AS STYLES CHANGE

Women Who Can Sew Manage to Keep Step With Fashion.

Interesting Little Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard Offered as Early Spring Model.

Each season's styles have such a way of overlapping that the average woman just about completes her wardrobe when along comes information as to what is to be worn in the season immediately to come.

Fortunately during the past two or three seasons there have been very few radical style changes, and the woman who can sew and has ideas of her own can usually manage to keep step with Dame Fashion in a reasonably satisfactory manner.

The little frock shown in the sketch is offered as an early spring model, but it is not sufficiently extreme to demand classification with any particular season. It may easily be made at home, using a pretty printed silk. A draped dress of this kind is becoming to nearly all figures. The tunic or overskirt is draped exactly alike back and front, the only flare being over each hip. The bodice material is drawn safely about the figure, made over a fitted lining, of course, and fastens at one side and on the shoulder. The left side is usually preferred for the closing, unless the woman for whom the gown is intended is left-handed.

Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard.

The sleeves are exceptionally smart. As will be seen, they fit the arms closely, are wrist length, and a row of buttons extends from shoulder to wrist.

SAPPHIRES IN FRONT RANK

Precious Stone Said to Be in Forefront
Compared With Other Expensive
Fashionable Gems.

That person, man, woman or bolshevist, who wishes to be in it, to use the English equivalent for the French phrase, will wear sapphires. Such is the edict of fashion. One reason for this is that it has been comparatively easy to imitate the ruby, hitherto enthroned as the show gem, says the New York Times. Another probably is that the sapphire has been somewhat neglected, and it is prudent to get rid of accumulated stock.

As an incident of the edict demobilizing the ruby and culling the sapphire to the colors, we are told that diamonds and pearls are still the most expensive and most fashionable jewels. The latter part of this statement is tautology in its crudest form. As if anything could be the most expensive and avoid being the most fashionable. Still another interesting bit of this jewel gossip states that diamonds and pearls have increased 100 per cent in price since the war began, proving that they are worthy associates of King Coal. The information probably will serve to halt those who have been considering burning their surplus diamonds in the furnace to conserve the coal supply. And it also seems that the most aristocratic of gems feels the ebb and flow of the tide of labor, for it is said that the South African field has been confronted with a labor shortage. Such statements are truly alarming and probably will set many to hoarding diamonds, but news is news and must be given out.

Window Decolletage.

Window decolletage is one of the new things in afternoon frocks. A bodice so constructed shows an oval opening in the front some three inches below the round neckline, and on each sleeve two or three inches above the short elbow sleeves.
