When a newly married man goes away from home and leaves his horse and buggy at the station without any one to look after it, he certainly has his mind fixed upon his new condition, and the rest of the world is a blank to him, but then he will wake up after a while and realize that marriage is not all that must be looked after.

On account of the election this week the TIMES is not as full of news matter as we would like because the editor has been busy with matters which he has deemed it his duty to attend to. He has endeavored to make capital out of his movements, whether they had any connection with the contest or not, but from this issue right on he proposes to give to his readers all the news obtainable, and to editorially discuss such matters as in his judgment will be of interest, and that will aid the people to understand the various matters which are of public importance.

Rabbi Kline of Sumter preached a magnificent sermon Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church before a large congregation. His discourse was on the five books of the Pentateuch, and he was an eloquent and beautiful de-clarer of life. Dr. Kline is a forceful speaker and he impressed his hearers with his splendid word pictures, his earnestness and his eloquence. The general comment was that the Hebrew scholars were that they received from him an intellectual treat, and they hope to have the pleasure of a return visit from him.

The election in this county passed off quietly, and from the returns which the way were sent in so promptly that the county received a complete report from the 24 clubs by nine o'clock last night. As was to be expected by some, Clarendon gave Mr. Hughes a small majority, in the first race, Mr. Whaley in this county by 246 votes, this was quite a lead and it was enough to make the adherents of Whaley feel they had Clarendon on their side, but the voters took a different view and they not only overtook Whaley's lead, but they passed him.

In Manning both sides worked hard, the leading vote is returned by Sumter, was of course the object of their toil, it was a case of which side could get the most of this to help in up votes for their favorite. Whaley got a lead in the three boxes in the town of 24, but in the Farmers Club, the largest in the county, Hughes beat Whaley 24, the former received 128 and the latter 104.

There was no disturbance, everybody seemed in good humor, and while each side was deeply in earnest and doing all it could for its candidate, there was no unfriendlyness, and furthermore, there were less signs of disturbance about the polls yesterday than there was in the first race.

Birthday Party. A social event of much interest was the "Birthday Party" given Wednesday evening by Miss Eula Mitchell, of Jordan. A profusion of sweetly-scented roses filled the air of the parlor with tropical perfume. It was here that the guests were delightfully entertained—music for the important feature of the evening. Several beautiful songs were rendered by Misses Eula and Georgia Mitchell, and Messrs. A. W. Scarborough and W. E. Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Scarborough. A delectable course was served in the dining room, amidst a perfect shower of beautiful roses. Before leaving each guest was given a button hole bouquet to serve as a souvenir of the pleasant evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Mitchell, Misses Georgia Mitchell, Lelia Mitchell, Hazel Thomas, Lizzie Kelly, E. Wilson, of Alabama, Jos. D. Mitchell, Clinton Stokes, J. J. Mitchell, J. A. Williams, Elerbe Davis and Willie Thames.

Straight at It. There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all dealers.

Shooting At Pinewood. Pinewood, April 11.—Again a murder has been committed in the limits of this town. This time all parties are colored. Leutie Mitchell, a farm hand employed by Mr. R. M. Johnson and living in an out-house in the rear of his employer's yard, was shot some time during the afternoon and died this morning at 2 o'clock. The weapon used was a single barrel shotgun and is supposed to have been loaded with No. 6 shot, as a pistol ball and a lead-gun shell showing signs of having been snapped on twice and loaded with No. 6 shot was found under the pillow. The gun was freshly oiled up and was used with death dealing aim.

The deceased was shot under the heart, and the bullet, as it went in, passed the point of the gun was fired about five feet from him when fired. He was asleep when shot. His wife confessed to having shot him and has been sent to jail at Manning.

A Card. THE TIMES editor was called up on long distance telephone last night by Mr. Hughes, who dictated the following: "Please say for me to the editor of the Manning Times that the newspaper of Clarendon gave me yesterday, and I thank them from the bottom of my heart. Clarendon gave me a majority which is an honor I will remember, and especially, when I remember how hard my friends here worked to place their supporters to go to the polls at this busy season of the year. I hope some day to have the privilege of coming into Clarendon to personally thank friends, and until that opportunity is afforded me, I want them to feel that I am with them heart and soul."

Respectfully, EDWARD W. HUGHES.

Remember for a Good Reason. C. H. Grant, 230 Waterly St., Proria, kidneys made me suffer intense pains, bothered me. Took Foley Kidney Pills and saw big improvement after third day. I kept on until entirely freed of all trouble and suffering. That's why I recommend Foley Kidney Pills. They cured me!" The Dispensary Drug Co., Manning, S. C., Leon Fischer, Summerton, S. C.

THE REPORTED ELECTION NEWS.

The News and Courier of this morning gives Whaley 550 majority with only 11 boxes unreported, of the 11 unreported boxes 8 of them are in Berkeley, but we believe that it is fair to say that Whaley 729 and Hughes 746, when the returns in this county show that Hughes received 774 and Whaley 744. The vote in Charleston was a surprise to the friends of Mr. Hughes, because it was in the hands of a large majority, whereas he only carried it by a small majority; the friends of Mr. Hughes claim that it was not an election but an auction in the city, and the man who paid the most for votes succeeded in getting a large number of votes, whereas he would not have gotten. The summary is as follows: Charleston 30 out of 32 boxes, Hughes 3,096, Whaley 3,035. Berkeley 12 out of 20 boxes, Hughes 486, Whaley 407. Clarendon complete, Hughes 774, Whaley 744. Colleton complete, Hughes 752, Whaley 1,059. Dorchester 10 out of 17 boxes, Hughes 582, Whaley 681. Edgefield complete, Hughes 5,698, Whaley 6,222. We make the correction in the Clarendon vote as we think the News and Courier's figures were misleading, according to this Whaley's lead is 624. Some have charged one of the editors to some extent but not enough to materially affect the results. Mr. Whaley is the choice of the ballot cast, and notwithstanding the fact the writer did not support him, and did do what he could to help his friend Mr. Hughes, we accept the result of the contest with good grace and hope for better luck another time.
