The lecture last Sunday night in the Presbyterian church, by Rev. J. A. Ansley of the Baptist church, to "Men Only" was a good one, and much appreciated by the large audience that attended.

Died at Turberville on the 21st inst. Mr. Tom Gibbons, an old veteran of about 70 years. He served his time in the Confederate war, he was a straight forward and an honest old gentleman, loyal to his country, church and family, he left a widow and several children to mourn his departure. His remains were interred in the Gibbons family cemetery, with Rev. Rhoad officiating, the Methodist Pastor of New Zion circuit.

During the past few days the enterprising firm of McCollum Brothers of Sumter, have been busy changing their store to an exclusive ready-to-wear store for women and children, and although they have not entirely finished the repairing and repainting, already their store presents a handsome view, and is in better shape for convenient shopping. Mr. E. T. McCollum, of the firm, states that as soon as the white sale is over with, the repairs will be finished, and that nothing will be left undone to make the store as attractive and convenient a place for shopping as anyone could desire.

The store of Mr. C. F. Rawlinson at Jorday was entered some time last Wednesday night and the safe robbed of $670.00 in cash and some jewelry. Mr. Rawlinson looked his safe when he closed his store, and the next morning he discovered the back door open and the safe unlocked, an examination showed that the money and some jewelry had been taken and checks and other valuable papers not molested. It is evident that the person who entered the store was familiar with the premises and the safe's movements. It is also evident that the theft was not the work of safe crackers, as the safe was not injured.
