

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

TAKE Cardui

The Woman's Tonic

Cardui helps women in time of greatest need, because it contains ingredients which act specifically, yet gently, on the weakened womanly organs. So, if you feel discouraged, blue, out-of-sorts, unable to do your household work, on account of your condition, stop worrying and give Cardui a trial. It has helped thousands of women—why not you? Try Cardui. E-71

PAY ACCORDING TO QUALITY

Great Improvement Seen in Cream Since New Rule Went Into Effect in Swift County, Minn.

One of the advantages which the more up-to-date co-operative creameries have over the large centralized plants is that they secure cream of better quality because they are nearer the source of supply. In recent years a few of the co-operative creameries, especially in Minnesota, have begun to grade the cream and pay for it according to quality. The Kirkhoron creamery of Swift County, Minnesota, is one of these. For some time it has been paying a premium of two cents a pound for butter fat in No. 1 cream.

W. H. Christensen, the buttermaker in charge, recently made the statement that he has seen a great improvement in the cream since the new rule went into effect. Many farmers, instead of delivering their cream once or twice a week last summer, made two or three deliveries a week in order to get the additional two-cent-a-pound for their butter fat.

A creamery can well afford to pay a premium for good cream, because the quality of butter produced from No. 1 grade will bring a better price on the market than the best butter that can possibly be made from an inferior grade. Besides, there is always a greater demand for first-class butter than for medium grades of inferior quality. In the summer time the market is overstocked with poor butter, but there never yet has been more good butter than the market can absorb.

When a creamery pays the same price for an inferior grade of cream as it does for the best quality there is no incentive to the careful man to deliver as good a product as is possible. He naturally resorts to the idea that his slovenly neighbor who sends partially spoiled cream should obtain the same price as he gets for a product that is produced at greater cost.

The sooner the buying of cream according to grade becomes general the better it will be for all dairymen. It is an absolute injury to the dairy industry to ship poor butter to the market, because it makes it just that much easier for the manufacturers of oleomargarine to dispose of their product. A great many people would rather buy good oleomargarine than poor butter, and the more they are encouraged along that line the greater will become the consumption of oleo.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Personality. There is no more impressive and revealing moment with man or woman than when you stand in a room empty of their actual presence, but having, in every inch of it, the pervasive influences of the absent personality.—Gilbert Parker.
