THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good. I had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering." Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Winning a Thousand. Some years ago a jewelry firm in New York sent the late J. P. Morgan a fine pearl, offering it to him for $5,000. This Mr. Morgan decided to purchase, and two checks were made out—one for $5,000 and the other for $4,000. He then removed the pearl from its box and having substituted for it the $5,000 check, resealed the package. Mr. Morgan's clerk was next dispatched to the jeweler with the sealed box and a note containing the check for $4,000, stating that Mr. Morgan would be pleased to purchase the pearl if they would be satisfied with the check. The unsuspecting jeweler—in ignorance, of course, of what the sealed package now contained—closed with the astute financier's offer. And the box in which the $5,000 check serenely reposed was returned to Mr. Morgan unopened!

Pounds and Weights. Here is a question that will tax the arithmetical powers of a youth. Suppose that for some reason or another a shopkeeper who sold goods by pounds and half pounds, but never in quantities exceeding twenty pounds at a time, was told that he must transact all this business with four weights only. What must these four weights be? The answer is half pound, one and a half pound, four and a half pound and thirteen and a half pound. With these it will be readily seen that any weight from half a pound to twenty pounds may be determined in pounds and half pounds.

His Card Tricks. Mrs. Stryver—"We had the most enjoyable time at Mr. Hunter's tea. Count Tedout was there and kept us mystified for an hour with his tricks with the cards. Mr. Stryver (dryly)—He kept us mystified with 'em for three months at the club, but we're on to him now.—New York World.

Used the Soft Answer. "So Dick and Daisy have made up?" By George! After the way she laid him out I never expected it. How did he pacify her?" "He told her that he'd rather quarrel with her than kiss any other girl."—Puck.

Sorrow. "Herr Huber, come home immediately. Your wife has suffocated herself with gas." Huber—Heavens! There'll be a nice gas bill to pay!—Wiener Sa lowitzblatt.

To enjoy a thing exclusively is commonly to exclude yourself from the true enjoyment of it.

Sweetly A Resting Die! last Thursday July 9th, at her home near Turbeville, the infant and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson. Oh little Bannie! was given them only 10 months and 9 days. The flower of the home has withered and cut down, the Lord needed one more little angel, so he come down from this darling little blue eyes. Oh, she was so sweet and loved me so well, she never saw a stranger she had two much sense to stay here in this sinful world, if we were as happy as this darling little babe we would know no sorrow, the dear parents know where to find this precious flower she is blooming now in the Garden of Paradise awaiting the coming of Papa and Mama. Oh, it is so hard to give her up the only child and the only one for her parents to long for, just as they would have had to walk in this lonely house and see her dear little play things, and just think she will never be with us again here, but I hope and pray I will shake hands with little Bannie in Heaven. Dear little Bannie thou has left us, but thy memory is still warm and true. We will love thee as if thou were with us. And thy silence we deeply feel. We listen for thy dear sweet voice. But is forever silent. We look for those dear blue eyes, and those darling pink cheeks, but they are hidden in the silent Tomb Precious little Bannie thou has left us yes left us forever more, But in Heaven with joy, we will greet thee, where no farewell tears are shed. Lonely the house and late the hours, since darling little Bannie has been taken away, she is our loss but Heavens gain. All was done for little Bannie that could be done, but God saw fit to take her from our midst. Farewell little Bannie till I shall meet thee in our Fathers Mansion Fair. ORILLA JOHNSTON.

Backache Miss Myrtle Cochran, of Russellville, Ala., says: "For nearly a year, I suffered with terrible backache, pains in my limbs, and my head ached nearly all the time. Our family doctor treated me, but only gave me temporary relief. I was certainly in bad health. My school teacher advised me to TAKE CARDUI. I took two bottles, in all, and was cured. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women." If you suffer from pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, or other symptoms of womanly trouble, or if you merely need a tonic for that tired, nervous, worn-out feeling, try Cardui. Waistcoat a Monarch's Fad. Historians tell us that Charles II. of England made a resolution to change the fashion of his dress to one which he would never alter, and communicated this decision to his council in October, 1666. From a diary of that period we read: "This day the king begins to put on his vest, and I did see several persons of the house of lords and commons, too, great courtiers who are in it, being a long close sack close to the body, of black cloth and pinked with white silk under it."

Snormous Demand for Matches. The consumption of matches has reached amazing proportions. According to the Lancet, about 18,000,000 gross of boxes are consumed per annum, 63 per cent. of which were of the "strike anywhere" and 77 per cent. of the safety variety. This is 2,592,000,000 boxes and more than 500,000,000,000 matches. Friction matches were first used in 1823.
