Mr. Joe Rigby is in St. Louis this week buying another car of stock for the stables of Coffey & Rigby. This will be the fourth car of stock that this enterprising firm has received this season.

There seems to be a grits famine in South Carolina. One day last week Mr. A. I. Barron received a letter from his brother, Frank, in Charleston, asking him to ship him at least a peck of grits, as that city was dry even to hominy. Columbia has been out several weeks.

Sumter County should feel proud of her supervisor. He is making good roads and most especially the road from Manning to that city. In a few more weeks he will have a turnpike to the Clarendon line, and if the people on this side can manage to get out of Clarendon they will have a magnificent road to motor over.

O. C. Scarborough, C. M. Davis, of Summerton; A. C. Bradham, W. C. Davis, A. I. Barron, of Manning; D. E. Turbeville, D. L. Green, of Turbeville; N. G. Broadway, of Paxville; are appointed by Governor Manning as delegates to the Southern Commercial Congress which meets in New York October 15.

Everything is soaring, even to whiskey. Recently the thirsty in ordering their "quart-a-month" got instead a pint for what they had been paying for a quart, with a notice that the price had advanced, 100 per cent. The liquor dealers are evidently becoming prohibitionists, as their price now is practically prohibitive.

The Civic League appointed Mrs. Harlee and Mrs. King as a committee last week to go to the business people and collect ten cents each to sweep the sidewalks off Saturday nights so as they would present a decent appearance on Sunday. These ladies deserve much credit for the interest they show in the sanitary condition of our town. If they could get the proper co-operation from the city we would have a better place to live in.

The colored conscripts left Manning last Sunday for Camp Jackson, and all left in good spirits. Rev. Timmons preached a special sermon to the soldiers, and also made a very impressive talk to them at the depot. The crowd which is estimated at about 2,000, both white and colored went to the station to see them off. Mack Rich and Frank King deserve much credit for taking charge of the 78 soldiers and providing places for them to be entertained during Saturday night and Sunday.

To the many dear friends of our daughter in Manning and vicinity, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks to each one for the loving kindness thoughtfulness and sympathy shown us at the time of our very sad bereavement, and assure you we appreciate it to the fullest extent of our ability. We will ever remember with deepest appreciation the love and sympathy shown our dear departed daughter, Mrs. Mabel Toy McCord.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Toy.

We have had so many inquiries for domestic coal this season that we have decided to handle this grade of coal. We have 100 tons due here next week and are assured of an adequate supply during the winter. Price is $8.50 a ton delivered in the incorporated limits of Manning.

The Red Cross Headquarters and Work Room in Manning are now opened. Quite a number of garments are cut out and ready for distribution. The headquarters will be open every morning from about 9 to 1 o'clock, and every afternoon from about 3 to 5 o'clock. Everybody in the county who can sew is asked to call at the work room, and sew awhile when she has time, and get a piece of work to carry home to make. This is an important work which our country is asking us to do. Shall we not everyone "do her bit" to help?

Our town was again saddened last Friday afternoon when it was learned that Mrs. Mabel McCord, wife of Rev. L. B. McCord, pastor of the Presbyterian church, had passed into the great beyond. The deceased had only been sick a few days, and while she was regarded ill, it was thought and hoped she would recover. But about six o'clock Friday afternoon the death angel claimed her. She is survived by her husband, and little son J. B., father and mother, one brother and three sisters in Louisville, Ky. Mrs. McCord was an excellent woman, a devoted wife and mother, and a zealous worker in all church affairs. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. The funeral was conducted in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon and the burial in the Manning cemetery.

May I express through your paper my very deep appreciation of the many tokens of love, words of sympathy and deeds of kindness extended to me by the good people of Manning in the hour of my great bereavement. The kindness of my friends has greatly lightened the load of sorrow. The Holy Spirit leads me to the words: "Thou will keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee." I know that God has provided for his own in heaven, and my devoted wife is now inheriting the promises. She is now in actual possession and enjoyment of "that inheritance which is incorruptible and undefiled, and fadeth not away." Her unspeakable joy greatly diminishes my sorrow, but my sorrow does not diminish her joy.
L. B. McCord.
