

A Sheriff in Tennessee must be a man of brawn & vigor

Mr. B. W. D. Barnes, of Warren County, Measures up to Requirements.

HIS LIFE A STIRRING ONE

Always in robust health, B. W. D. Barnes could ride, shoot and get his man. He was everything a sheriff in Warren Co., Tennessee, should be until overtaken by a complication of catarrhal troubles the stomach, bowels or other organs. Dr. Hartman's Famous Peruna Tonic has been a standard household remedy for forty-five years.

that all but put him down. Here is the story told in his own words: "I had throat trouble from which no relief seemed possible. My health was gone. Finally I decided to try Peruna and was entirely cured by four bottles. That was three years ago. I am now as well as ever; able to ride all the time. Thanks to Peruna."

Like Sheriff Barnes, thousands owe their present health to Peruna. For catarrh of the head, nose and throat, catarrhal inflammation of same view that he did. Senators Shepard, Watkins and others discussed the measure from a constitutional standpoint at length, and said that the bill should be killed on that account by refusal to adopt the report of the free conference report.

Words of Praise.
In the closing hours of the session the usual praises and words of commendation were spoken both on the House and Senate side. On the Senate side Senator Laney gave expression in these resolutions, which every one said were richly deserved:

WHEREAS, The Senate is about to adjourn for the session of 1919, and the Senate desires to place on record its high appreciation of the ability, uniform courtesy and dignity which has characterized its Presiding Officer

THEREFORE, Be It Resolved that and impartial manner in which its the Senate hereby expresses its warm appreciation of the courteous, able President, Hon. Junius T. Liles, has discharged the delicate and arduous duties of his office.

THAT, The Senate also hereby renders its deep sense of appreciation its President Pro Tem, Hon. LeGrand G. Walker, for his able and impartial manner he has presided over this Senate.

THAT, The Senate extend to its

Clerk, Mr. M. M. Mann, and his attaches, and to its reading clerk, Dr. W. S. Stokes, its warm esteem for the efficient and courteous discharge of their respective duties.

THAT the Sergeant at Arms, J. S. Schumpert, is warmly thanked for the attentive and courteous discharge of his duties to this Senate.

THAT the representative of the press are tendered the acknowledgment and thanks of the Senate for their fair, impartial, and unbiased and able reports of the proceedings of this Body.

THAT, the Engrossing Department is hereby warmly commended and thanked for the prompt, courteous and efficient manner in which it has done its work.

Gem of a Speech.

The gem of a speech that was made in seconding the resolutions was that of Senator Alan Johnstone. He paid high and unstinted tribute to Lieut. Gov. Liles and his ability and fairness as a presiding officer. He took occasion to speak at length and with real eloquence of the friendships that had been made in the Senate and what a splendid school it had proven to some men. Briefly he traced that growth of the State on the upward and necessary trend of the appropriation act and what in his opinion it meant. How for instance when he entered the Legislative Halls, not many years ago the pension fund for confederate soldiers amounted to a bare fifty thousand dollars and in the present bill it was four hundred thousand dollars. How when he entered the Senate there was not a dollar from the public treasury carried for the support of the public schools when now it ran over the half million mark and go on with that remarkable vocabulary that he possesses he outlined what had been the development of South Carolina for the last twenty years. Incidentally I might add that no little part of this credit is due Senator Johnstone, of Newberry, one of the conspicuous leaders of thought and action in the State.

Idea of Central Board.
Governor Cooper, with the cooperation of Senator Christensen is still plugging way on the idea of a central board for the higher educational institutions. Last night the Senate passed this resolution, at the request of Senator Christensen.

Whereas, the Governor, in his inaugural address, recommended for the consideration of the General Assembly, as a measure deemed necessary for the better conduct of the State, that the Legislature at this time take steps looking to the coordination of the government of our colleges and universities; and

Whereas, the proper framing of such legislation demands careful investigation, so that the initiative, the fine traditions and a certain healthy individuality, now an asset of these institutions, may be duly considered and provided for, and the benefits accruing from the several separate boards of trustees may be preserved, and as a proper decision requires inquiry into the experience of other States that have adopted a similar central control; Now be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

That the budget commission constitute a legislative committee on a central board for college control.

It shall be the duty of this committee to investigate the matters set forth in the preamble to this resolution and report such information as may assist the Legislature in arriving at a proper conclusion together with their own recommendation, this report and recommendation to be submitted to the General Assembly at its next session.

When the House got hold of the resolution it promptly killed it.

The budget commission can, however, of its own accord make the inquiry. It will, no doubt, do so. In connection with the session just

HOW MRS. BOYD AVOIDED AN OPERATION

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well."

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Sometimes there are serious conditions where a hospital operation is the only alternative, but on the other hand so many women have been cured by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after doctors have said that an operation was necessary—every woman who wants to avoid an operation should give it a fair trial before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

If complications exist, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of many years experience is at your service.

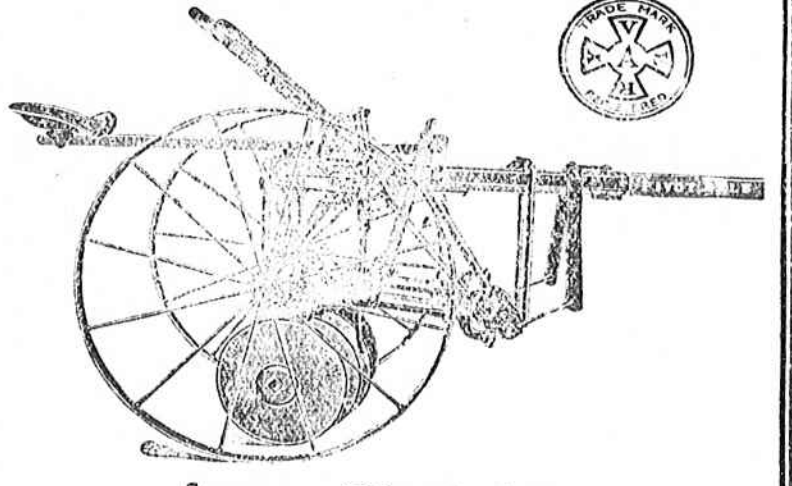

adjourned a bit of legislation passed in the early stages, and which is constructive and will be of material value, is the statute which extends the operation of the Australian ballot system. Under the former Act the system applied only to the larger towns, and incorporated. Under the new statute the system will be effective in every place that in the previous primary had shown a voting strength of fifty. In other words, the Australian ballot system will apply to all precincts except those in the country and remote. There was absolutely no complaint of the operations of the system.

Another significant bill passed in the very last hours of the session is the recognition by statute of a divorce granted in another State. The bill provides, among other things, that where the wife secures a divorce in another State that fact denies her the
