ALCOLU DOTS

Here is luck to the dear old Manning Times. The writer has been a reader of The Times for some time, and can truthfully say, there is, and can never be a better county paper. While the writer is not personally acquainted with Editor Appelt and Manager Shope, will venture to say they are men competent of the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alderman have returned home after spending a few days in the upper country.

Miss Clarise Reardon, of the New Zion section, spent Friday night at the home of Miss Aline Stewart.

Mrs. P. R. David has returned to her home at Olanta after spending several days in Alcolu with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wilbur Floyd and Miss Aline Stewart returned home Monday after visiting Mrs. Floyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delaware Calder, of Olanta.

Mr. R. B. Bee, one of Mr. Jos. S. Dickson's salesmen, visited friends in Marion Sunday.

Mrs. S. P. Parrot, of Marion, has returned to her home after spending Sunday with her husband, at the Stewart boarding house. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stidham and little Elsie Reed, spent Sunday evening at Mrs. B. N. Stewart's.

Messrs. Boyd Stewart and Jimmie Powell and Mrs. B. N. Stewart and daughters, Aline and Marie, motored over to Manning last Friday to the fair. They report a fine time.

Mr. R. B. Brunson and his family have moved to Greenville, S. C., to the regret of their many friends in Alcolu.

Mrs. B. N. Stewart is visiting friends in Sumter this week.

Miss Martha Alderman is visiting in the upper country and allow me to say Miss Martha is missed when she will soon return.

There was a Temperance lecture at the Clarendon Baptist church last Sunday and it was hard to beat.

The writer wants to congratulate the trustees of the Alcolu high school in being so fortunate in getting Miss Hentz as a teacher. With Miss Aline Howle, as principal, and Miss Hentz, as assistant, there is no reason why this will not be the banner year for the Alcolu school.

PAXVILLE NEWS

Dr. Stearn will deliver a lecture in the Paxville Methodist church on next Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. Dr. Stearn is a noted prohibition speaker, and comes here by invitation of Mr. J. K. Breedin.

Mrs. Eugie Salley was here last week for a short visit at the home of Mrs. S. E. Curtis, before returning to her home at Smithville, Va. She is the widow of the late Dr. P. M. Salley, of Pinewood, and was there looking after business interests.

Mr. J. L. Pritchard of Ellorec was here last week visiting friends.

Mr. J. C. Pate and family who now reside in Sumter were here last week to visit friends. Mr. Pate has given up teaching, and is now a traveling salesman.

Mr. J. W. Mims is the recent purchaser of a seven-passenger Chalmers.

Mr. Joe Hodge and family, of Lamar, spent the week-end at the home of the Messrs. Hodge near town.

Rev. A. S. Lesley preached his last sermon here on Sunday morning for the conference year, also held a baptismal service. He leaves Tuesday for the Annual Conference at Bishopville which will be in session this week. It is generally hoped that Rev. Lesley will be returned to this charge. He reports the treasury "full to overflowing."

CARD OF THANKS

The Poultry Association wishes to thank the Fair Association for their courtesy, premiums and space. We also appreciate the splendid publicity and support given us by the press. Prof. Hare is goodness itself. This is the third year he has judged for us free, while more progressive counties are paying ten dollars per day for their judging. Prof. Hare has offered to judge for us again next year if we are still to poor to pay for a judge. We thank Mr. McCord and Mr. J. C. DuRant, Jr. What would we have done without them?

In holy writ we read that in unity there is strength. Applying this rule to our association we hope that every one interested in the upbuilding of our County, will interest themselves in making our Poultry Association a success and the best in the State.

We are hoping to have Prof. Hare and Prof. Cleveland at an early date. At this meeting the premiums won at show will be presented, officers elected, and plans made for the coming year. Don't be a slacker do your bit. Come to this meeting and let us work together to make Clarendon a progressive County.

Yours for making ours the Banner Association in the State.

MRS. J. W. HERIOT,
Sec. and Treas. Clar. Poultry Asso.

CIVIC LEAGUE HOLDS MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Civic League was called to order by the President, Mrs. T. M. Mouzon, on Monday afternoon, November 19, 1917. Mrs. Gerald acted as Secretary in Mrs. Levi's absence.

Minutes of the October meeting were read and approved. The first business taken up was reports of the officers and Committees, the Treasurer's report being extra good. Something over a hundred dollars was reported on hand.

Mrs. H. D. Clark and Miss Irma Weinberg were unanimously elected members of the Civic League.

Election of officers was next in order. Nominations were made from the floor, election being by ballot which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. T. M. Mouzon; 1st vice president, Mrs. W. G. King; 2nd vice president, Miss Irma Weinberg; 3rd vice president, Mrs. R. C. Wells; 4th vice president, Mrs. J. A. Cole; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. D. Gerald.

The president then addressed the league and thanked the members for their hearty cooperation during the past year and urged them to greater work for the coming year.

The meeting then adjourned. Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Gerald, Sec. & Treas.

Mrs. Ralph Newton, of Charleston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bowman, this week.

We Always Obey Our Beloved President

And we are going to do so on November 29th by giving thanks to the Master for the many blessings received during the year, and we know that you are going to do the same.

The yield from the farm has been abundant and the prices for farm products are good, consequently the merchant has enjoyed a splendid business.

Merchandise is Cheap

Friend, don't laugh or think this statement absurd. Yes we say it is cheap a good deal cheaper than it will be later on, and our advice to our friends is that if you are short on anything in the way of clothing for yourself or the boys is to buy it now.

We have been replenishing our stock daily and you will find that it contains many attractive numbers in Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats.

It will be to your interest to see our line before making your purchases.

We shall deem it a pleasure to show you.
