THINKS TANLAC IS GRANDEST REMEDY

"In a Week Tanlac Had Me Feeling Like New Woman"

HIGHLY PRAISES IT

Could Hardly Keep Out of Bed When She Started Taking Master-Medicine

"Tanlac gave me back my strength and made me feel fine in every way. I think it is the grandest medicine in the world, and I can heartily recommend it to anyone who suffered from the complaints I had," was the emphatic statement given by Mrs. Lizzie Bryson, of Piedmont, S. C., in endorsement of Tanlac on May 9th. "When I began taking Tanlac I was so weak and broken down I could hardly keep out of bed. I had no appetite. I could not sleep well and I was nervous to kill.

"The Tanlac gave me back my health and strength, though. I soon had a fine appetite. My nerves became strong and steady and I feel fine in every way. In a week the Tanlac had me feeling like a new woman. It was two months ago that I stopped taking Tanlac."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is sold by Dickson's Drug Store, Manning; H. W. Nettles, Jordan; Shaw & Plowden, New Zion; Farmers' Supply Co., Silver; D. C. Rhame, Summerton.

WHAT'S $10 TO A PATRIOT

New York, July 21.—After Edward Hall had been fined $5 for snatching a German language newspaper from the hands of Henry Siegfried, he said: "It's a cinch, Judge. It was worth $10."

At which Magistrate Dooley doubled the fine, which Hall cheerfully paid.

Hall was found guilty of disorderly conduct. He yanked the paper from its owner, pummelled him and called him names.

A press dispatch from the American army in France says:

The American commander of Givray reporting the capture of the town to headquarters, sent the following message:

"Met Boche on his line of resistance. Sharp fight. Boche turned tail and ran like hell, pursued by our troops. Hope have more prisoners."

GREAT LIGHT DAWNS UPON HERR VON STEIN

Despised Lads of Uncle Sam Take Fifty Guns and 3,000 Prisoners

With the American Army, July 22.—That the Americans have now achieved something very real and important, providing a salutary lesson for Germany and offering a happy augury for the future is certain. The German War Minister recently spoke with contempt of their work at Belleau Wood, remarking that they attacked only after the German drive was finished. But during the last few days the Americans fought at the most critical points in the line, both decisively and offensively.

One naturally wonders what General von Stein now thinks of the Americans, who certainly have been a revelation. East of Rheims they held up the German attack in their section. Others fought amazingly well in the counter-attack at Conde Wood, as a unit with the French.

Yesterday I traveled through the forest of Villers-Cotterets in the direction of Soissons, where the American-French counter-offensive was in progress. There was something very happy in seeing guns and transports moving forward. The troops seemed to enjoy the great change. There were merry faces seen all along the roads. The American "doughboy," serious though his features always are, certainly takes the fortunes of war with a quiet chuckling humor that is very pleasing. One "doughboy" said to me yesterday:

"It Was Great Fun"

"The captain told us to have a good smoke, as we had just twenty minutes before we went over the top. Then he looked at his watch and shouted, 'Are ye ready?' We all said 'Yes,' then 'on the top we went. The Germans to us machine guns and artillery on us for a time, but before we reached their first line they started to run and we just ran after them. It was great fun."

The wounded Americans I saw were exultant. "When I saw those Germans running," said a rugged, sturdy boy, "I was cheered up." Another said: "It certainly was fun to go over the top and get at the Germans."

Despite their bandages and blood they were as happy a party of men as one could meet. So fast had our men advanced today that the kitchen men could hardly keep pace with them.

It was a pleasant turn of the tide in which the Americans played their parts nobly. After only a few hours' fighting they stand in sight of Soissons. Near Torcy also they advanced, while Hill 172 was taken by them.

Germans Cry "Kamerad!"

Never before have the Americans fought so extensively on one day. In the Soissons area they went over the top at 4:35 a. m., assisted by a large number of tanks, speedily reached their first objectives and rushed on. The enemy at first offered resistance, but quickly threw away his machine guns and every impediment and ran away. Cries of "Kamerad," again and again greeted the triumphant Americans, who passing their objectives at an earlier hour than was anticipated, fought on with amazing resolution. Surprised by the suddenness of the attack the enemy did not have time even to destroy his guns, and it is estimated that three units, of which two were American and one French, captured more than fifty guns and 3,000 prisoners early in the day.

EGYPT PROSPEROUS

Cairo, July 22.—The prosperity of Egypt has been reflected in the figures produced in the annual budget reports. The balance of trade for the past three and a half years represents an addition of $250,000,000 to Egypt's capital resources.

"This prosperous situation," says the report, "is shown on every side. Mortgage companies find their loans paid in advance, and demands for new loans have markedly slackened, enabling these companies to invest large sums in Allied war loans. Cotton loans are below normal, and owners generally are able to carry their holdings.

"Apart from the larger cash balances at the bank, it is clear that bank notes are now taking the place of gold for purposes of hoarding. As the increased note issue is now represented by British treasury bills, an increase in the hoarded notes represents a corresponding increase in the resources which Egypt is placing at the disposal of the Allies."

ARMY MAKES RECORD MEAT PURCHASES

Chicago, July 22.—The largest single order for bacon and canned meats in the history of the world—99,560,000 pounds of bacon and 134,000,000 pounds of canned meat—has just been placed by the Quartermaster's Department, U. S. A., for the American Army overseas.

Louis F. Swift, in commenting on this today, said the order will take the bacon from approximately 1,900,000 hogs and if other work were dropped to produce it would be equivalent to the total bacon production of the five largest Chicago packers for nearly five weeks. However, six months will elapse before delivery is to be completed.

Mr. Swift said: "At the current prices on the day, last week, when the purchase was made, the packers would pay the live stock producers about $80,000,000 for the necessary hogs, and over $50,000,000 for about 900,000 cattle required."

"The cattle will cost us twice as much, and the hogs two and one-half times as much as in the pre-war period."

"The whole order will be made up before the first of the year, despite the fact that, even before this purchase, one-fourth of the packers' facilities have been devoted to filling military demands."

"In order to get out the canned goods the packers will find it necessary to employ night and day shifts of canners. Notwithstanding the fact that the products are being rushed forward thus hurriedly, not a single complaint has been received on meats delivered to the armies abroad."

"The five packers are now killing about 360,000 hogs weekly to keep abreast of martial and domestic needs."

GERMAN OFFICERS WITH A GROUCH

With the British Army in France, July 21.—"Why did you make such a violent attack?" queried a highly displeased German officer prisoner this morning. "Do you celebrate some foolish holiday?" he asked as he passed a British band practicing on the road. Another officer, equally indignant, muttered: "Hindenburg is not dead. He will make another offensive in Flanders."

This gives an idea of the disgruntled attitude of some of the Hun officers captured among a total of nearly 300 prisoners in a daylight raid which resulted in the prompt taking of a town which formerly had nearly 3,000 inhabitants.

Barrail at 7:50 o'clock in the morning saw the British drop a barrage of terrible intensity. It endured only one minute, then the troops advanced behind the smoke barrage. So bewildered were some of the tired Huns in the opposing trenches that they ran not in the direction of Germany out toward the British.

GERMANS BEGIN TO THINK TEN MILLION AMERICANS ARE FIGHTING IN FRANCE

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, Sunday, July 21.—A German prisoner captured by the Americans today formerly was a baker in New York city and Lebanon, Pa. He was asked, what the German soldiers thought about the Americans.

Since Thursday, the prisoner said, the Germans had concluded that the announcement that a million Americans were in France was false, and rumors among the Germans on this front are that there are ten million Americans in France.
