In a letter from Branchland, W. Va., Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman says: "I suffered from womanly troubles nearly five years. All the doctors in the county did me no good. I took Cardui, and now I am entirely well. I feel like a new woman. Cardui saved my life! All who suffer from womanly trouble should give Cardui a trial!"

NEW ORLEANS

THIS IS THE FIRM

who ten years ago reasoned:

"People come miles to get a taste of real 'New Orleans Coffee'—they've heard so much of its remarkable and peculiar goodness. Why not send it to them—place it within reach of everybody, no matter at what distance?"

The result was—

LUZIANNE COFFEE

Now the most popular, the most called-for brand on the market.

Many imitators have since come upon the scene, but after you once know Luzianne you will never be deceived by the "just as good" argument of its imitators.

Manning People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Manning. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Her Preference. Talkative and Abusive Old Lady (complaining of a recently bought parrot)—And when I talk to that parrot he says some dreadful swear words. Dealer—I don't blame 'em, ma'am. The poor bird is only 'uman.—Everybody's Weekly.

To Sympathetic Ears. Mary—How contemptible of you to tell my age! Alice—Don't worry. The girl I told it to is even older.—Harper's Bazar.

Much Safer, as a Rule. She—Don't you think it is easier to coax a woman than to drive her? He—Can't say, but I think it's a great deal safer.

Human Horns.

In the anatomical museum of the Edinburgh university four horns are preserved which had grown upon human heads. One of these is about seven inches long, as thick as the little finger and crooked in shape. A label attached to it bears this inscription: "This horn was cut by Arthur Temple, chirurgion, out of the head of Elizabeth Low, being three inches above the right ear, before witnesses, the 14th of May, 1671. It was a growing seven years. Her age is fifty years."

The three other human horns also graced the heads of ladies.

In Sir Robert Sibbald's "History of Fife," a curious book published about the beginning of the eighteenth century, we read: "A person of quality, a lady of great age in this shire, had a horn growing out of her toe and put her horn from walking. It was cut off by Dr. H., and she was freed of pain and walked."

They May Not Use Blotting Paper.

There are probably few houses, business or otherwise, in England, that do not possess a sheet of blotting paper. It is one of the commonest articles of everyday use. And yet there is an important calling whose activities are of vital importance to the nation, the members of which are absolutely forbidden to use blotting paper—that of registrar.

Registrars are supplied with a special kind of ink, which is permanent and very black. In order that it may be thoroughly effective it must be allowed to dry of its own accord.

India rubber or any other form of eraser is likewise forbidden. If the registrar makes a slip of the pen that slip must stand. If he writes a word wrongly he must draw a line through it and write the correction above. Even smudges and blots must be left unremoved.—London Answers

Browning's Vision and Memory.

Browning had the faculties of vision and memory developed to an unusual degree. Grant Duff records a conversation with Sir Laurence Alma-Tadema, who gave me a curious account of Browning's sight, maintaining that with one eye he could read the number of a picture at the end of a long gallery, while with the other (sic) without artificial assistance he could write an ode of Horace on a piece of paper the size of a threepenny bit.

Another diarist, Mrs. Andrew Cross, heard Browning in the course of a discussion on Byron quote the whole of the "Vision of Judgment" after remarking, "I have not seen the poem for forty years, but this is given on my memory."—London Chronicle.

Costly Curds.

The Empress Catherine, noticing that the beautiful Mile. Potocka, who had lately come to court, had no pearls, immediately commanded a fancy dress ball, to which the girl was bidden to come as a milkmaid. Then while Mile. Potocka was dancing the empress slipped a superb necklace of pearls into the pale she carried and at her exclamation of wonder said, "It is only the milk which has curdled."

No Head For Figures.

"Is every hair in your head numbered, grandpa?" "Yes, my child." "Well, grandpa," said the little fellow as he contemplated the great bald spot, "you haven't got much of a head for figures."—Exchange.

Infant Killed on Track.

Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of Grip," writes J. R. Watts, Florida, Tex., "and I regained 15 pounds in weight that I had lost." Quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

A Dead Give Away.

Wife—What would you do, George, if you were left a widow? Hub—Oh, I suppose the same as you would if you were left a widow. Wife—You horrid wretch! And you told me you could never care for anybody else.—Boston Transcript.

Looking Forward.

"I didn't know your husband had been so ill." "For two weeks he was so bad that I began to think of remarriage."—Journal Amusement.

Presence of Mind.

She—What do you mean by saying that Elsa is "more or less pretty"? He—Well, she's more pretty than most girls and less pretty than you!—Simplicissimus.

One Way.

Madge—Did you tell her she was older than you? Margie—Oh, no; that wouldn't be polite. But whenever we meet in a car I offer her my seat.

Conceit may puff up a man, but can never prop him up.—Ruskin
