The Levi store on the corner has been completed, and is now occupied by Iseman-Weinberg Co., in the front and Levi Mercantile Co., in the rear. This building is one of the handsomest in the state, and is a memorial to the managers of this estate for erecting such a magnificent and costly building in our town. Mr. O. W. McRoy, the contractor, deserves much credit for this piece of workmanship, and goes to show that we have as good and expert workman, as can be had anywhere.

The store building next door to the postoffice, and owned by the estate of Louis Appelt, has been transformed into a spacious and costly structure, and is now occupied by B. B. Breedin's grocery. This building was erected by Contractor Lamantine Newman, a local man, and with no plans to go by, he has turned out a piece of workmanship that is second to none, and will always stand as a monument to this genius. Mr. Newman is an expert in the building line, and we take pleasure in so recommending him. In other words give a home man a chance and see what he will do.
