

Manning Is The Market!

And the MANNING WAREHOUSE is the House for you to sell your Tobacco for High Prices. We want to make this statement to you Tobacco friends that we are now here to look after your every want. We are not as well known to you as our competitors, but our experience in the Warehouse business has been more than twenty years. And have always sold Tobacco for some of the largest and best farmers, as well as the small ones, in both North and South Carolina, and pleased them. And will please you when you sell your Tobacco on our floor.

We have come to Manning to help build up a strong home market for you, and ask you to divide and give us a liberal share of your tobacco on our floor. As we are Tobacco Farmers and know the cost and hard work it takes to make a crop of Tobacco, realize the real need of high prices for the farmers, and will leave nothing undone to get you every dollar there is in your tobacco. You will find us strong bidders and buying lots of Tobacco ourselves. Mr. Sam Williams, whom you know, and a strong and experienced force will be at the MANNING WAREHOUSE to welcome you and look after your interest. Bring us your first or second load.

OPENING SALE, TUESDAY, JULY 9th.

MADE NEW START AND SHE WON OUT.

Great Problem is Faced by Girl Workers in Cities

EXPENSES GROWING Almost Beyond Work When She Began Taking Tanlac, Which Soon Restored Her

There is no bigger problem than that which the woman worker has to meet. With rent, clothing, food, fuel all going higher and higher her worries are greater than ever. Though weaker and more liable to illness than men, these women must be at their best whether they are in office, store, factory or home. They must be bright, confident, ambitious or fail.

The weak, nervous, run-down woman has very little chance, and this was realized by Josephine Dougherty. Miss Dougherty is one of the army of women workers, a competent, quick witted saleswoman, in a New York department store which has 50,000 customers daily. Her home is at 438 East 138th St.

"Because of suffering my work was getting so hard I could not stand it," this girl declared. "I would suffer so after eating that I could not keep my strength up. There would be pains and I would have a feeling of suffocation. I had lost sleep so long and had become so nervous I was in a bad run down condition. I was subject to headaches and pains in my limbs and back. Even my heart had become weak."

"I knew I could not go on that way, but the medicine I took did not seem to do me any good. Other girls began to tell me about Tanlac, and I finally decided to try it. Tanlac, I know, is the best tonic and builder there is. I feel just fine. I do not suffer from those pains or weaknesses any more. I sleep well and my appetite has returned. My nervousness went with my stomach trouble. I recommend this Tanlac to everyone I know who needs building up and cleansing of the system like I did."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is sold by Dickson's Drug Store, Manning; H. W. Nettles, Jordan; Shaw & Plowden, New Zion; Farmers' Supply Co., Silver; D. C. Rhame, Summerton.

ITALY'S ARMY CONTINUES TO POUND ENEMY

Austrians Forced to Yield Strongly Entrenched Positions in Mountains North of the Venetian Plains

VIENNA ADMITS LOSSES

French Have Taken Strong Positions Along Ridges East of Villers-Cotterets—Minor Engagements Elsewhere

Success has apparently crowned the offensive of the Italians in the mountains north of the Venetian plains. Launched on Saturday, the attack on the Austrian line has gained rugged heights where the enemy was strongly entrenched, and the fighting is still going on. Vienna admits a retirement to "prepared positions" which is the expression used in official statements to mean that an enemy blow has gained important ground.

After three days of struggling in the mountains, the Italians are still hammering hard at the most powerful and threatening positions of the enemy. They have not only gained ground but held it against desperate counterattacks by the Austro-Hungarian forces which were mown down by artillery fire and completely checked by the Italian infantry.

Enemy Ousted

Detail maps of the area in which the fighting is going on do not show distinctly some of the places mentioned in the official statements. The Vienna admission that the new Austrian line runs through "Stemple wood" is, therefore, without significance, but as the positions held by the Austrians before the Italian attack began were above the forecast line it would seem that the enemy had been ousted from the higher ground he formerly held and thus placed at a disadvantage in the fighting to come.

The Italian attack seemingly was planned with care. On the right flank of Gen. Diaz's forces is the Brenta river, which affords some protection against a flanking attack. On the left there are two deep valleys which also lend themselves admirably to the tactics adopted by the Italians.

Hospital Ship Sunk

The British hospital ship Llandovory Castle, bound from a Canadian port for England, has been sunk without warning by a German submarine, when seventy miles from land. So far only twenty-four of the 258 persons on board have been reported safe. The fate of those who are missing is unknown.

An official statement issued at Berlin claims that 191,454 un wounded Allied prisoners have been captured since March 21. Of these 94,929 were British; 89,099 were French and the rest were Portuguese, Belgians and Americans. Six Allied generals and 6,200 officers are said to have been taken by the Germans.

In France there have been local attacks at various points north of the Marne on the west side of the salient drive into the Allied lines, by the German offensive that was begun May 27. The French have advanced their lines north of the Clignon river once more and have passed the railroad line running from Chezy to Vinly.

Further north the French have taken strong positions along the ridges to the east of Villers-Cotterets forest. There have been unusual engagements along the British, or American fronts, but there is a tenseness along the whole line from Ypres to Rheims, and even to the east, along the French and American sectors, there is expectation that the breaking of the storm may come at any time. In front of Amiens this feeling is especially marked. There the Germans began a great bombardment, but so far as reported have not sent their infantry into action.

There was intense activity in aerial fighting Sunday. The French brought down, or put out of action, twenty-one German airplanes, while the British shot down twenty-two and drove ten down out of control.

TRIBUTE

In loving remembrance of our dear uncle, Junius Strange, who departed this life June 17, 1918.

Dearest uncle, thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel, But 'tis God that hath bereft us. He can all our sorrows heal.

There is no pain in that fair land, Life, joy and peace go hand in hand; We know that you are waiting there To welcome each dear one there.

You are not forgotten, Uncle; Nor will you ever be, For as long as life and memory last, I will ever think of thee.

Uncle thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the sunshine breeze, Pleasant as the air of even As it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in thy grave so low, Thou no more will join our number, Thou no more our song shall know.

Mute is the voice and still the heart That I loved so well and true; Oh, bitter was the trial to part From one so dear as you.

We wish to extend to each and every one of the bereaved family our deepest sympathy. May God give them strength and faith to say "Thy will, Oh, Lord, not ours be done." Loving nieces, E. and C. A. Ridgeway.
