Mr. F. C. Thomas has returned from New Orleans, where he was a delegate to the meeting of the Cotton Association.

Mr. Seigling of the Seigling Music Co. of Charleston is in town tuning pianos for the Swartz Music Studios and a number of patrons.

Be sure and attend the mass meeting at the Court House on Friday night at 8:30 o'clock. It is of the greatest importance to every one.

Mr. Clarence King of Bishopville and Misses Annie and May Wingate of Workman, motored over to Manning today.

The Jewish stores in Manning will be closed on Thursday and Friday on account of the observance of New Year's Day.

The Ladies' Missionary Union of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. J. W. Wideman on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

There is no way of improving a place as much as by encouraging good merchants, good schools and good people to settle among you, and this cannot be done unless you spend your money at home.

The cutting away of the trees on Main Street shows that some of our business places are in sad need of a coat of paint. But we have an idea that the painters will be exceptionally busy after the paving is all done.

NOTICE

The next examination for the securing of Teachers' Certificates will be held at the courthouse in Manning on Saturday October 4th, 1919, beginning at 9 o'clock. The Country is very short on teachers, and it is desired to have as many applicants as possible.

E. J. BROWNE,
Co. Supt. of Education.

—4t-c.

All candidates for Teachers' Certificates will present themselves at the Court House in Manning promptly at nine o'clock on Saturday morning October 4th. ## The time to paint is when conditions are most suitable for an all-round good job

One of the most important factors in good painting is weather—just plain simple weather—not too hot or cold, hence, October has always been pronounced the month for the very best painting.

With the approach of the perfect season for painting, let us suggest the use of our Lucas Paints, purposely made for every purpose, to insure an absolutely beautiful and dependable job.

Come let us show you these famous Lucas Paints, Stains Varnishes, etc. Our paint department is managed by a practical, contracting painter, who can intelligently plan with you any small job or the complete renovation of any kind of house, from roof to cellar. Also, our paint department is prepared to give valuable suggestions for the correct painting and decoration of any style new buildings.

See us for any kind of Paint to suit your purpose and purse
