Soldier Alderman Ridgill has returned home after seeing service on the firing line in France.

Mesdames D. M. Blanding and Hattie C. Ingram both of Sumter, are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Dickson.

Mrs. J. H. Orvin took first, and second prizes, on four pieces of fancy work at the Pinewood Fair of last week.

Miss Rounette Hirschmann gave an informal dance Friday night at her home in honor of her guest, Miss Raphan of Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones of Columbia spent last Sunday at the home of their parents Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Dickson in Manning.

Mrs. E. B. Ness was given a surprise party Monday night by a number of her young friends, the affair being in the nature of a kitchen show-off.

The residence of Mr. R. D. Cothran caught fire from the dining room flue last Sunday morning, but by quick work of the fire department there was little damage done.

Died last Saturday morning at her home in the Fork section Mrs. Elizabeth DuRant, aged about 80 years. The funeral was held at Midway on Sunday.

The Manning police force rounded up a crap game Saturday night, and caught three white men working the bones. The fine was ten dollars each. On Sunday morning they again went after the sports, and this time they made a better haul. Eight darkies were caught in the drag net and a small fine of $25.00 each was placed on them, and the owner of the joint had to come across with $40.00 bucks. The Mayor has given orders to the police to stop all gambling in the town, and it goes without saying that these orders will be carried out, for Manning has a police force that will do their duty regardless of person. So
