ANSWER TO AGE OLD QUESTION IS FOUND IN NATURE

Birmingham Man Ready to Vouch for This Little Story.

How long must I endure this? Is there no possible way to get any permanent relief? For years I asked myself this question and I presume every other sufferer from Indigestion has asked it over and over.

"I had Indigestion so badly that I could not eat anything without the greatest pain and distress. I simply had to work but I was not fit to work. I just dragged along suffering always and it seemed as though there would never be any permanent relief for me.

"Then I heard of that most blessed remedy Sulfero-Sol and got a bottle. It gave me relief at once and now my trouble is completely gone. As for eating, I think it now takes more to feed me than anyone else in town. I never have any more trouble with my stomach and how I do enjoy my food. There are no words too strong for me to say in favor of Sulfero-Sol for I fully believe it is the greatest remedy for Indigestion that can be found anywhere."

Your Druggist will tell you that Sulfero-Sol is the most dependable remedy that he sells. It is worthy of your greatest faith. It never fails.

Sulfero-Sol can be found at any Drug Store. If your Druggist does not have Sulfero-Sol he will order it for you. The Murray Drug Co., Columbia, State Distributors.—Adv.

DIXON ANSWERS BRYAN SUPPORTER

Author of "The Fall of a Nation" Attacks Peace Activities of the Former Secretary of State.

Thomas Dixon, author of "The Fall of a Nation," has come to the front in answer to the criticisms of his caricature of ex-Secretary William J. Bryan under the name of Hon. Plato Barker in the film.

"It appears to me that the film is always singled out for condemnation in respect of matters that do not start even a ripple when presented on the legitimate stage or in the funny columns of the papers. Are the cavaliers aware that Mr. Bryan is being caricatured in almost every summer show or revue in the country? I saw him cartooned in the Zeigfeld Follies the other night and in a Columbia Theatre revue in Chicago recently. Every newspaper cartoonist is privileged to make fun of public characters. Yet when a film author does the same thing hands are held up in holy horror!

"My answer to the charge is simply that all the statements of fact implied in my caricature are true. Resigning from the office of Secretary of State, Mr. Bryan, so to speak, 'hogged' the Chautauqua platform and became the star lecturer at an emolument of $500 per lecture. He raised the price, generally collected the money in advance, and put the other Chautauqua speakers in the shade so that summer many of them could not obtain engagements. The theme of his oratory was 'Peace,' and he was surrounded by groups of admiring women and children just as he is shown to be in the picture. The part of the caricature referring to the future is a likely forecast of what would happen should such an orator present to an invading army his Utopian peace proposals. He would be laughed at, handled with indignity, and the result of his efforts would be absolutely nil.

"The conclusion I will say that I attacked Mr. Bryan on his record as a Pacifist and foe of adequate Preparedness. I have nothing whatever against Mr. Bryan personally but claim the right to make legitimate sport of his mistakes which might have cost America dear. Every development of the international situation proves anew from day to day that the professed friend of Unpreparedness is the most dangerous enemy to American liberty."

RED CROSS MEETING.

An important meeting of the local Red Cross Chapter was held Friday morning, August 24, in the Masonic Hall.

The purpose of this meeting was to form a knitting committee. Mr. F. P. Burgess, the county chairman, has received a letter recently urging this chapter to commence knitting mufflers, wristlets, sweaters, etc., immediately.

Miss Vallye Appelt was elected chairman of this committee, Mrs. D. Hirschmann chairman of the purchasing committee and Mrs. F. C. Thomas was made instructor.

Just as soon as the supplies can be obtained, work will begin, and everybody is urged to come forward and do his "bit" in this direction.

(Signed) Miss Vallye Appelt,
Acting Sec.

Kaiser's Army Captures Russian Port of Riga

British Still Battering Down German Defenses in Flanders Preparatory to Dash.

CANNON BUSY AT VERDUN

Italians Have Taken to Date 128,000 Austrian Prisoners in the Big Drive.

Riga, Russia's big port on the Gulf of Riga, is in the hands of the Germans and its garrison and the civilian population are in retreat eastward.

Following up rapidly the advantage they gained in driving the Russians across the Dvina river on both sides of Uskull last Saturday, the Germans threw bridges across this stream and soon were on the heels of the former defenders, some of whom offered resistance, but others of whom showed the white feather, giving the invaders no trouble in marching up the eastern bank of the Dvina toward Riga, fifteen miles distant. Seeing the disaffection and the inability to stem the tide of the advance, the Russian commander ordered an evacuation.

Between Two Fires.

With the falling back of the Russians from the city proper and the advance of the Germans northward along both sides of the stream, the Russians still defending the western bank around Dahlen, seemingly are in danger of being caught between the two fast-moving bodies of the enemy and made prisoner.

Behind them the Russians in their retreat from Riga are laying the country in waste, burning villages and farms. Whether the city itself remains intact has not yet been made known, but doubtless the guns in the fortress and the ammunition stores either were removed or destroyed to prevent them falling into the hands of the Germans.

Value of Position.

Aside from the strategic value of controlling the Gulf of Riga, and of a base nearer the mouth of the Gulf of Finland, at the head of which Petrograd is situated, for the moment it is impossible to see the importance of the German gain, especially with the near approach of winter, when military operations in this northern region are almost impossible.

On none of the other fronts have there been operations of great movement, except the Austro-Italian theater, where the Italians have made further progress on the Bainsizza plateau and in the Brestovizza valley and at various points along the line have repulsed fresh counter-attacks launched by Austrians. Throughout this entire theater violent artillery duels are in progress from Tolmino to the sea.

Heavy Austrian Losses.

Advices to the Italian embassy in Washington are to the effect that in the present offensive the Austrians have lost more than 128,000 men. Reports from Udine, Italy, give the Austrian losses as one-third of the first line army.
