Mr. CMANNING, S. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1921

Lake Utopian dreams are pleasant things while they last. Just now a good well meaning people are in favor of America setting the world an exlauncle by disarming without waiting for other nations to take similar action. and t reminds us of the big dog with a juicy bone. As long as his teeth are a and sharp he will hold onto his dinner. But remove his teeth and some who lay cur will take it away from him. America's' great wealth is a Forty juicy bone. Our armament is our teeth. Figure it out yourself.

he h: Congress reminds us of old Rip Van Winkle. It sleeps and sleeps and in re shows signs of slowly coming to life. At last it appears to be awakenfollo to the peril of wholesale immigration from pauperized Europe, after the I vs of the country has been sounding warnings for many months past. Adgage to our unemployed is dangerous at any time, and it is especially so when ness already have about four million men out of work.

the Close the door, Rip-at least until there is work enough for our own ple to earn three meals a day.

THE FARMER WILL CONTINUE TO WORK

With farm products clear down in price, a few people are wondering what shoc farmer will do this summer. They fear he will raise only enough for his out i use and let the rest of us starve.

It might be an act of just retribution if he did let the gougers go hungry. he won't. He has a bigger heart than some other people and the world not suffer through any inaction of his. He will go right on raising his m/ps and we will keep right on cating them.

Bow It is a pity, though, that there is no way of singling out the gougers and bus fiteers and compelling them to grub for themselves or do without. It frould be mighty comforting to the farmer, the retailer, and the fellows who own the piper.

YOU AND YOUR TOWN

Your town boosts you. Why not do as well by the town as it does by you? citizen is so powerful, none so humble, but what the town is an aid to him some way or other. The food that he eats, the clothes that he wears, the reation and amusement that he enjoys, all originate in the town, because ash money with which they are procured is made there.

wot When a fellow boosts his own town he does not stop there. He is perthe ming an act that improves his own condition, for every good word and ery good deed has its elevating influence. A few people are always home thewn boosters. They accomplish much in the way of community betterment, and this improves the condition of not only themselves, but also of those who aft no boosting at all. If every citizen would constitute himself or herself a Yo me town booster the result collectively would be many times as great, and oprtunities for self improvement would be more numerous. Think it over your odd moments. Then get into the boost wagon and hit the pace.

The One Minute Mission Talk

President Roosevelt, a typical American in his admiration for the heroic, thus expressed his opinion of

To what purpose is this waste?

Matt. 26: 8. To what purpose has that brilliant young doctor thrown away his life among the plague spot, of India? What foolishness for the rising young minister to give up his comfortable home field for some wild savages in Africa! Yes, many are saying that today, even among the disciples. But would to God we had more of that extravagant devotion that easts its best at Jesus' feet.

Precious words of commendation fell from the Master's lips, "She hath done what she could" (Mark. 14:8.) And you, friend, have you done what you could, or are you holding back in the roic, thus expressed his opinion of missions. "As high an estimate as I have of the ministry, I consider that the climax of that calling is to go out in missionary service. It takes mighty good stuff to be a missionary of the right type, the best stuff there is in this world. It takes a deal of courage to break the shell and go twelve thousand miles away to risk an unfriendly climate, to master a foreign language, perhaps the most difficult one on earth to learn; to adopt strange customs, to turn aside from carthly fame and emolument and, most of all, to say good-bye to home and the faces of the loved ones virtually forever."
