SAYS ARMY WARNED OF SLACKER'S SCHEME

Department of Justice Agent Revealed Plot, Says Palmer

TO INTELLIGENCE CORPS

Washington, May 24.—Both the army intelligence corps and the Department of Justice were forewarned that Grover C. Bergdoll, draft evader, planned an escape from custody, Attorney General Palmer declared in a statement tonight, disclaiming responsibility on the part of the Department of Justice for circumstances which permitted Bergdoll to get away. Information that a plot with an escape in view was under way, Mr. Palmer said, was first obtained by the army authorities and was given to them by his department.

"The Department of Justice received a letter from one of its agents, dated April 30," Mr. Palmer said, "to the effect that Bergdoll would make application for a writ of habeas corpus that would take him temporarily out of the custody of the War Department and place him in the custody of a marshal or deputy marshal; that pending these proceedings he would attempt to make his escape, or, if allowed bail, would jump his bail bond."

Bank Vice-President

Tells How Ziron Iron Tonic Helped His Daughter After Operation for Appendicitis.

AFTER any serious illness, the first thing you notice when you begin to get around is your lack of strength and energy—a tired, weak feeling.

The sooner you get your strength back the better. The thing to do is to eat plenty of good, nourishing food, get all the fresh air you can, exercise conservatively, and take Ziron Iron Tonic three times a day.

Your doctor will tell you this is sound advice, and urge you to follow it.

Read this letter from Mr. J. B. Kelly, vice-president of the First National Bank, Graceville, Fla.: "My daughter had been in bad health since last April. She was operated on for appendicitis. She has been taking Ziron for two weeks. Her appetite is better than it has been. Her nerves are better, and she says she feels better. . . I know that Ziron is good for weak and feeble people."

Ziron is a scientific, reconstructive tonic, prepared from valuable strength-building ingredients for weak people with thin blood. Druggists sell Ziron on a money-back guarantee. Try it.

had one and does not wish to have one." The craft is not registered.

Records at the city hall show that both Grover and his brother, Ervin, as well as their mother, recently have disposed of large real estate holdings. Ervin is also being sought as an alleged draft-dodger. According to the records Grover sold property on May 10 and May 16 aggregating more than $100,000. Mr. Gibboney today verified Bergdoll's statement regarding a large sum of gold he possessed. He said Bergdoll, before he fled to avoid the draft, drew $105,000 in twenty-dollar gold pieces from a bank. "He placed the money in bags containing $10,000 each," added Mr. Gibboney. "These he stowed away in two metal chests which he had buried in the mountains."

AL CHIEF CALLS DOWN CONGRESSMAN

Washington, May 24.—Cross-examination of Secretary Daniels before the Senate naval investigating committee today would about in a tortuous way from verbal wrangle to debate and back to wordy clashes between the Secretary and Chairman Hale. The latter at one point requested Mr. Daniels to answer a question with "yes" or "no" and the Secretary challenged the right of the chairman to tell him how to reply.

"I am secretary of the navy and I shall answer you in accordance with the duties of my office," the Secretary retorted. "You have no more right to tell me how to answer a question than I have to tell you how to ask it."

Plans Are Furnished

Mr. Daniels' testimony today dealt largely with the Navy Department's way plans in April, 1917. He furnished the committee with a lengthy list of war plans of various types, to refute, he said, Rear Admiral Sims' charges that the department had no plans.

During one interchange the chairman accused Mr. Daniels of delaying the hearings by introducing "irrelevant matter" and by giving evasive answers.

"At the present rate it looks like this committee will be here all summer," the chairman added.

Here's Proof That There Is No Vibration in the Silent Alamo

This remarkable plant operates under full load mounted on three ordinary drinking glasses

Experts and laymen alike are amazed at the quietness and lack of vibration in the Silent Alamo.

There are a score or more of electric light and power plants that will generate electricity. But how long will they last? How often will they require attention? Service is what you want. And to guarantee it you must get a plant that does not vibrate—that runs smoothly and quietly—that won't shake nuts and bolts and bearings loose—and be out of commission in a few months. Select the

Silent ALAMO

Electric Light and Power Plant

—the plant endorsed by prominent engineers everywhere. The only plant in the world with the noiseless, rotating, sleeve-bearing motor. The scientifically balanced plant that does not vibrate and that will not shake the house or shake itself to pieces. The plant that needs no special anchoring or concrete foundation, because it is built right.

Remember This. No electric light plant is more dependable than its motor. And no motor, however good, can operate efficiently for more than a very short period when subject to severe vibration. It stands to reason.

Come in and See the Silent Alamo

All parts, except the batteries, are assembled in a compact, durable unit, on a solid metal base. It is mechanically perfect. All moving parts are enclosed. Automatic governors and shut-offs safeguard the motor at every point. It is practically impossible for even the least experienced operator to do it damage.

Come in yourself and see the plant. See how noiselessly it runs—how free from the ruinous effects of vibration. Enjoy electric light and power to the fullest extent by installing the Silent Alamo—the most highly perfected and longest-lasting plant. Come in today, and see for yourself.
