

Too Sick To Work

Many Women in this Condition Regain Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Convincing Proof of This Fact.

Ridgway, Penn. — "I suffered from female trouble with backache and pain in my side for over seven months so I could not do any of my work. I was treated by three different doctors and was getting discouraged when my sister-in-law told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her. I decided to try it, and it restored my health, so I now do all of my housework which is not light as I have a little boy three years old." — Mrs. O. M. RHINES, Ridgway, Penn.

Mrs. Lindsey Now Keeps House For Seven.

Tennille, Ga. — "I want to tell you how much I have benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said I had a severe case of ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others and they have benefited." — Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R. R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES.

KERENSKY ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY

Mystery Veils Source of Recent Korniloff Rebellion, One Report Making it Appear Comedy of Errors.

ANOTHER, ALL STAGE PLAY

Correspondent Reports Gen. Korniloff's "Striking Battalion" is Still Defiant—Press Filled With Comment.

Petrograd, Sept. 23.—The Korniloff mystery arising out of the recent revolt, has developed dimensions which threaten the existence of the Cabinet, particularly the position of Premier Kerensky. The newspapers representing the left and right parties demand an explanation from the government, while the Bolshevik organs openly accuse the premier, in the words of the Nabotchi Post, of being in a conspiracy with Korniloff "to crush the Petrograd proletariat and the workmen's and soldiers' delegates with the help of cavalry corps sent against Petrograd."

The newspaper asks why, if the published documents are forged, no denial has been issued.

Causing Sensation.

Maxim Gorky's paper, Novaya Zhizn, which being unfriendly toward Kerensky must be taken with reserve, declares that the affair is causing a sensation in the ranks of the government and that Tereshchenko, the foreign minister, yesterday conversed by telephone with Kerensky about this matter whereupon Kerensky postponed his return to Petrograd. The newspaper adds that the members of the government had decided that Kerensky ought to make a statement on the subject.

A more serious indication of trouble is that the Bolshevik group in the bureau of the central workmen's and soldiers' delegates has carried by an overwhelming majority a resolution demanding an explanation.

Charges Conspiracy.

The resolution refers to "revelations concerning the actions of members and agents of the provisional government in connection with the preparations in Gen. Korniloff's headquarters of a conspiracy against the revolution" and continues:

"The plan was to announce an individual or collective dictatorship, at the same time, declaring Petrograd under martial law, then mercilessly to break up the Petrograd revolutionary and working class organizations under the pretext of crushing an imaginary Bolshevik plot."

Another Big Sensation.

Petrograd, Sept. 22.—The controversy over the source of the recent Korniloff rebellion has proved to be the sensation of the day. Petrograd newspapers publish columns of revelations and interviews with the chief actors in the revolt and while much is inexplicable, it is agreed that negotiations between Premier Kerensky and Gen. Korniloff for the establishment of a strong government at Petrograd preceded the rebellion. The march of Gen. Korniloff's troops on the capital is said to have been part of a scheme.

The Russia Volya says the revelations have made an overwhelming impression on the members of the government who were not initiated into the plans and that these ministers are awaiting Premier Kerensky's explanation.

Kerensky's Message.

Gen. Savinkoff, commander of the Petrograd troops, sent against Gen. Korniloff, declares that he was dispatched to Gen. Korniloff by Premier Kerensky, who had resolved to proclaim martial law, with a mission to ask the Russian commander-in-chief to send to Petrograd a cavalry corps and the "savage" division under command of a general other than Gen. Krymoff, who was in bad political repute.

Gen. Korniloff broke the agreement by sending both Krymoff and the "savage" division toward the capital.

Plan to Save Country.

The Rech says that Gen. Korniloff drew up a plan for the salvation of the country, comprising military revolutionary courts, the militarization of railroads and war workshops and the restoration of officers disciplinary powers which Premier Kerensky rejected. Nevertheless, Korniloff promised Gen. Savinkoff he would give full obedience to Kerensky. In order to make possible the proclaiming of martial law Gen. Savinkoff ordered the dispatch of cavalry to Petrograd.

Then Vladimir Lvoff arrived at army headquarters. The Rech says, with three alternate proposals from Premier Kerensky. The first was the resignation of Kerensky, the second was the formation of a directory within the Cabinet with the participation of Kerensky and Korniloff, and the third provided for the appointment of Korniloff as dictator.

False Announcement.

Gen. Korniloff, the newspaper says, chose the directory, but M. Lvoff falsely announced to Kerensky that Korniloff had commissioned him to present an ultimatum demanding that he be given sole dictatorship.

The Novoe Vremya publishes a similar story and adds that when Premier Kerensky, having received the ultimatum, telegraphed to Gen. Korniloff:

"Do you insist?" Korniloff, thinking the question referred to the second alternative, answered:

"Yes, I insist."

Thereupon Kerensky, imagining that Korniloff had demanded a dictatorship under the threat of civil war, broke off negotiations.

The former supreme army commissioner at headquarters, Gen. Filopenko, however, declares that Gen. Korniloff's revolt was known months in advance and that demonstrations in his favor at the Moscow congress were no accident. Gen. Filopenko, when arrested by Korniloff threatened to commit suicide, but Korniloff reassured him.

The correspondent of The Izvestiya reports that Gen. Korniloff's "striking battalion" still is defiant.
