Why Mr. N. Windsor (R. I.) Put Up with Rats for Years

"Years ago I got some rat poison, which nearly killed our fine watch dog. We put up with rats until a friend told me about Rat-Snap. It surely kills rats, though house pets won't touch it." Rats dry up and leave no smell. Prices, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by DICKSON DRUG STORE PLOWDEN HARDWARE CO.

There will be an entertainment at Home Branch school house Friday evening at eight o'clock, February 4, 1921. It will consist of three plays: "Dr. Cureall," "Uncle Dick's Mistake" and "A Mischievous Nigger." Public cordially invited. Proceeds for benefit of school.

Dr. L. W. Nettles has returned to his home in Camden after a visit to his sister, Mrs. E. C. Alsbrook. Dr. Nettles retired from active professional service several years ago and recently removed to Camden. He was among the most highly esteemed physicians of this community.

While riding his bicycle on the paved street last Thursday, little Lucius Harvin, fell and struck his head on the cement, and was knocked unconscious. It was at first thought his condition was serious, but he is now getting along nicely.

Work has been started on the road from here to Sumter. The camp is at Alcolu and they will first build the road to Manning, coming down the left side of the railroad track, thus shortening the distance to Alcolu one mile.

Many people criticize us for having no news in the paper. Do you know that you individuals are to blame for this. If we ask you if you know anything new you will invariably say no. We cannot get news items unless some one first tells us about them. We are always glad to receive items of people coming and going, births, parties, etc. Call us on the phone, we'll sure appreciate it.

IMPORTANT WOODMAN MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Every member of Live Oak Camp W. O. W. No. 181 at Manning, S. C., is urgently requested to be present at our regular meeting next Monday night, February 7th, at 7:30 o'clock. Our election of officers is very important and we truly hope every member will be present as the good of the order depends on this meeting.

You have your teeth attended to regularly, yet you could masticate food with artificial teeth.

No one has yet seen with artificial eyes, yet do you have your eyes examined occasionally to learn if they need glasses or a change of glasses?
