

SOMETHING I WANT EVERY WOMAN TO KNOW

Mrs. William Ann Dickert Sends This Message to Every Suffering Woman.

"There are hundreds of women suffering as I did and I do hope every one of them will see this and read it," writes Mrs. Dickert, who lives at 808 Langford St., Newberry, S. C.

"More than nine years of continued suffering with Stomach trouble, Rheumatism and Kidney trouble brought me to a condition where I could not be called anything but a physical wreck.

"Several times I went through a complete collapse and was very near death, but somehow I was spared and finally learned of SULFERRO-SOL, and what a marvelous medicine it is. Words can never tell all the good it has done me."

"Thanks to this wonderful natural remedy I have improved steadily since the first bottle until now I can truthfully say that I am better and stronger than I have been in years and Oh it is so good to feel the joy of living again."

"Of all the medicines in this world there is no other remedy like this great Nature remedy and if every suffering woman would just get this remedy her troubles would soon be ended."

SULFERRO-SOL will do for every woman what it did for me if they will get it and use it and believe in it."

SULFERRO-SOL can be found at any Drug Store. If your Druggist does not have SULFERRO-SOL he will order it for you. The Murray Drug Co. Columbia, State Distributors.—adv.

MR. A. P. BROCK DEAD

Clarendon County Loses a Valuable Citizen.

Summerton, Oct. 19.—On September 20, Mr. A. Preston Brock died at the Toumey Hospital in Sumter. He had been there for two months and all that medical skill could do was done, but to no avail. He had been in ill health for the past two years, but bore his suffering with marvelous patience and Christian fortitude.

He was a true Southern gentleman of noble character and even his failings leaned to virtue's side. Though only sixty-two years old at his death he had been Sunday school superintendent for twenty-five years and was the oldest deacon in the Baptist church of Summerton, which stands as a monument to his memory, for he was by his untiring energy, time and money that it was built a few years ago.

His remains were brought to Summerton and interred there. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. W. M. Gordon, assisted by the Rev. Tremble, of the Presbyterian Church.

He leaves, besides a host of friends, a wife; his mother, Mrs. John O. Brock; and sister, Mrs. Brooker, of Kansas City, Mo.; and three sisters in South Carolina, Mrs. John Brailsford, of Orangeburg; Mrs. Tom Brailsford, of Summerton, and Mrs. L. C. Walker, of Greenville.

UNITED STATES MARINES ARE FARMING IN HAITI

May Have Surplus to Send Home—Eating is "Easy" on Island, Says Consul.

Consul John B. Terres, in a report from Port au Prince, Haiti, states that the cultivation of white potatoes has been carried on extensively in the mountain regions of the island by members of the United States marine corps, and that it is probable they will be able to export the product of their labor to the United States. They have large tracts of land on which they have been raising all kinds of vegetables.

Consul Terres gives a review of the market prices in Haiti for all classes of food products at the end of August. He states:

Haitian Food Prices.

"Beef is now sold in Port au Prince at 12 cents per pound. Very little difference is made in sales of the various parts. The meat is of good quality, principally young steers brought from the southern part of the island and from Dominican territory. They are fed entirely on grass, and no grain is given. They are slaughtered at night and the product is sold in the markets the following day. Meat is never kept on ice, except in a few instances during household use.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Theodford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Theodford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Theodford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Theodford's, the original and genuine. E 79

"Mutton is 15 cents per pound. The sheep are raised throughout the island and are fed by grazing in the fields. They are never sheared for wool. Considerable goat meat is sold, mostly to the poorer people, at 12 cents per pound. The natives eat very sparingly of the home-bred pork, as they have a strong prejudice against it. The average price is 20 cents per pound.

Large Turkeys at $1.20.

"Turkeys are sold in the markets and on the streets by women vendors at $1.20 for a large gobbler, while small hens bring 80 cents. Chickens can be bought at 50 cents to 60 cents each. All poultry is sold alive. Domestic ducks are $1.50 per pair; wild ducks $1 per pair; guinea fowls 80 cents per pair.

"Eggs are sold at 25 cents per dozen, and are never kept in cold storage. Native corn is $4 per barrel; cornmeal, 2 cents a pound; and native rice, 10 cents a pound; green bananas, at $1 per 100 pounds, are largely consumed by the natives as a vegetable, cooked with meat or codfish. Green coffee is 11 cents per pound, and is rarely roasted. Granulated sugar is 15 cents per pound. The price of sweet potatoes is 5 cents per pound, and that of native white potatoes 6 cents.

"Cabbages with large heads are 6 cents each; red beans, 4 cents per pound; egg plants, large size, 1 to 2 cents each; and all other vegetables, such as carrots, turnips, string beans, lettuce, water cress, etc., are sold at prices not one-sixth those in the United States.

Among fruits, alligator pears are 6 cents per dozen, breadfruit, 12 cents per dozen; pineapples, 12 cents a dozen, and bananas, 1 cent each."

No Change.

They had parted long years ago. Now, in the deepening shadows of the twilight, they had met again.

"Here is the old stile, Mary," he said.

"Aye, an' here be our initials that you carved, Sandy," she replied.

The ensuing silence was only broken by the buzzing of an aeroplane overhead. Honey-laden memories thrilled through the twilight and flushed their glowing cheeks.

"Ah, Mary," exclaimed Sandy, "ye're just as beautiful as ye ever were, an' I ha'e never forgotten ye, my bonnie lass."

"And ye, Sandy," she cried, while her blue eyes moistened, "are jist as big a leear as ever, an' I believe ye jist the same."—Tit-Bits.

Politics.

"I always like to see a fellow who came from a farm," remarked Congressman Flubdub.

"Yes?"

"Yes. You can advise him to go back to it if he isn't a success, and congratulate him on leaving it if he is."—Liverpool Courier-Journal.
