

Backache

Miss Myrtle Cothrum, of Russellville, Ala., says: "For nearly a year, I suffered with terrible backache, pains in my limbs, and my head ached nearly all the time. Our family doctor treated me, but only gave me temporary relief. I was certainly in health. My school teacher advised me to

Cardui

THE WOMAN'S TONIC
I took two bottles, in all, and was cured. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women. "If you suffer from pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, or other symptoms of womanly trouble, or if you merely need a tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, try Cardui."

Childish Fears.
"Do what you can to allay the fears of a child unduly timid by precept and example, but if the fears persist, consult a physician."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Modern Society Arrogance.
Manners seem to be largely a matter of individual preference since there is so little harmony in opinion. A woman who condemns praise of a pretty gown or becoming hat on the score of bad taste will openly criticize her neighbor for acts which are not to her liking. This is, on the whole, a great deal of arrogance shown in setting up a standard and expecting the rest of humanity to follow it.—Exchange.

Is There Any Difference?
"I have read this book," said the late patron, "and it is the worst ever. It has the average penny-dreadful looking like a Sunday school tract, and yet you gave it to me when I asked you for a historical romance." "Oh," gurgled the fair librarian, "I thought you asked me for a hysterical romance!"—Judge.

Different "Front."
A retired army officer was in his back garden one day when a tramp came round the end of the house. "I've been at the front," he began, "and—"

Self Control.
Control self, and the first step is taken toward becoming a power. The youth whose own hasty passions and uncontrolled appetites run away with him is a cipher as far as real strength goes. Impulse is not strength. A runaway engine never will cross a continent safely.

Not Required to Kiss Bible.
The president of the United States is not required to kiss the Bible on taking the oath of office. The custom grew out of the fact that an early law of Maryland made that ceremony part of a legal oath, and the custom was continued in the District of Columbia, but it is not essential, nor is any particular form of oath. Jews are sworn on the Pentateuch, keep on their hats and conclude their oath with "so help me Jehovah," and if a Jew were elected president he would be permitted to take the oath of office in that form.
