HOUSE TO TAKE UP ENFORCEMENT OF LAW

Adopts Rule for Immediate Consideration 235 to 59

WETS WILL RETARD BILL

Indications Are Vote on Measure Itself Will Not Be Reached This Week.

Washington, July 8.-The House, by adopting-235 to 59-today a special rule for immediate consideration of prohibition enforcement legislation, indicated sufficient votes to enact the measure without the twelve hours of general debate allotted members anxious to speak for and against its passage.

But despite this big majority and the promise by Chairman Wolstead of the judiciary committee, that all of the time set aside might not be used, indication; tonight were that a vote on the bill itself would not be reached this week. Every effort was made today by anti-prohibitionists to delay consideration by claims of no quorum, demands for roll-calls and by forcing the reading, word by word, of the printed bill.

Accepted in Good Grace.

All these attempts were accepted with good grace by the majority until Representative Sabbath, of Illnois, and Representative Caldwell, of New York, both Democrats, brought a protest from members, who declared they were endeavoring by dilatory tactics to slow up the proceedings. Less than two of the twelve hours for debate done later, and while members fighting for modification or repeal of the war-time act are hopelessly in the minority, they announced their determination to keep on fighting until the whole question of enforcement legislation was settled in the House.

Volstead's Speech

The principal speech in support of the judiciary committee's report was made by Chairman Volstead, who declared that he did not belong to the Anti-Saloon League and had never made a prohibition address. In a general way his address followed the tenor o fthe majority report, prepared by him. Present day conditions showed the need of enacting additional legislation, the chairman declared, because of the attempt to set the war-time act at naught by dealers selling 2% per cent beer. For an hour or more the chairman stood as a smiling tar-

Mr. Volstead told the House that, in his opinion, one Congress could define intoxicating liquor as a beverage containing one-half of 1 per cent alcoho!, while another Congress might put a different construction upon it.

In closing he told of the benefit, as he saw it, that would come to the coun try with the elimination of liquor.

THE ALDERMAN-STORES

Alderman Stores will open a de-partment store in Manning, S. C., about Sept. 15, under the manageabout Sept. 15, under the management of Charles Woods. Mr. Woods has been in the employ of D. W. Alderman & Sons Co. for a number of years, having charge of its mercantile business here, and he will have full charge of the new store in Manning.

The women's department will be in charge of Miss Fannie Weaver, who owned and operated the Ladies' Sshop in Manning with much success for herself and satisfaction to her patrons. This fall she will close up to go with the Alderman's Stores.

MANNING BOARD OF TRADE

Manning, July 7 .- At/ a meeting or representative business men held last board of trade in this town, not so much with the view of putting Manning 'on the map' but to acquaint the outside world of some of the splendid advantages this town has to offer the newcomer. The following officers were elected: R. J. Alderman, president; A. C. Bradham, vice president; R. C. Wells, treasurer and the following directors: R. J. Alderman, W. M. Plowden, W. C. Davis, J. W. Rigby, A. C. Bradham, C. R. Sprott, S. O. O'Bryan, R. C. Wells and Leon Weinberg. This is a competent set of officials and we are expecting results from their activities. They are now hope to do, South Carolina and elsewhere will learn of the wonderful resources of Manning and Clarendon

This is one of the banner tobacco counties of South Carolina, growing as fine quality of yellow leaf ar is grown anywhere in the world, and and that the former supervisors when the opening sale is over on the 15th we expect to be near the top in number of pounds sold among the markets of the State.

Manning is better prepared than warehouse has been enlarged, now measuring 150x220. Terrell and Satterfield are just completing one of the best to be seen any where, measuring 150x200, under one roof with all modern equipment. Cothran's and Harris' are in first class condition and the growers, as well as the merchants are anxiously awaiting the auctioneer's cry on the 15th.

Manning has never experienced a regular boom but maintains a steady growth. Considerable building is now going on in the way of improvements, additions, etc. Notable among the new buildings now going up is the D. W. Alderman & Sons Co. department stores, located on the Central Hotel property right in the heart of the business district. The building will be two stories, measuring 90x150, with a basement 30x90.

The front is of English tapestry brick and will have two main entrances. The building will be equipped throughout with modern furnishings and appliances among which might be mentioned private te:ephones situated conveniently for the clerks in any department to telephone the office which will be located upstairs. In all there will be ten departments the basement being used as a refrigerating plant, and it is their intention

They have also bought the Rhame property of about twelve acres in the western part of town and will erect a number of modern cottages, which they will offer for sale. This will now suffering for want of housing facilities.

Manning welcomes these good people to her midst, and is anxious for pondent in the News and Courier.
