The regular monthly meeting of Manning Post No. 68 American Legion will be held at the Masonic Hall in Manning at 8 p. m. Wednesday, February 2, 1921. All members are urged to be present as matters of vital importance are to be considered. The Post invites all ex-service men not members of this or some other Post to apply for membership. Applications must be made in writing and submitted to the Post Adjutant, H. I. Ellerbe, Post Commander.

Chovine Spratt, Post Adjutant.

The Clarendon Highway Commission met last Thursday and awarded several road contracts. The work to commence at once and all contracts must be completed within one year. The following roads will be built: Manning to Summerton; Manning to Pinewood line; Manning to Williamsburg line; Manning to Sumter line via Alcolu. When these roads are finished Clarendon will have some of the best roads in the State. In this connection we might add if the authorities will stop log carts from traveling the public roads the tax payers will be saved much money for the upkeep of these highways.

HOW THE BABY SUFFERED!

Her little body was red, inflamed, and itching with eczema, or a one kindred rash. Other treatments failed, but Zemerine made her healthy and comfortable. Sold for $1 and 50 cents by Dickson Drug Store.

IN MEMORY

Alethea, the four months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ridgeway who died January 16. While the end was not unexpected, still it was hard to part with her. The little one had been ill for seven weeks with Whooping cough. Everything that loving hands and good doctors could do could not save her, but she is safe in heaven now where pain and death cannot come. A Loving Aunt.

GIVEN LOVING CUP

St. Matthews, Jan. 14.—At a meeting of the Masonic lodge last night a handsome loving cup was presented to J. H. Loryca, not only for his efficient service as secretary of the order many years, but for his loyalty and energy in making this one of the best lodges in the state. He has been a member over 40 years. The cup was presented by Dr. T. H. Dreher, a past master, in a few fitting remarks, followed by Master R. B. Geiger, District Deputy Grand Master

J. W. Tucker, Dr. L. B. Bates, the Rev. J. T. Peeler and Frank Raybor.
