ANOTHER REVOLUTION UPHEAVES RUSSIA

Bolsheviki Leaders Order Their Troops to Attack Revolters Without Awaiting Orders.

NEWS ABOUT ARMISTICE

The Long Expected Civil Warfare in Russia Has Apparently Broken Out.

London, Dec. 9.—A proclamation to the Russian nation has been issued by the Russian Government announcing that "Kaledines and Korniloff, assisted by the Imperialists and Constitutional Democrats, have raised a revolt and declared war in the Don region against the people and the revolutionary forces."

The proclamation adds that "the Constitutional Democrats and Bourgeois are supplying the revolting generals with scores of millions."

"The workmen's and soldier's delegates have ordered the necessary movements of troops against the counter revolution and issued decrees authorizing the local revolutionary garrisons to attack the enemies of the people without awaiting orders from the supreme authorities and forbidding any attempts at mediation."

Armistice Terms Outlined.

Petrograd, Saturday, Dec. 8.—The Russian delegation from the front, which took part in the armistice negotiations, reported to the central executive committee and the soldiers' and workmen's council today. The terms for the armistice were outlined by one of the delegation as follows:

"The Russians proposed that the duration of the armistice be six months; with three days' notice of the resumption of hostilities; the armistice to embrace all fronts in all countries; no troops to be transferred; Moon sound and Moon island to be evacuated by the Germans.

"The Germans made the following counter proposals:

"The armistice to last twenty-eight days; to embrace only the Russian front; the transfer of units less than a division to be permitted; Moon sound and Moon island to remain in German occupation; the Russian troops to be removed from the Macedonian and French fronts; Russian and Turkish troops to evacuate Persia.

"The consideration of the report was postponed."

Says It Is War for Gain.

Petrograd, Saturday, Dec. 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Commenting on President Wilson's message to Congress, the Army and Fleet Journal this morning pictures America and Great Britain as determined to carry on the war in order that they may triumph commercially over all others, including the allies. It says: "Peace by means of war! This is the mask under which the American imperialists with their inflamed appetites are posing. America declares herself the implacable enemy of Austria-Hungary without any evident reason, without any justifying motives save covetousness and greed.

Selfish Ambition.

"At the moment in which Russia is putting forth efforts to end the war, American capitalists, talking with hypocrisy of the horrors of war, are striving to lengthen the bloody terror. America and Great Britain desire to have all countries so weakened that they will remain the sole victors, and over the bodies of the millions that have been sacrificed divide the world. The Bourgeois are dancing cannibalistic dances over the bodies of ten million victims."

The Old Refrain.

The Isvestia, the semi-official organ of the soldiers' and workmen's delegates, says:

"This is the old refrain—war to a victorious end. We are sure the Krupps and all the other German and Austrian cannon kings are rubbing their hands with glee at hearing such talk. The Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs are rejoicing at the possibility now of throwing over to the shoulders of America the responsibility of carrying on the war. But the mighty call of the Russian proletariat will soon be heard throughout the world and the awakened nations will force their governments first to an armistice and then to peace."

Papers Suppressed.

Most of the newspapers, aside from the Bolsheviki organs, are still not permitted to print. The Isvestia publishes a letter from M. Bakrloff, the former private secretary to Madame Catharine Bresskovskaya, "the grandmother of the revolution," in which the aid given by the American Red Cross representatives to educational work in Russia is interpreted as anti-Bolsheviki activity.

The Bakrloff letter declares that Mr. Robins and two other representatives of the Red Cross called on Madame Bresskovskaya and gave her 100,000 rubles with the promise of 2,000,000 for her educational work, by which she financed the newspaper Vlyna Naroda and displayed American films picturing the "terrible war of imperialism."

DOMINICK WILL OPPOSE PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

Washington, Dec. 9.—In reply to a telegram from the Greenwood Journal, saying that people in that section were much concerned over a report that he would vote against the submission of the federal prohibition amendment, Representative Fred H. Dominick, of Newberry, wired that the report was correct, and that it should apply also to the woman's suffrage amendment. The Congressman gave his reasons, in part, as follows:

"I shall vote against the prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution, and also the woman's suffrage amendment. Under the Constitution, federal statutes and South Carolina statutes, the constitutionality of which as assistant Attorney General I helped to sustain before the Supreme Court of South Carolina and of the United States, absolute bond-dry prohibition can now be had in South Carolina, and every other State in the union if those States want it, without any interference or hindrance whatsoever from the federal government or its constitutionality. Under this Constitution and these laws our people can repeal the quart-a-month-act, and have absolute prohibition if our Legislature and Governor want it.

"While it may be old-fashioned in these days to think about the once much revered doctrine of State's rights, so ardently cherished and fought for by our people, I am, and have always been and shall always be, a firm believer in the doctrine. Coming as I do from a district once represented in Congress by the immortal Calhoun, the great champion of the State's rights and democracy, I could not think or act otherwise."
