments of the government. "If the down the resolution and not alienate Governor is right give him a legislature that will carry out his ideas," try. continued the judge and he went into a discussion of the Governor's breaks tonight," he concluded. with the various departments, especially his controversies with the that Gov. Blease had vetoed the apdistribution of snoke of the men who favor "graftand he was presented with flowers.

white house", and he told many parts of the hall. facts of family history, showing the kinship of Abnev with the Governor.

PARTY OF PROGRESS

(Continued from first page.)

had the right to do what it saw fit and declared the motion in order,

Mr. Bryan then began his argument for the resolution.

"There are questions upon which accorded a respectful, if somewhat in- "It is a most brazen, impudent were: Georgia, Kentucky, Michigan attentive, hearing and this not alto- and insolvent attempt to make the and Tennessee. At the conclusion of gether because he was sandwiched nominee of this country the bondslave the roll call on his resolution Mr. between the principal contenders for of the men who exploit the people of Bryan had the following to say in rethe governorship, Judge Ira B. Jones this country." He then denounced gard to the vote: Ryan, Belmont, and Morgan as the An impressive manifestation of men involved. The convention cheer- actionaries and we can now proceed served the forms of freedom, but are Bryan victory Wednesday night in

"I Lay," retorted Mr. Bryan, "that these men are willing to insult 6,-00,000 people. Democrats ought to held. Excellent order was preserved speak out against them and let them

"I am not willing that Ryan and been admonished by the presiding of- Belmont should come here with their Underwood delegates. Underwood ficer, H. McRae, who took the chair paid attorneys and seek secret con- banners and Underwood pictures had had no organization, only a prac- day, some of the so-called conservaferences with the managers of the party. No sense of politeness will keep me from protecting my party."

Clark Nominated.

Crowded armory as a photographer tical ideal—the re-establishment of equal opportunity. Not his deeds long as the naming of a progressive gallery where Mrs. Taft was seated. The President's wife seemed much The attorney general, J. Fraser keep me from protecting my party."

Mr. Bryan said he could not speak assertion of an opponent, J. R. Earle, for the delegates; they had their own sumed. Arizona yielded to Missouri, at Florence Tuesday that Mr. Earle resposibilities, If the delegates want- and James A. Reed of that State took had always "upheld and supported ed the men mentioned to run the con- the platform to nominate Speaker Mr. Lyon in his exposure and punish- vention Mr. Bryan said he and those Champ Clark. He was applauded as ment of dispensary grafters," and un- who he represented wanted a chance he began. Senator Reed, in opening dertook to show, by citations of Mr. to go on record. He refused to take his speech, referred enthusiastically Earle's votes in the State senate, that the responsibility of doing otherwise. to the Democrats' chances of success. Up to the Sta. s.

"I'll make you a proposition," said pick a candidate but to elect a presithought it Mr. Lyon's turn to retire. of my resolution requesting their law," he said. For the great struggle Nothing unusual distinguished the withdrawal from the convention. But of the times, he said, a man was needexchange here between other minor I will not withdraw the first part, ed, "no summer soldier". He prefershall be free from entanglement with who had suffered all the hardships of afternoon for Marion, where the accept the insolent proposition by the reer of Speaker Clark, as one who has meeting was held resterday. Others only man in this convention who stood for progress. He spoke of Mr. spent the night in Florence, and went wants to destroy Democratic suc- Clark's life long Democracy and of to Marion in the morning. All candi- cess," This brought many delegates his general popularity. He told of dates were entertained in private to their feet with a roar. While the Mr. Clark's triumphs in Missouri and from his place in the Virginia delega- campaign. Concluding, he said: tion and got a shout of greeting from retired.

to the tumult.

majority at the last election, and it from the platform to bring the con- of triumph, beneath which Democra- ed and regenerated by Chio's great A big squad of police filed in and the was generally expected that the audi- vention to order, Senator-elect Var- cy will march in glorius victory. ence at that place Thursday would be daman of Mississippi came to the for Jones in sentiment. A "horse front of the platform and made an hos fought a thousand battles for party to defeat, who always carried ble row of policemen was placed in al Lyon was greeted with loud ap- merit." He approved the first part serted nor taken a furlough; who of Democracy, and not by any trans-Lyon assailed the attacks by Evans should touch upon the right of the betray a party; whose back the ene- State in the Democratic column conon the Murray dispensary commission States in the selection of delegates. my has never seen, but whose breast firmed by decisive numbers in two form at 12:10 and conferred with and apologized to his nearers for re-ferring to Barney," adding, "I don't ed time for Mr. Bryan to statement. hard campaign; who leads to-day and ored there by more than 100,000 John Sharp Williams. of Mississippi, believe he could read the truth out of On behalf of the State of Virginia, we who should continue to lead—the Democratic majority; who crushed leader of the Bryan-Wilson forces. the Bible." Lyon said Earle had vot- protest as to the latter part of the lion of Democracy, Champ Clark of and strangled the Republican State cheers. He began his speech with Mr. Ryan. "Does New York ask the rupted by the gavel trying to restore stimulated and uplifted with new and ing farmers and employees, and when olution?" questioned Mr. Bryan. "No, 12:25 and a demonstration for Clark standard of its citizenship and under Lea termed "the South Dakota steal". he expressed his favor of the Torrens no," came from the floor. "With- was immediately started. system of registration there were draw it yourself," shouted some one. "I prefer to hear from New York her-

The New York delegation sat in ab-

'white house' in South Carolina, and do meet it must be under circum-

A cheer and a biss greeted this or's corporation affiliations were well statement. "I appeal to every Demoerat in this country," said Mr. Me-"Gov. Blease has a false idea of his Corkle. "Is not the resolution a sense-

"the substantial interests of the coun-

"This resolution has no need here

Representative Flood arose a misapprehension on Mr. Bryan's part. Virginia asks nothing of Mr. Bryan," he shouted. "We do not feel that we have to go to him for advice or counsel." A great cheer inter-Pryan ever was -" began Mr. Flood, ecuting your decrees. The New Jer- above statement, and so far as we work supporting the galleries. Gov. Blease took the stand amid and another uproar interrupted him. cey delegation is not empowered to know the Governor has never depled. The police worried by the size of corridor there was another uproar interrupted him. cey delegation is not empowered to know the Governor has never depled.

he has received at a campaign meet-ing. He went into a lengthy expla-Thomas F. Lyan a delegate to this sent the great cause of Democracy ing. He went into a lengthy expla- Thomas F. Lyan a delegate to this sent the great cause of Democracy a cousin of the Governor lives in the lowed this. Hisses came from several triumphant leader a scholar, not a was read," said Mr. Flood, "I came to splitter of legal hairs; a political the platfrom at the suggestion of the economist, not an egotistical theorist; Virginia delegation to protest against a practical politician, who constructs it. I'm glad he proposes to withdraw modifies, restrains, without disturb that part of it which reflects upon the ance and destruction; a restless dethat part of it which reflects upon the since and destruction; a restless de-integrity, manhood and honor of Vir-bater and consummate master of CLARK LOOSES DELEGATES ginia." concluded Flood and a cheer statement, not a mere sophist; a hugreeted his conclusion.

When Mr. Flood had concluded Mr. with 20 minutes on each side for de- Bryan arose to close his argument. He at once cosmopolitan and composite said it was not necessary for Mr. of America; a gentleman of unpre-Flood to deliver an eulogy of the tentious habits, with the fear of God State of Virginia. It was there his in his heart and the love of mankind "This is an extraordinary session, father was born and he would be the exhibited in every act of his life; and extraordinary conditions need last to raise a question as to the in- above all a public servent who has extraordinary remedies," said Mr. tegrity of its Democracy. "Nor is it been tried to the uttermost and never Bryan, "We are now engaged in necessary for me to defend my own found wanting-peerless, matchless, conducting a convention that will Demacracy," "Boo, boo," came from unconquerable, the ultimate Demovote," came a shout.

representing Ryan, Belmont or Morof the motion. The only states voting a majority against the motion

"This vote eliminates all of the re "Some one has suggested," said him on a progressive platform and go of this condition are felt in a thousaid it," interrupted Cov. Gilchrist of the candidate to do, but they need premises will be fatal. Therefore, it that the New Jersey Governor would take the votes of two entirely separ-Florida, who remained on the plat- not be announced until his nomination."

CLARK LOST VOTES

(Contined from first page.)

The call of the states then was re-"We are here," he said, "not to dispensary and reactionary forces Mr. Bryan. "One of the men-Mr. dent." He said the Democrats must which did their utmost to prevent and Belmont-sits with New York; the dissolve the partnership between then to hamper the revelation of the other-Mr. Ryan-with the Virginia "monopoly and government", which dispensary's rottenness. Mr. Earle delegation. If New York will take a had existed for sixteen years. He devoted most of his period to a de- poll of its vote and if a majority- spoke of Republican candidates' fense of himself against this attack. not Mr. Murphy, but a majority of its "tricks of demagoguery," making B. B. Evans made about his usual delegates-will protest against the specific reference to one who had darspeech regarding alleged misappro- withdrawal of Mr. Beimont, and if ed to "attack the courts of law and to priation of dispensary funds. Thos. Virginia on roll call will protest assail the fundamentals of our gov-

"We stand for government by which demands that our candidate red, he told the delegates, a general the camp; the dangers of the field; "In the name of that sovereign who had stood at the bloody angle." Most of the candidates left Thursday State of Virginia," shouted Flood, "I He then went on to detail the ca-> disturbance was on Mr. Ryan arose adjacent States during the primary "The army of the Democracy is those seated near him. Mr. Flood, forming in battle array. The sun of after accepting the Bryan challenge, hope glorifies the horizon of the future, and sheds its splendor upon our

Mr. Bryan resuming his argument, feet along the galleries, aisles and economy in public affairs; who has ator Luke Lea, leader of the Bryan said he would modify his resolution stairs made it difficult to hear Sena- purified the public service in Ohio, forces, former Senator Dubois, Senaas to Virginia and the unseating of tor Reed. Frequently he was inter- driven corruption from its public life, Wilson the Man.

At 208 a. m. the call of the States was resumed. Delaware yielded to solute silence. "Then I yield the that State went forward to nominate New Jersey. John W. Wescott of Gov. Woodrow Wilson. The Wilson people did not wait for the speech to begin before beginning their demon-Former Gov. William A. McCorkle stration. Hats were thrown in the gives 19 votes for Wilson."

From a side entrance a parade filed into the hall. Banners bearing the names of 20 New York counties into the procession.

At 3:15 a. m. the Wilson demonstration passed the record made by the Clark people early in the session. bile born in the hall and pandemon- Friday afternoon. inn broke loose again. At 3:25 Mr. Wescott began his nominating speech some applause, probably the weakest; "As good Democrats as he ever can exercise the attributes of proprietor- itcharlatan; a statesman, not a doc-"When this remarkable resolution trinaire: a profound lawyer, not a CONVENTION REPUBLATES CRE> mantarian, not a defamer of characters and lives; a man whose mind is and Thursday Wilson's Forces Regains South Dakota Delegates Taken by Clark's Committee.

manding the withdrawal of delegates stitutions. They declared all men to dential aspirants. But as they came away", broke from rows of delegates. ers had planned to adjourn the sespend the rules and pass the resolu- the world with its beneficence, inspir- ers of the various candidates were raised a yell of triumph. The vote was 889 to 196 in favor the United States the asylum of the it seemed certain that the days would pounding for order at 12:45. Five hear of this plan and disorderly pro- self and Judge Memminger, in relahour, presents the most stupenduous ing late into the evening. contradiction in history—a people pofast losing its substance. The evils their fight for abrogation of the unit said he was sure the committee on the resolutions committee, which met

"Again the eternal conflict between Wilson. How can his power in every tory was certain. State be expilained? He has been in brotherhood: New Jersey appears to quarters. this convention to give the nation teaching them, in his matchless words of Wilson, Clark and Bryan.

for the president of the United States delegate from the State of Missouri. the minority report. the Princeton schoolmaster, Woodrow Wilson."

Ohio and Harmon. When Ohio was reached M. A. Daugherty rose to nominate Gov. Judson

Harmon. Mr. Daugherty spoke in part as follows:

"In the last decades in national missing up to this time, engaged in a lad-hued bow of promise. We have a Republican State, with no impres- a choice on the first ballot, but the vice. Let him continue to lead, and prays the privilege of salutation from While a dozen men were trying the celestial bow will become an arch a Democratic commonwealth, redeem-Democratic governor, who never lost sergeant-at-arms stationed policemen "And so I nominate this man, who a political battle, who never led his 10 feet, apart in every aisle. A dou-Democracy and not one against her; its banner to splendid victory, who front of the press stand where the Mr. Vardaman declared the Bryan who has never lowered his flag nor transformed the State from the dead scuffle of Wednesday night occurred. but did not think the convention does not know how to quit a friend or itory issue, permanently placed the crowding in the aisles. John W. Price of Virginia also ask- is covered with the scars of many a successive elections and firmly anchmachine, the most powerful and the tion, while Senators Weston, of Co- do more heartily to the first part of As it drew past midnight a slow most corrupt of modern days; who exodus began and the shuffling of exacts absolutely honesty and rigid has become the protector and evangel Clark Missourians to task for their report favors the Wilson delegates of the aroused and dominant moral sentiment of its people, that sentiment which is the onward and upward and essential spirit of representative government."

In concluding, Mr. Daugherty said: honest business will not tremble, but tials majority report. are annonuced, while trust and mothe Clark delegation submitted after that met him at Baltimore Teusday mation efforts the needs in every secing. The custom is followed by racnopoly then will know that their the national committee had pa its evening when he arrived from Chicadeath knell has been sounded. Ohio seal of approval on the Wilson dele- go. The contest over the selection of stretches of land now practically is a man whose duty it is to see that now names as your nominee for pres- gates. ident her gifted and brilliant son of were carried by the marchers. Wil- quiet dignity, superb poise and spot- its action upon the claim that two Nebraskan into the centre of the son banners of every description fell less life, pre-eminent in leadership, Clarks had together polled more votes stage on the very eve of the Democrain law, in statesmanship, in intellee- than the Wilson ticket. and Pennsylvania standards swung tual and moral greatness, the greatest governor in all her history, Judson credentials committee appeared on Harmon." First Ballot Taken.

The result was: Clark 440 1/2. had been under way an hour and Wilson 324, Underwood 1171/2, Harfive minutes. At this time the noise mon 148, Marshall 31, Baldwin 22, ticket headed "Clark for President" ally," he said "I have no objections began to subside and the sergeants- Sulzer 2, Bryan 1. Absent 2. As a polled about 2,000 less than either to Judge Parker." at-arms started in to clear the aisles, two-thirds vote is needed there was of the others. the police assisting. At 3:20 order no nomination. Necessary to a choice Galleries and floors rose and stood 3:30 and at that hour the railroad crook need fear the newspapers ed States naval station at Algiers at had been more or less restored. Then 728. With the first ballot taken, the as the band played "The Star Span-staUtion was crowded with a throng "Who dreaded the influence of the New Orleans, La., and provisions has moral energy and intellectual great- negro should have his share of the the group.

DENTIAL COMMITTEE

Wilson and Bryan Won Fight to Ab-vention hall Thursday for a long and to State standards. He placarded equal opportunity and special privi- excited session. It was expected to California, Colorado, Wyoming, and floor gave earnest evidence of their ing their late companions, with reomitted all of the last paragragh de- the issue of that struggle in our con- long campaign waged by the Presi- point a shout of "tear it down, take it get away from Baltimore. The lead- lows say to that?" be free and equal. In a single cen- into the hall these delegates appar- In a flash the pictures had been strip- sion Tuesday night until two o'clock the many interruptions, to discuss all tury that principle developed the ently were as much at sea as ever as ped from the Wyoming and Arkansas Wednesday, and to have the commit-North American continent, leavening to who would be the nominee. Boom- standards. The anti-Clark forces tees which were appointed Tuesday handling each after the same manner ed all nations with hope and made ready to start demonstrations and Temporary Chairman Parker began ing. But the delegates would not graphic correspondence between himworld. Yet America, at this very be such as to throw the actual ballot- minutes later the delegates were listests from the floor forced an ad- tion to the Horry court, which has

All sorts of rumors were afloat as prayer. litically free, while economically to deals and combinations during the bound by the most gigantic monopo- forenoon, but none of these seemed lies of all time and burdened by a sys- to have a trustworthy foundation. tem of taxation which exploits mil- The supporters of Woodrow Wilson lions to enrich a few. We have pre- heatened by the so-called Wilson-Therefore, it is that a mistake in our views of a majority, were claiming diculous that the committee should practically certain that Bryan would is that the situation, the national ex- sweep the convention Thursday and ate sets of so-called Clark degates, tee. The other committees got toigency, the crisis, call for the right secure the nomination. They ex- add them together and thus claim a gether immediately or organization pressed the hope that Mr. Bryan majority for one set of the Clark dele-"New Jersey believes that there is might be induced to come out square- gates over the Wilson delegates. The peared in the galleries at 8 o'clock, an omniscience in national instinct. ly for Wilson and felt that if this national committee, he said, had the hour set for convening the night court and stated same thing to Gov. That instinct centres in Woodrow could be brought about ultimate vic- thrown out he Clark claims with session. There were hundreds of va- Blease in answer to his long distance political life less than two years. He Bryan himself as the nominee Thursalone, but all combined, compel national faith and confidence in him.

Every crisis evolves its master. Time and clrcumstances have a confidence in the conf and circumstances have evolved braskan was content with the posi-Woodrow Wilson. The north, the tion he now occupies in the convensouth, the east and the west unite in tion, the right to name the candidate police. being all but conceded to him. Sup-"If providence could spare a Wash- porters of Champ Clark were claim- He argued that the Clark-Wilsonington to lay the foundation of the ing the nomination with as much out- Bryan ticket had been publicly pledg-United States of America, if provi- ward confidence as ever as they gath-United States of America, if provi-dence could spare a Jefferson to make ered for the day's session. There ticket, the second Clark, was placed Democracy a living reality; if provi- has been and will be no desertion in the field, Mr. McCorkle said, the

"Dark horse" talk died away a lit-Woodrow Wilson, that he may open the Thursday and while many candi- Dakota, he said, refused to allow the the gates of opportunity to every dates were mentioned, there appearman, woman and child under our ed to be a concensus of opinion that flag, by reforming buses and thereby the fight lay among the supporters

"New Jersey rejoices through her the guest gallery. She was entertain- South Dakota and Senator Luke Lea South Dakota and Senator Luke Lea Democratic party in this country. I she was entertainfreely chosen representatives to name ed by Mrs. Hugh Wallace, wife of a

The order of business as the convention met was further consideration It was four o'clock when Wescott of the report of the committee on concluded and his peroration set off credentials. Then the report of the another demonstration by the Wilson committee on permanent organizawith the convention ready to ratify by acclamation the choice of Senator-Elect Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, as permanent chairman. These things disposed of, the delegates 'ooked forward to the long series of nominating and seconding speeches and finally to the balloting on the Presiden-The New York delegation had been bauners. Above us bends the myr- Democratic convention Ohio was only tial candidates. No one anticipated line-up on the initial vote was await-

At 12 o'clock Chairman Parker had not taken his place on the platform.

Chairman Parker reached the plat-Parliamentarian Crisp and Senator

The South Dakota Steal. Before the convention was called to order there was an excited conference in the Missouri delegation. Sentor Stone and former Gov. David R. Francis, of Missouri, were gathered whose leadership Democracy in Ohio Lea, in no uncertain terms, took the attitude toward the South Dakota and as the motion was carried by vote attitude toward the South Dakota contest, where the Wilson delegates were displaced by Clark men by the majority report of the credentials or. committee. When the group broke up, Senator Lea hurried to the plat-"Legitmiate industry will not hait. form to plan the fight on the creden-

The South Dakota case was being 10 Wilson delegates had been unseat-

The Clark delegation scated by the day seem to await his coming.

cy." It secured about 400 less votes would fight anybody but a progressive such regious thus made habitable watch and one for the chief officer's. than the Wilson ticket. A straight chairmanof the convention "Person- and fertile benefit people generally.

some one brought an electric automo- convention receded until four o'clock gled Banner." The heat grew more that collected outside and in the lob- splendid press of Seuth Carolina? been made to provide government Judge Jones said that he heard delayed 40 minutes and the leaders his stay in Baltimoroe. It was 6 press that will tell the truth courage- melia and the leaves back of these were still talking together. Repre- c'clock' however, before he reached ously and dare that no honest man, towns are being constantly patrolled. "New Jersey, one bound, but by the ence of negroes in Columbia that the sentative Henry, of Texas, had joined the hotel, and by that time the no crook, shall ever occupy high pos-to this great convention in the glory that tax, amounting last year to $2,- every aisle in the galleries was filled. of the leaders were at the station to newspapers and consequently have no a center of attraction in the pre-cinof her anticipation to participate in 200,000, his share would be about Under the galleries solid banks of meet him. Mr. Bryan had to shake cause to abuse them. "A convention of 1,000 Virginians your deliberations, aid in formulat- $1,100,000." Two negro papers of spectators stood. Many climbed into hands with several hundred persons -as honest men as William Jennings ing your judgments and assist in ex- Columbia said the Governor made the lower girders of the steel frame before he reached an automobile that Judge Jones made it very plain at era ef a rival party as a newspaper to order, Robert F. Crain, chairman of the Baltimore convention commitdoors were being rushed, ushers and doorkeepers were helpless by reason of lack of organization and that the situation was dangerous. The police were unable to cope with the situation because of the convention authorities would not consent to the closing of the entrances. Mr. Crain estimated that thousands crowded into the hall who were not entitled to admission. Ticket holders rogate Unit Rule Wednesday Night who had not arrived early found their hope that the session could be concorum from the moment demonstrations were started.

Delegates to the Democratic Na- of Champ Clark lithographs went er to suspend his keynote speech un- some of those who had been among tional Convention filed into the con- around the floor tacking the pictures til the evening session.

tening attentively to the chaplain's journment till noon and advanced

South Dakota Contest.

The prayer ended, the convention ter the session. plunged into the South Dakota contests, R. S. Morris, of Pennsylvania, submitting the minority report 'avoring the Wilson delegates. Mr. Morris an almost immediate adjournment of remember you wired me you were too scant consideration and he hoped the cant seats in the delegates' section, There was renewed talk of Mr. convention would do likewise.

A nervous thrill went through the crowded armory as a photographer against flashlights were given to the William A. McCorkle, of West Vir ginia, supported the majority report. dence could spare a Lincoln to unite from the Clark strength, read a state- Clark people endeavored to have it the states in impregnable unity and ment out from the Speaker's head- withdrawn and the vote concentrated under the second ticket.

The Secretary of State of South ticket to be withdrawn, saying that both the second and third tickets were publicly known as favoring Clark and that therefore, the vote of Mrs. William H. Taft, wife of the both should be accredited to Clark.

yielded to M. M. Crane, of Texas, for

As the debates on South Dakota continued it was seen that the line between the Clark forces on the one side and the Bryan-Wilson forces on the other side would be sharply tion was schduled to be taken up drawn. The vote was impatiently awaited, and after the first two speches cries of "vote, vote" began to rise from the floor.

Ex-Gov. Blanchard, of Louisiana followed Crane. He spoke for the majority report. While Blanchard talked, the huge form of Senatorelect Ollie James appeared at the main entrance. He was stopped by several delegates who wanted to shake hands with him. Finally he retired to the rear of the hall.

As the debate went on, the delespeaking was interrupted by great waves of cheering which swept the hall as the demonstration increased to a storm. Banners were borne through the aisles, delegates standing on chairs and madly waving hats, umbrellas, and flags. New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Texas swung Wilson banners. Clark transparencies gainin front of the platform. Underwood streamers were further back, and Massachusetts unfgurled a Foss banner half across the hall. The demonstration lasted 22 minutes and gradually died out before urgent domands for order. At 2:30 o'clock Thursday afteroon the motion was put in the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore to adopt the minority report in the South Dakota contest. The vote was taken as a line-up of the Clark and Wilson forces. The minority

A ROYAL WELCOME. Given William Jennings Bryan By

Democratic Gathering.

William J. Bryan was almost swept a temporary chairman to sound the worthless, and, in some cases, posi- all the rules governing the contest The credentials committee passed convention keynote has brought the tively injurious to health, will blos- are compiled with, and his presence tic gathering and all the events of the

Mr. Bryan reiterated the views he head, "Wilson-Clark-Bryan Democra- candidates and declared that he country gains for the productions of necessary—one for the captain's The Nebraskan was expected at the crowd, tightened up their lines, stration.

Long before the presiding officer PARKER DELIVERS SPEECH

tee, reported at the platform that UPON ASSUMING CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE CONVENTION.

> Says There Are No Longer Any But Progressives in Democratic Party

A rapid-fire routine session Tuesday night closed the first day of the front of the stand from the opening Democratic convention, which began of the meeting. This effort failing, seats occupied. There appeared little with the defeat of William J. Bryan Judge Jones was subjected to the for temporary chairman Tuesday af- more trying ordeal of individual ducted with any semblance of de- ternoon. Scenes of disorder on the gibing or heckling, but his good hufloor, which made further proceedings mor was so unfailing, and his retorts impossible; forced Tuesday night's so pat and mirth-provoking, that in A Missouri delegates with a bundle session and compelled Alton B. Park- a short time he had won over to him night meet at ten o'clock in the morn-the committee meetings so that they were ordered to meet immediately af-William J. Bryan did not appear at the convention during the evening, and his failure to be on hand caused you said you were disengaged. You

But a scattering attendance ap-while those who were in their seats gathered in little groups. Scattered handclaps greeted Chairman Parker as he made his way up the middle aisle through the groups of delegates. The soft rain that fell at intervals Paul Quattlebaum of Conway as speall day set in again toward nightfall, adding to the humid heat and the atmosphere of the hall was oppressive. As a result delegates and spectators Judge Copes was free and Judge stripped off their coats and rolled up Memminger telephoned him from their shirt sleeves, ready for the ight's work. Mr. Mack introduced Judge Parker and the temporary chairman re- er of these regular judges was availsumed the speech which Tuesday af- able and that Gov. Blease's refusal ternoon was interrupted. In his in- to commission Mr. Quattlebaum, roductory remarks Tuesday night, though the latter was regularly ap-Judge Parker commented on the Re- pointed, had entailed a heavy and publican Convention at Chicago, where, he said, the words "liar," "thief," "robber," "corruptionist," and "briber" were freely used.

this convention," he said. "We had a little difference here to-day, but there was nothing said by Mr. McCorkle concluded with a vig-orous defense of the Clark action in that the chief speaker was a little bit on which business success depends.

tion. "There is one place in this convenchairman.

No Reactionaries Now. an organization in any business." "My fellow-citizens, there are no eactionaries; whatever they may of stifling individual initiative is the have been once, there are none now. kind that is invincible. If all the The Democrats are progressive. Now people of this community organize it may possibly be true that here in and unite to build it up no influence this great convention, with all these can withstand their power. If all able men coming from every section the merchants of this town "watch of the country, it may be true that the spigot" no mail order corporaall of you will not be able to agree tion "can compete with such an orthat a single highway constitutes the ganization as this in any business." only road to progress; but you will Buying by mail is an unnatural all agree upon this one proposition, and unsatisfactory method of buythat the voice of the majority of this ing. It violate substantially all the convention, speaking through its laws of commerce. Just why so many committee on resolutions and by the people do it is the one thing the meradoption of the committee's report chants of this town want to know. by the convention, shall speak the If the fault lies in themselves or in will of every Democrat in this land." their methods they should be as quick and was given a round of applause. methods as if the blame were else-Before the applause had died away where. A little self examination may the routine proceedings were gotten shrow some light on the subject. . under way. A resolution introduced by Joseph E. Bell of Indiana provided that the rules of the last Democratic makes the same claim. Are they convention should govern this convention. The resolution went through under the gavel.

Will Be Reclaimed in Time.

parts of the land the great need is to as cheaply of home merchants as by get rid of so much water in other mail. parts there is an equally great need of getting more water. The swamps of some of the eastern and southern states are matched by the arid and steamships should carry government semi-arid sections of the west and scrutineers to see that the legal remountain states. Doubtless the time trious and prosperous settlers. What more necessary is it that ocean and already has been done along this line lake steamers should have such an warrants the most sanguine expecta- official to assure the safety of the the South Dakota ballot under the express in his telegram to the five tions. In such projects the whole passengers. In fact two would be Judge Jones says no man not a intense and the delegates grew rest- by of the Belvidere hotel, wehre he What the commonwealth needs and ratins. Algiers and Gretna are still less. The opening had already been will make his headquarters during must always have for its safety is a threatened by flood waters from Hacrowds had greatly increased. There itions in public life." The Judge is ness of a single soul now fgree, comes privilege tax. He pays about half The crowd had steadily grown and was no organized welcome and none right. No honest man need fear the demonstration by his supporters, the most remarkable of the campaign to date, and yells and hoots from Blease backers which were of amazing volume considering from how few mouths they came. Judge Jones had hardly commenced speaking when a determined effort to howl him down was commenced by a compact group of men who had stood directly in his most persistent antagonists. Tuesday night the delegates on the These were shortly to be heard rally-

JONES ROUTES THEM

(Continued from first page.)

Judge Jones managed, in spite of as elsewhere, and to submit the telbeen mentioned above. This correspondence was in full as follows: "Judge R. W. Memminger, Charleston, S. C.

"With reference Horry court, Gov. Blease stated in speech to-day that ill to serve. Please wire answer Georgetown so I can correct false im-Ira B. Jones.' pression. "Conway, S. C., June 28."

'Hon. Ira B. Jones, Georgetown, S. C. "Referring to Horry court, I wired you that under orders of Dr. Manning Simons I was too ill to hold that inquiry whether I had any other court to hold then.

"R. W. Memminger." "Charleston, S. C., June 29." Gov. Blease had said at Conway that he had declined to commission cial judge to hold the Horry court, because he knew two circuit judges to be disengaged, as he was aware Charleston that he also was disengaged and available for special duty. Judge Jones had declared that neithneedless expenses on Horry county. COMMUNITY SPIRIT

"We will have nothing like that in Andrew Carnegie Talks of Advantage of Cooperation. Andrew Carnegie knows something anyone to be unkind. If I thought about business and the principles up-Democratic party in this country. I ple to the fact that some forms of orrealized that this meant much to him ganization are more powerful and and that, if he was mistaken with ref- efficient than the corporation. Mr. erence to my position, I believed it Carnegie organized his business as a was my duty, and yours, to forgive it partnership and he has laughingly and to stand with him in this conven- said that he made all of his partners millionaires. "In speaking of business competition that he is wanted, where he is tion Mr. Carnegie said, "I don't bee capable of rendering great service. lieve any corporation can manage a That is the chairmanship of the reso- business like a partnership. When lutions committee, and I hope, and we were partners I felt that we could believe, every member of the resolu- run around corporations. You take tions committee will honor himself thirty-five young men interested in by casting his vote for Mr. Bryan for watching a leak in a spigot and no corporation can compete with such

Organization that develops instead

Judge Parker concluded at 9:13 to overcome the fault and reform the

The mail order house's chief claim is low prices; the mail order buyer right? Some, perhaps all, of our merchants will say that, quality considered, they give better value than the mail order house. But do they? -and if they do have they convinced It gives one a good idea of the vast or undertaken in a systematic and

Would Help Some.

The suggestion that all passenger quiremnts as to speed, safety and other features are met is worth consider-

Aiding Flood Refugees.

Several dozen of flood refugees have been given quarters of the Unit-

Bryan is Loudly Cheered.

At Chicago William J. Bryan was pearing at the headquarters of leadtook him to his hotel. In the hotel the Bennettesville meeting Friday reporter, was given a demonstration