OFFICERS DECORATED

Ten Major Generals, 13 Brigadier Generals, One Colonel

PERSHING MAKES OUT LIST

Major Gen. George W. Read, of the Thirtieth Division, Among Those Decorated.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Ten major generals, thirteen brigadier generals and one colonel have been selected by Gen. Pershing for distinguished service medals for their work in connection with the creation of the American army in France and its successful assault on the German lines. The citations were made public by the War Department.

One of the major generals, Charles T. Menoher, commander of the Forty-second (Rainbow) division, now director of the air service, was decorated yesterday by Secretary Baker. Gen. Pershing's citation of this officer showed that the division participated in practically all of the important engagements of the American army, and it said that "the reputation as a fighting unit of the Forty-second division is in no small measure due to the soldierly qualities and military leadership of this officer."

The other major generals to be decorated are: William M. Wright, successively commander of the Thirty-seventh division; the Third, Fifth and Seventh army corps and the Eighty-ninth division; George W. Read, Thirtieth division, and late commander of the Second army corps; John L. Hines, successively regimental, brigade, division and corps commander; Charles H. Muir, Twenty-eighth division; Charles P. Summerall, First division and Fifth army corps; William G. Haan, Thirty-second division; Henry T. Allen, Ninetieth division; Albert Cronkheit, Eighty-eighth division, and Francis J. Kernan, organizer of the overseas service of supply and members of the Supreme War Council.

The brigadier generals decorated are: LeRoy Eltinge, assistant chief of staff, A. E. F.; Preston Brown, chief of staff of the Second division and later commander of the Third division; Avery D. Andrews, assistant chief of staff in charge of transportation; Dennis E. Nolan, chief of intelligence, A. E. F.; Fox Conner, assistant chief of staff in charge of operations; George V. H. Mosely, assistant chief of staff in charge of equipment; Harold B. Fiske, chief of training section, general staff, A. E. F.; Harry A. Smith, commandant of army schools at Langres, France, and civil administrator in occupied German territory; John Hogooc, organizer of training system in France; Paul B. Malone, brigade commander during major operations; Frank R. McCoy, secretary, general staff, A. E. F.; and subsequently commander of the Sixty-third infantry brigade; Hugh A. Drum, chief of staff, First army, and William D. Conner, assistant chief of staff of the A. E. F., and later chief of staff of the service of supply.

The colonel named is John McA. Palmer, who was on the general staff and later commanded the Fifty-eighth infantry brigade north of Verdun.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect the Head
Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 30c.
