

The Charleston Fair Association

Will hold its Second Annual Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition during the week of November 17 to 22, 1913. In many respects this is to be the most unique Fair ever held in this or any other place in the country. No County or State Fair can match the attractions provided by the Charleston Fair because they lack the natural and other facilities.

Children's Day.

Monday, the opening day of the Fair, will be Children's Day. "The Palmet to Goat Derby" will be the feature attraction, consisting of goat cart races driven by school children. In addition there will be a dozen or more other interesting amusing races and children's games to occupy the whole afternoon.

Atheletic Day.

Field events of all sorts, including Relay Races, Foot Races, Foot Ball Base Ball Hammer Throwing, Shot Putting and all other sports known to amateur athletes. The interest in these games will be enhanced by the fact that the teams participating will be picked from the Citadel, the Y. M. C. A., Porter Military Academy, Charleston High School, College of Charleston, Charleston Medical College, and Navy the Army stationed at Charleston.

Automobile Racing.

Some of the most skillful and daring drivers have entered their cars for these events to run in a series of races, up to 100 miles, on the best constructed mile track in the South. In addition to the Kanamara" troupe of fancy automobile driving is engaged to entertain visitors between races on other days. These drivers handle their automobiles with the same ease and turn the same tricks in their machines as an expert skater does on skates. This feature is the latest act shown at fairs and has never been in the South.

The Midway.

The amusement end of the Fair in Charleston will exceed in point of enjoyment anything that was ever seen at a fair in the South. The booking for the Charleston Midway is done by one of the best known booking agencies in New York, which insures features never heretofore shown in the South, and while there is plenty of spice in the collection every attraction is strictly of a high order.

Special Features,

Charleston is headquarters for the second division of the Torpedo fleet of the United States Navy and there are now lying at the Charleston Navy Yard a score or more of these craft and every visitor is invited to visit them and acquaint himself with the intricate workings of these destroyers of the enemies of our country. The OLYMPIA, ADMIRAL DEWEY'S FLAGSHIP, which destroyed the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay on that memorable morning of May 1, 1898, is now in Charleston waters and no South Carolinian should let this opportunity go by without paying his respects to the valor of our naval heroes by visiting this good old ship. The LASSO MAN AND WOMAN, the most thrilling act ever performed on horseback, will be one of the big features of the Fair. This team comes directly from the original Wild West show. Beauty and Buff, the ponies that do everything but talk, the best trained pair of horses alive, the tricks that they perform are the most wonderful ever seen. One of the stunts is flying through hoops of fire suspended in the air.

The Greatest Ever.

Thousands of dollars have been spent by the management to make this the most successful Fair ever held in the State. Make arrangements to come and bring your family. Excursion rates on all railroads.

THE SOUTHERN CROSS.

Its Name Does Not Quite Fit This Wondrous Constellation. The Southern Cross, wonderful alike to those living in the southern half of the world and to the tourist thereof, is one of the most conspicuous and interesting of all the southern configurations. Situated at a distance of about thirty degrees from the south pole, it is plainly visible in all regions south of the equator, and also to some distance north, about as far as the tropic of Cancer. The farther south one travels the higher in the heavens will appear the cross, and naturally the more conspicuous it becomes. It seems to have received its name, not like the northern constellations from the ancients, but like most of the southern configurations from the Portuguese navigators, during their explorations into the southern waters. It is said that when Dante came out from "Inferno" he declared that he had seen a wondrous cross set in the southern firmament, and the navigators set about to find such a figure and settled upon this one as best fulfilling the conditions. That it is difficult, at first glance, to picture this as a true cross, is not surprising, for had it been named the "kite," a much closer representation could have been imagined. The so-called "false cross," midway between the cross and the bright star Canopus, although composed of fainter stars, is much more regular and symmetrical in shape. Taken all in all, this constellation of the Southern Cross, which has been the wonder of centuries, still holds its place as a remarkable curiosity, even with the advance of astronomical investigation, and with the data obtained from the spectroscopic and the photographic, our efforts still find unlimited problems yet to be solved. And, above all others, that of the Southern Cross is yet far from a complete solution.—Leon Campbell in "Peru Today."

Nervous?

Mrs. Walter Vincent, of Pleasant Hill, N. C., writes: "For three summers I suffered from nervousness, dreadful pains in my back and sides, and weak sinking spells. Three bottles of Cardui, the woman's tonic, relieved me entirely. I feel like another person, now."

Cardui

The Woman's Tonic. For over 50 years, Cardui has been helping to relieve women's unnecessary pains and building weak women up to health and strength. It will do the same for you, if given a fair trial. So, don't wait, but begin taking Cardui today, for its use cannot harm you, and should surely do you good. E-72

KICKED ON THE TIPS.

The Waiter Thought the Rule Should Not Work Both Ways.

"My bill at the cabaret restaurant on Broadway was $25, and when I gave the waiter a tip of a dollar he frowned."

The speaker was a banker from Duluth. He continued warmly:

"What are you frowning about? I asked the waiter. 'Isn't that a generous tip for a few minutes work on your part?'"

"In New York," the man answered, "the rule is always to give a tip of 10 per cent. Your bill, sir, called for a $25.00 tip. So, naturally, I feel a little aggrieved. But it is easy to see, sir, that you are not a New Yorker, and so it can't be expected that you'd know the rules."

"Well, I pocketed the waiter's insult, and the next time I was in that neighborhood I dropped in on him again. This time I was alone, and, not being hungry, I only ate a $1.15 meal. When it was over I handed the waiter a tip of 11 cents. You ought to have seen his face. It was worse than before."

"It's all right," I assured him. "It's according to the 10 per cent rule that you taught me. If a man's bill is exorbitant that makes no difference, according to the rule. Well, then, when a man's bill is small, it should make no difference, either."

"The waiter glowered at me. He shook the 11 cents in his palm sarcastically. I said, as I rose to go: 'And, by the way, it won't make any difference either. If you waiters insist on your 10 per cent for large amounts then you've got to take it for small amounts, too. At least, by jingo, you've got to take it from me. I'm from Duluth, but I know my way about.'"

The Duluth banker sighed heavily. "But the fact remains," he said, "that ever since that waiter called me down I give 10 per cent on big amounts like a fool and like a fool I give 20 to 30 per cent on small amounts."—Minneapolis Journal.

Bees Stopped Railway Traffic.

Bees held up railway traffic on the London and North-Western mail line near Shap Summit for several hours recently. The bees swarmed in a signal lamp. No relief was forthcoming until an official from Penrith dislodged them.

To Night.

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by all dealers.

Need Not Be Ashamed of Name. The surname Snooks by no means seems to be an imposing cognomen; but, as a matter of fact, it is a name of great antiquity, and one of which nobody should be ashamed. In reality, it is a contraction of "Sevenoaks." It was first corrupted to Sennock, which in turn was corrupted to Snooks of today.

The CALL for BETTER SHOES

It is human nature to try and get the biggest value a dollar will buy—we are human—and take just as much pride in buying goods to offer you as you take in satisfying your own needs.

WE HAVE answered the call for better shoes by putting in a complete line of LONGWEAR SHOES—the more you wear them, the better you like them! They are built to fit and give foot comfort from the first time you wear them, and will give longer wear than any other shoes for the same money. We are showing some exclusive patterns in Men's, Women's and Children's shoes this season that are the latest word in style—nobby lasts for the young people and conservative lasts for the more sedate. We can fit you up in any leather your fancy dictates—Patent, Tan, Gun Metal, Vici, White Buck or White Canvas—give us the chance to prove the superior worth of LONGWEAR SHOES!
