

SAYS HARD ATTACK CAME WITHOUT LEAST WARNING

Tells of Awful Five Weeks Her Daughter Spent.

REMARKABLE INTERVIEW

Mother Says Young Greenville Woman Seems None the Worse for Her Experiences.

"A severe kind of rheumatism suddenly attacked my daughter last August and she had to stay in bed or in a rocking chair for five weeks. She had an awful pain in the back of her neck, around her shoulders and across her back," said Mrs. Nannie Alexander, of 36 Ninth St., Sampson, Greenville, as she began on March 21st to tell of the remarkable results Tanlac gave her daughter. "She was so nervous she would jump at the least noise. Often she cried out during the night and seldom did she get a good night's rest. From the time the rheumatism attacked her until she began taking Tanlac, she did not get a single good night's sleep.

"She had no appetite and also suffered a great deal with indigestion. She was under treatment for a good while but the medicine seemed to do her no good.

"But in a week after she began taking Tanlac, she had been made a different woman, and now she is in fine health. The Tanlac restored her appetite, she is not troubled with indigestion now, and those rheumatic pains have left her. She improved wonderfully after she began taking Tanlac. It certainly is the finest medicine I know of for rheumatism, and she is back at work now. Tanlac is responsible for her being able to work now, and her income stops when she stops work. She is so thankful for what Tanlac did for her, and we all recommend it as the best remedy we know of."

REV. J. A. ANSLEY PREACHES TO PENSACOLA HOME GUARDS

Patriotism featured services at the First Baptist church last night when the pastor, Rev. J. A. Ansley, following his announced series of subjects of women of the Bible, preached on Deborah, Israel's Martial Heroine.

Flags decorated the interior of the great church on North Palafox street. The chancel rail, choir loft and other points were draped with the national colors, and suspended from the ceiling was another large stars and stripes. The services opened with the singing of "America," then "The Fight Is On," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and "Columbia, The Gem of the Ocean," were rendered by choir and congregation.

The W. O. W. Home Guards in command of P. L. Rollo, and the Home Guards under command of Col. R. M. Cary, marched to the church and occupied reserved seats in the center of the building.

Dr. Ansley, noting their presence, asked for a few words of expression from several, including Mayor Geo. M. Hinrichs, Col. Cary, P. L. Rollo and M. J. Mackey, all of whom spoke a few minutes, and then the minister, reading a text from Judges 4:4, spoke in part as follows:

Sermon of Pastor.

It was no soft and silken period in which Deborah lived. Israel could not sing:

"My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty."

Liberty had fled. The land of Israel was under the iron heel of the Canaanite. Frightfulness and oppression were the order of the day. The people were afraid to walk the main highways, but skulked in the by-paths. Pillage and assassination were so common as to be almost unnoticed. The maidens who went to the wells to draw water were greeted with a shower of arrows.

For a score of years a condition had prevailed which we may better understand if we compare it with the condition of Belgium today, that brave little nation that was crucified on Prussia's iron cross, that civilization might not perish. Their towns are laid waste, beautiful Louvain and its wonderful library destroyed; property, especially manufacturing plants confiscated; the people enslaved and made to till their fields, operate their machinery, and are even carried into alien lands, all of this at the point of the bayonet, and forced into worse than Egyptian servitude. Think of the old men, women and children, unoffending and helpless, lined up in the streets, and slaughtered to make a German holiday. Most hateful of all, think of the "woman-tax" levied upon every town occupied by these modern apostles of a perverted and savage "kultur." And when we have done our best to imagine the worst that cruelty can inflict upon a subjugated people, we have fallen immeasurably short of the grim reality.

Belgium's Service.

Belgium's service to the world can never be estimated. But for her heroic stand, Europe today would perhaps be under a people whose only god is brute force, and whose principal attribute is cruelty; America's turn would soon come, if indeed it would not have been here already, and all that is true, and noble, and desirable in the world's civilization would be well on its way to be swept from the earth. When the cannon roar is again silent, and peace comes once more to earth, the nations should combine to erect the most costly memorial on earth to the honor of this gallant people, and the memory of those who shed their blood and saved the liberties of Europe, and perhaps of the world.

But Israel's case was far worse than Belgium's. Joshua and his Invincibles had conquered the armies of Canaan; they had fled from him "as from the face of destiny." But there was none left to draw the sword of Joshua. The Canaanites had conquered the religion and morals of Israel, as Greece, the conqueror, also overcame Rome, the conqueror. Their strength and power had always been in unswerving loyalty to Jehovah. Now they were become the slaves of those upon whose necks they sult, and submit to any injustice and indignity, if we might only keep out of war. How little they knew the American people. Nowhere can be found a people more passionately attached to noble ideals; and while slow to wrath, yet never refusing to defend the right. Every war in which we have been engaged has been for ideals; not one has been fought for money or territorial aggrandisement.

Deborah identified patriotism with religion. True patriotism is religious, and no religion is complete that does not include an unselfish love of country. He made the cause of the people the cause of God, because they put themselves on God's side, and turned against His enemies.

The highest patriotism will seek to enlist men and women on the side of Jehovah, under the banner of the Cross. When we make God's cause our own; when we enlist our hearts, our wills, our powers, to further His holy purposes among men; then God makes our cause His own; and all the resources of the Infinite fight on our side, even as "the stars in their courses fought against Sisera." We best serve our country, when we best serve our God.

Sin Always Weakens.

Israel became weak when she departed from the faith and morals of Jehovah to follow the customs of the Canaanites. Sin always weakens; though it may fascinate, and array itself in comely robes and have the approval of the goddess world about us to give it prestige; it ever ends in the subjugation, slavery, and moral importance of the sinner. A deliverer must be raised up for him. And not this time a woman, but the Seed of the woman, who bruised the serpent's heel, who took a whole world to His heart, and gathered in His bosom the darts and arrows, the pains and penalties, the guilt, disgrace and punishment of all our sin, the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.

"There is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins, And sinners plunged beneath that flood Lose all their guilty stains."

Stamp Out Autocracy.

We will not rejoice that men are slain, but when the world is delivered from its present nightmare of slaughter; when the last drop of blood has been shed, and the last soldier has laid down his life; when the trenches are filled in, and peaceful harvests smile upon peaceful people, we will rejoice that our hands have helped us to give the death blow to autocracy and tyranny and militarism and oppression; that nations that were in servitude to a ruling caste are free, that the highways of the world again are safe for the humble, the weak, the unoffending.

But not for material warfare only do we need men and women with the thorough going spirit of Deborah. We want those who will drive out our spiritual foes; who will lead in breaking off the fetters of sin from people, who will make the streets of our cities, the highways of our country, the places where the people gather for amusement, or where they resort for their daily occupations; we want to safeguard them, and banish the foes, the evils, the institutions, the conditions that degrade, ruin, enslave the young manhood and young womanhood of our country in the fetters of sin.

This can we do only as we are saturated with the spirit of Him who alone can "break the power of cancelled sin, and set the prisoner free;" in His strength we may drive out every spiritual enemy. Jesus has the power to liberate the captives; to break the fetters of habit; to redeem the life from destruction. At His cross every burden of sin is taken away; in His blood every stain of sin is washed and made as white as snow. Will we not come to Him for pardon, for cleansing, for power.

"Jesus keep me near the cross, There a precious fountain, Free to all, a healing stream, Flows from Calvary's mountain."

An Illustrated Song.

At the conclusion of the sermon, W. A. Perry sang an illustrated sacred selection to good effect.

VERY IMPORTANT.

The available supplies of foodstuffs are the lowest in all food-producing countries that they have been for over fifty years.

Prices of most foodstuffs have about doubled during the past two or three years.

The government crop report forecasts a wheat crop which will be short of American consumption.

The reserve supplies of meats are far below normal.

A nation at war requires more food than a nation at peace.

France, England, Belgium and Italy are short of food and are largely dependent on American imports, and, unless some means is found of supplying them, they can not continue to fight effectively.

The South is importing from the West and North $600,000,000 to $700,000,000 worth of foodstuffs annually and is thus a tremendous drain on the nation's food resources and, consequently, is now a menace to the nation's safety.

A pound of cotton at 20c will actually buy less foodstuffs now than normally.

We must raise what we eat.

A Tribute.

Died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cutter Saturday at twelve o'clock Miss Rebecca Shorter aged eighty-one years. The deceased was a long and patient sufferer. She had been an invalid for six months and all that loving hands could do was done for her. God saw best and took her home to rest. We loved her but God loved best. She has gone where there will be no more sickness nor pain and we hope to meet her in the sweet bye and bye.

SIGNS CAUSE CENSORSHIP

President's Order Also Affects Telegraph Lines to Mexico.

Washington, April 29.—President Wilson has signed an executive order providing for the censorship of cables out of the United States and of telegraph lines into Mexico. Arrangements for the censorship already have been made with the cable and telegraph lines for the censorship, which officials say will prevent the sending of information which might be of value to the enemy with as little interference as possible to ordinary business and personal communications.
