PAXVILLE NEWS

After a long period of rest and recreation the graded school opened Monday morning at the usual hour. The term that ended the week before Christmas gave promise of a very successful year's work, and it is hoped that the pupils will now work with more than ordinary enthusiasm.

Miss Ethel Carbett returned to her school at Fair Forest on Friday. Miss Hattie Huling also left to resume her school near Lugoff.

Miss Sadie Mims, of Sumter, visited last week at the home of Mr. C. H. Broadway.

Miss Sadie Cutler, who is working at the Charleston Naval factory, is spending the holidays at her home here.

Misses Pearl Broadway and Isa Geddings will return to Winthrop College on Tuesday morning, after a very pleasant holiday visit to their parents here.

Mr. P. C. Bradham, from Mullins, visited his sister, Mrs. L. Weinberg, last week.

Mrs. Joe Hodges and son, Thomas, from Lamar, spent the week-end at the home of the Misses Hodge near town.

Miss Loraine Latham, who has been spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Mims, Jr., returned to Cades on Saturday, where she is teaching school.

Mrs. Madge Curtis and Miss Vivian Curtis will leave Tuesday for a two weeks visit to Mr. Alva B. Curtis, at Anniston, Ala.

Sergeant Robbie Broadway, now at Camp Greene, visited his father, Mr. R. C. Broadway, during the holidays. It has been four years since he was last here.

Miss Thelma McLeod has returned from a visit to relatives at Florence.

Miss Geraldine Bowen has returned to Carey, N. C., where she is attending school, after a visit to her parents. She was accompanied here by her cousin, Miss Emma Womble, of Apex, N. C.

HE'S DEAD

Gus Collins, colored, and known around town as the "trick nigger" and "root worker" died in Manning last week. Notwithstanding he was seen in his coffin, and buried as all human beings are, there are a great many colored people who believe Gus still lives. It is told that when he was being laid out he turned over and looked into the face of those preparing him for burial. It is also said that a colored preacher took the place of the regular barber, and started to shave him, when again he rolled his eyes up at him. The Rev. decided it was moving day with him, and while he was told the speed limit was 30 miles per hour, he hit the track at a pace that would make Ralph De Palmer ashamed. It's true Gus was a freak, a good magician and slight of hand artist, but he is dead and cannot return. So those that are still worrying about his departure need fear him no longer—he has gone to stay.

HELPED ME IN EVERY WAY I NEEDED AID

Says Tanlac Proved a Good Stomach Remedy

BROUGHT GREAT CHANGE

"In Short Time Tanlac Had Me Feeling So Much Better," She Says

"Tanlac proved to be a good stomach remedy and tonic for me, and it helped me in every way I needed relief," declared Mrs. J. J. Worthey of 68 Railroad street, Arkwright, Spartanburg, in a statement she gave June 7. "I was troubled a great deal with indigestion and my whole system was run down badly. My appetite was bad and I was bothered awfully with nervousness and headaches. When I had one of these bad nervous headaches, I could not rest at night.

"The Tanlac quieted and strengthened my nerves, though, and I soon was eating heartily. The indigestion soon left me, those headaches were relieved, and in a short time I was feeling a great deal better in every way."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is sold by Dickson's Drug Store, Manning; H. W. Nettles, Jordan; Shaw & Plowden, New Zion; Farmers' Supply Co., Silver; D. C. Rhame, Summerton.—adv.

It is important that you make return, thereby saving the auditor a lot of work and trouble, and yourself the 50 per cent penalty for non return.

"IN HIS KEEPING"

On Saturday morning, Dec. 29th, the Angel of Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hodges near Manning and plucked from the vine of life little Walter Clabern who had been given them but for a few months, just long enough to entwine his little life around the hearts of the grief-stricken parents.

But since the Lord gave and the Lord hath taken, and we humble our hearts to Him and say:

"I take these little lambs said He, And lay them on my breast. Protection they shall find in me, In me be forever blest.

Another little lamb has gone, To dwell with Him who gave. Another little darling babe Is sheltered in the grave. God needed one more angel child Amidst his shining band, And so He bent with loving smile And clasped our darling's hand.

When we see a precious blossom That we tender with such care, Rudely taken from our bosom How our aching hearts despair. Around its little grave we hunger Till the setting sun is low, Seeing all our hope has perished With the flower we cherished so.

The little baby was laid to rest in the family burying ground Sunday evening at 3 o'clock, there to await the glorious dawning of the resurrection day, when we shall see him face to face and "tell the story saved by grace." We sympathize with the bereaved parents in their time of grief. May they not think of little Clabern as lost, but only gone before. This, only a little hand that's beckoning come, and no heartaches and sighings are there.

THE WRESTLING MATCH

Grapple Fans to See Fast Bout Thursday Night—Fritz Hanson and Gene Westguard Will Put up Classy Exhibition of Wrestling

Grapple fans of Sumter are looking forward with eagerness to the bout Thursday night between Fritz Hanson of Chicago, which promises to be a classy affair. Westguard is purported to be a clean and scientific wrestler and should put up a fine exhibition of the game with Fritz Hanson, who is well known to Sumter fans. The bout will be of the usual kind, nothing barred except the strangle hold, two best out of three falls to a finish. This pair will be pretty evenly matched and should draw a large house. Seats will be on sale Thursday morning at Mitchell's Drug Store.—Sumter Item.

SOLDIERS BUILD CHURCH

Vanderbilt Furnishes Funds for Camp Edifice

Spartanburg, S. C., Jan. 7.—The first church built by the soldiers at any army camp in the United States is now in course of construction at Camp Wadsworth. The funds for the material and the work are both provided by Col. Cornelius Vanderbilt, 102nd engineers. The building is to have a front of an engineer's temple and the plans show that it will be a handsome structure. Dr. Horace R. Felt, High Bridge, N. Y., is chaplain of the 102nd engineers.
