239,949 DRAFT MEN FOR CAMP

Total Number of Men Ordered Into the Military Service for the Month of May is 305,577 and These Men Came from All the States of Union.

Washington, —Two calls for a total of 239,949 draftmen were issued by Provost Marshal General Crowder today. The calls included 233,742 men for general military service, and 6,207 men skilled in occupations needed for the several branches of the army.

The men included in today's general call will entrain during the five days' period beginning May 25. They are to come from all states. The special call men are to be mobilized on May 8 and May 17.

The aggregate number of draft men now ordered into military service during May is 305,577. June calls will exceed this number, it was learned.

Preceding May calls were: 49,843 men for general military service, to entrain between May 1 and 5 and May 10 and 15, and special calls for 5,610 to move between May 1 and 9; 1,190 on May 7 and 8; 985 on May 16 and 23.

The 233,742 men in today's general call are allotted among all the states and ordered to camps as follows:

BUELLOW MAY BE CHANCELLOR

Zurich.—The Muenchener Neueste Nachrichten learns from a diplomatic source in Vienna that Prince von Buelow may be appointed German imperial chancellor soon.

Chancellor Count von Hertling's position has been persistently reported precarious and Prince von Buelow was mentioned a few days ago as his most likely successor. The Zurich report synchronizes with dispatches from Amsterdam saying Hertling had resolved to stand or fall with the Prussian electoral reform issue which is in its final parliamentary phases. In case of unfavorable action, Count von Hertling threatened to resign. The common understanding both in Germany and abroad has long been that Prince von Buelow was being "saved" by the kaiser for the peace negotiations. The report that he is about to be made chancellor may bear significance in connection with strong reports that Germany proposes shortly to launch a great peace offensive, her efforts to break through in the west having failed.

MUST KEEP HENS FOR CHEAP EGGS

The best opportunity for cheap eggs for city families during the war, says a recent publication of the United States Department of Agriculture, lies in keeping enough hens in the back yard, where they can be supported principally on kitchen wastes, to supply the family table. The keeping of hens in back yards is described as being an economic opportunity for city families and at the same time an essential part of the campaign for increasing poultry production.

The smallest and least favorably situated backyard, says the department, offers opportunity to keep at least enough hens to supply eggs for the household. The number of hens needed for that purpose is twice the number of persons to be supplied. Hence, the smallest flock to be considered consists of four hens. Where hens are kept only to furnish eggs for the table no male bird is needed.

A coop for a flock of four hens should have a floor area of about 20 square feet or about 5 feet per hen.

U. S. AND NORWAY REACH AGREEMENT

Washington, May 3.—The United States and Norway today completed a general commercial agreement to be reached between this country with one of the northern neutrals, it was said at the war trade board. The agreement was signed by Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the war trade board, and Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, special representative of the Norwegian government.

The agreement assures Norway supplies to cover her estimated needs, insofar as these can be supplied without detriment to the war needs of the United States and its associates in the war. It contains long schedules enumerating the quantities of foodstuffs, fodder, fertilizer, textiles, metals and minerals, rubber and miscellaneous commodities which Norway is entitled to receive.

Norway, for its part, agrees to permit the unhampered export to the United States and its associates in the war of all Norwegian products not needed for home consumption, particularly ores and minerals, chemical and metallurgical products, timber and wood products, fish and fish products.

There are no tonnage "strings" to the agreement, it was stated at the war trade board. The arrangement is purely and solely one by which Norway may procure necessary supplies. It is based on Norway's complete needs, and no effort was made to stint the neutral country.

Norway has faithfully fulfilled her obligation to the allies, it was explained, and the attitude of this government was to deal fairly and liberally with her.

CHARLES' PEACE OFFER UNFEASIBLE

Paris, May 3.—The foreign affairs committee of the Chamber of Deputies, according to Le Matin, after hearing the statements of ex-Premiers Peinleve and Ribot, unanimously agreed that it was unfavorable to attempt to enter into conversation with Austria-Hungary as a result of Emperor Charles' letter concerning peace and the legitimacy of France's war aim. Some members suggested that an effort be made to discover exactly what the Austrian emperor was "driving at."

PERSHING'S CHIEF OF STAFF

Maj. Gen. McAndrew Succeeds Brig. Gen. Harbord

With the American Army in France.—Major Gen. James McAndrew has been appointed chief of staff of the American expeditionary forces, assuming his duties immediately. Brig. Gen. James G. Harbord, who has been Gen. Pershing's chief of staff, has been assigned to a command in the field, which he will take over this week.

These changes are explained as being in conformity with Gen. Pershing's policy of making shifts among the officers of the general staff. In this process some are being sent to the field and replaced with others who have been on the front and by reason of recent personal experiences are better able to grapple with field problems. This policy also serves to give the general staff officers an opportunity to serve with the troops. All of this is calculated to inject additional energy into the activities of the American expeditionary forces.
