Wherever I have spoken in his absence, I refused to discuss the matter of his opposition or to ever mention his name. Many of my friends think I am unwise in adopting this course; but frankly prefer to lose votes than be wrong. always make a clean fight, and take the consequences. I want the regard and respect of the people whom I represent, as well as their votes; 1 wish to be looked upon as a statesman rather than a cheap politician. However, in spite of the respectful treatment I have accorded the gentleman, he continues to attack me wherever he goes, and to make charges which I have disproved upon the stump in his presence and which he knows to be untrue. For instance, he says I have secured no appropriations for river, harbor and navy yard work, and the like, when 1 showed by copies of the official records at several campaign meetings, that I secured through my own exertions, and without the assistance of Senator Tillman, as he claims, or anyone else from two to seven hundred thousand dollars, every year, amounting in all to more than three million dollars. Printed re-cords are only disregarded by those who scorn truth, and hope to gain votes boldly fooling the ignorant. Nor do I object to his doing this, for I do not believe there is ignorance enough in the District to secure him any very large efforts to prejudice my friends in the and fooled by his rash promises. vote But I do object to his persistent country counties of the District against country counties of the District against conducted a clean campaign. So long me by telling them I have done nothing as I shall remain in public life, I shall remain in public life, I shall for them. In the first place the gentleman has voted for me and supported me for nine years and always spoke in the highest terms of me up to a few months ago. Two years ago when Mr. Lesesne ran against me, Mr. Larisey worked for me, and did not hesitate to tell the voters what a fine congressman I was. Why this sudden change? Why is it he has found out all of a sudden that I am no good? Certainly I am no worse now than I was two years ago. The truth of the matter is the entleman wants the position I hold. of course, and he is now telling you not to do that, which he himself has persistently done for all these years, viz: vote for me. But my friends is there any truth in any of his charges? Absolutely none. When you elected me to Congress we had less than ten rural mail routes in the District and the carriers received six hundred dollars per year. Today we have nearly sixty routes and the carriers get one thousand and eighty dollars per year. Every one of these new routes were gotten through my individual effort and work, and it has been through the efforts and hard work their salaries raised year by year. The

It takes time. Remember that all of these years, but one. I have been working uphill and against a Republican administration. We have had but one year of Democratic majority in the House, and during that year we have passed a rural Parcels Post Bill, where by you can telephone to town to your merchant or drop a postal, and anything weighing less than twelve In the beginning let me say, I make pounds sent to you by mail, for a few cents cost, instead of hitching up a no charges against the gentleman who is opposing me. the farmer.

And I have worked hard for every one of these measures, and shall use my every effort to secure drainage. I know the needs of the farmer. I was born and raised on the farm and most f my life has been spent on the farm. I have a large stock and dairy farm and I know just how the farmer feels about these things, and realize what is to his interest. But I do not hesitate to make one criticism of the farmer. You are too quick to believe every thing that is told you and to listen to all sorts and kinds of ridiculous promises made you by people you know nothing about and have never heard of before. I want you to stop and think about these things and to reason them out for vourselves. You are intelligent men and fully able to judge for yourselves if you will only stop and reason it out. Vote for the man who can do you the most good. I have never lied to you or filled your ears with hasty and extravagant promises. In fact, the only promise I have ever made you was that I would do my best. and this I have done honestly and earnestly; fulfilling my duty as I saw it and at all times discharging the services of a public servant with faithful ness and zeal. My conscience is clear; I know that no man could have done more than I have done for this District. My opponent is at liberty to continue his false accusations and charges. The records are there to disprove every one of them, and I do not believe there are many voters in the District ignorant, and foolish enough to be hum-bugged make no charges against him: I have always avoid this cheap plan of the demagogue. My record is clean and I intend to keep it so, come what may, I know that I will be re-elected, I have absolutely no fear in this regard. My only regret is that after all these years of hard and earnest work in your behalf, there should come into your community a stranger who stoops to these methods in order to prejudice you against me in the face of the fact that he has voted for me and praised me himself up to a few months ago. I thank you for the kind and almost unanimous support you have given me in the past, and I sincerely trust that you still regard me as worthy of your confidence.

work is being carried on in every county in my District.

I secured the assistance of the government in the drainage work being carried on in certain counties in the District to the extent of having all of the surveying done by expert government at any cost. He is also determined to carry Charleston against Governor Blease, and Congressman Legare, but he would rather Blease carry the city overwhelmingly than for Martin to be re-elected by one

This year we worked out a plan whereby we got around the Constitution and passed a first class good roads law and we expect to get around the Constitution on the drainage question constitution on the drainage question city overwhelmingly than for Martin to be re-elected by one majority. While in the city we talked to a number of gentlemen and in each case it was the opinion that Rlease. Martin and Leville ion that Blease, Martin and Lehe received two years ago is adjority is the judgment of all We nad an opportunity to discuss
