ALLIES MAKE BREAK THRU TEUTON LINE FIVE MILES

Surprise Attack of British on the Ancre Front Puts Them in Possession of Strategic Points.

London, Nov. 13.—As if to disprove in the language of blood, iron and steel, allusions to lack of British cooperation, raised by certain influential voices in the French press, the troops of Gen. Sir Douglas Haig early today hauled out for a terrific surprise blow at the German front at a point where evidently the Teutons had least expected it, on both sides of the Ancre brook.

In a thick mist, long before dawn, the British executed their sudden thrust. When dusk settled upon this new field of battle—which forms the northern extension of the Somme front—the fighting still raged with full fury. But the initial momentum of the British attack had struck home and the Germans battled vainly to regain the lost ground. Their front was smashed wide open on a front of five miles, astride the Ancre, to a depth of about one mile, and the end of the first onrush saw the British in possession of a powerfully village, St. Pierre division. More than 3,300 prisoners were taken by the British, tonight's war office statement announced, and "more are coming in." The front north of the An-cre is described as being of an "exceptionally strong nature."

The British success holds menace to the stronghold of Miraumont, on the Albert-Arras railway. Sir Douglas' men now threatening to envelop this point.

Earlier in the day the British, using gas, raided German trenches opposite Rans and penetrated others southeast of Armentieres, further north. The big German guns all day played a heavy drumfire on the British positions near Les Boeufs and Gueudecourt.

The German war office, in its regular statement today, reports no reverse, but, on the contrary, claims that allied attempts to advance be-

A Tribute.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear sister, Miss Rebecca Timmons, who departed this life October 31st, 1916. She was sick two months and all was done that loving hands could do but nothing seemed of any avail. God knew best and took her home to rest. She leaves to mourn her loss, an aged mother, two brothers, one sister and a host of relatives and friends. She was laid to rest in the Oak Grove cemetery to await the Resurrection morn. Dearest sister thou hast left us, and thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that has bereft us, for his will we must surely yield. Through all pains at times she'd smile, A smile of Heavenly birth, And when the Angels called her home She smiled farewell to earth. Heaven retaineth now our treasure, Earth the lonely casket keeps And the sunbeams love to linger Where our sainted sister sleeps. A precious one from us has gone, A voice we love is stilled, A place is vacant in our home Which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled the boon his love has given, though the body slumbers here The soul is safe in Heaven. A true sister, Lou Rhodus.

Tribute to Mamie Thames.

Die! October 1st, 1916, and laid to rest in the arms of Jesus in Rehoboth church yard. She is missed by her husband and child and her father, one sister, two brothers and many relatives and friends. We mourn her death and hated to give her up, but God knows best. There is a vacancy at her home which cannot be filled, a voice that is still which cannot be heard any more. She only lived to see 32 years of age. We miss her on every side. She loved and cared for everybody. Her way seemed bright before her. God gathered up our dear friend to rest in the arms of Jesus. It was hard to see her out away but the death angel's visits every home and she has paid the fee which all of us must pay some day. She had many friends and all that loving hands could do was of no avail. She is now resting in heaven and I hope we will meet her here. May God bless her darling little child and guide and care for him. A friend, McLaurin White.

From Weak and Lame To Well and Strong

Try them, Foley Kidney Pills will do it for other men and women—quickly—what they have done for Mrs. Straygo. "Last year, I got almost down with my back," writes Mrs. H. T. Straygo of Gainesville, Ga., R. No. 3. "I suffered from inflammation of the bladder, and whenever I stopped doctoring grew worse. I tried Foley Kidney Pills, and after taking them awhile my bladder action became regular and the stinging sensation disappeared. I am now stronger in my back than I've been for several years, and since getting well, I've stayed well and had no return of the trouble." Start in now to use Foley Kidney Pills. You will feel an improvement from the very first doses, showing up quickly in the kidneys and bladder. They stop irregular urinary action, ease pain in back and sides, bring up stiff joints and aching muscles. They put the kidneys and bladder in sound, healthy condition. Try them. German Raid Coast of Russia.

London, Nov. 13.—A "mosquito squadron" of the German fleet Friday night ventured forth from their base at Kiel into the Finnish Bay, a distance of nearly 400 miles and bombarded the strongly fortified Russian naval support, Point Baltischport. German and Russian official statements regarding the results of the expedition vary. The Kaiser's admiralty this afternoon announced that the Russian port was "efficiently shelled from a short distance." Petrograd declares that "a majority of the German vessels which took part in a bombardment in the Gulf of Finland Friday were sunk." The Russian account admits that the raiders succeeded in firing about 100 shells before their position was located by the Russian gunners. Seven civilians including five children, and two soldiers, were killed. Four soldiers and a woman were wounded.

New Version of Sinking Columbian.

BeBriin, Nov. 13.—The first definite dispatch giving an entirely new version of the sinking of the American steamship Columbian was published today by the Deutsche Tages Zeitung. For several days German newspapers have been filled with sensational dispatches from London, telling of alleged "ruthless" conduct on the part of the German submarine commanders and foreshadowing a new German-American crisis. The Tages Zeitung's dispatch was sent from Madrid. It says the Columbian, bound for Genoa with a cargo of copper and steel, was sunk by a German submarine near Corunna after being detained on November 6 near Cape Finisterre, where the U-boat waited two hours on account of stormy weather, "until lifeboats could be lowered without any danger." The dispatch adds that the crew is "safe and sound."

C. R. I. & P. PLANS BE PUBLIC TOMORROW

New York, Nov. 13.—The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway reorganization plans evolved by the joint reorganization committee are to be made public tomorrow, it was learned tonight.

The plan, it is understood, differs in no essentials from the one already familiar to the financial public, except that allowance is made for modifications with respect to the refunding mortgage bonds in the future.
