Two thirds of a ton of Purina O-Molene will go as far as a ton of corn or oats. Make a comparison and you will see that it pays to feed mules and horses a properly balanced ration, just as it pays in dairying or hog raising.

O-Molene is good ground grains, balanced to get more work from work animals. No medicine or stimulants in it. It's all real feed.

EX-KAISER FOLLOWS WIFE'S BODY TO TRAIN humiliation.

Doorn, April 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—Never aws contrast between former glory and present state of humiliation more accentuated than when Wilhelm, the former German emperor, followed the body of his wife, Augusta Victoria, to the station at Maarn, where he entrusted the faithful companion of his grandeur and his sorrow to his sons and friends to take back to the fatherland.

Holland.

Sons to Accompany the Body

The last farewell visit to the funcation are will be paid tomorrow morn in gbefore it proceeds to Potsdam. Those who remained on the train to accompany the body included Prince Abalbert and his wife, Prince Oscar Prince Fuetenstenburg, Countess Von Keller, Countess Von Rantzau and Baron Von Spitsemberg.

The funeral procession arrived at the little station at Maarn in dark-ness broken only by the light from a few lamps on the railway embank-ment. First came a huge car covered with flowers, followed by servants who loaded the wreaths into the railway carriage. About ten minutes later the hearse arrived, flashing powerful searchlights. It was drapped with black cloth with white cross and

Representatives of Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, the dowager Queen and the Prince Consert with representatives of the king of Spain an dthe king of Sweden, and a number of Dutch officials, closed the procession.

When all has collected around the coffin, Court Chaplain Dr. Dryander, his voice vibrating with emotion ,delivered a brief oration. The coffin livered a brief oration. The coffin was then placed in the railway car-liam and Princess Luise entered, remaining for a few moments. Then the former emperor led the way to the

Soon after the departure of the former emperor, the ex-crown prince left the station precincts and returned to the castle, wit hthe duke of Brunswick and others who are staying in Holland.

A service in mourning for the for-mer empress was held in Doorn Castle The emperor that was and the former crown prince and other sons present were all attired in full uniform of the Prussian guard, their helmets crepe-covered.

The funeral procession arrived at the little station at Maarn in darkness broken only by the light from a few lumps on the railway embank.

The emperor that was and the former increased in Doorn Castle this morning, attended by all the members of the former imperial household, some of its most intimate friends and several officials of the Dutch government. The service was an affecting one and during its progress former Emperor William frequently sobbed and at one point seemed at the verge and at one point seemed at the verge of a breakdown.

The service was conducted by Dr. Dryander, the former court chaplain, who took the text of his sermon from the tenth verse of the second chapter of Beyelation: of Revelation:

"Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."

CAUSE OF WRECK

Dryander alighted wearing black robes. Immediately behind came an automobile carrying the former emperor and his daughter, Princess Victoria Luise, which drove on until it reached a shelter of shrubs, hiding it from view. Frederick William, the former crown prince, and Prince Adalbert, in long gray mantles walked briskly forward. Other members of the family alighted from their cars—Prince Oscar, the duke of Brunswick; Prince Fueren. mass. Several of them were badly splintered, the cars were londed with lettuce, peas, celery, cabbage and oranges, much o fwhich is badly dam-aged and all of which will be delayed in transit twenty-four hours or more, it is said. The track is torn up for more than 200 yards and all trains have been detoured by Lanes and Sumter. A wrecking crew from Florence was soon here and at work and it is expected that by tomorrow morning the track will be cleared so that the regular trains may pass as that the regular trains may pass as usual. Visitors are here from Kingstree. Scranton and from the sur-rounding country viewing what is said to be the most disastrous wreck that ever occurred here.

THE OLD ONES ARE THE BEST

A man committed suicide because of a melancholy conviction that he was his own grandfather. Here is the note he left behind:

I married a widow with a grown-up daughter. My father visited our house, very often, fell in love with my step-daughter and married her;

my step-daughter and married her; so my father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife.

After my wife had a son he was my father's brother-in-law, and my uncle, for he was the brother of my step-mother, my father's wife, i. e., my step-daughter also had a son. He was of course my brother and at my step-daughter also had a son. He was, of course, my brother, and at the same time my grandchild, for he was the son of my daughter.

My wife was my grandmother because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild, at the same time, and as the husband of one's grandmother is his grandfather, I was my own grandfather.

YOU ARE JUDGED BY YOUR

CLOTHES

We are fond of quoting the old saying that "clothes do not make the man," but experience tells us that this is not true.

Clothes DO make the man, in the eyes of the other fellow. And it is with the "other fellow" that we all wish to stand well.

Correct Clothing Are A Necessity!

It is impossible for a shabbily dressed person to command respectful attention except where he is well known. When you want clothes that are Absolutely Correct we are ready to show them to you. You will want them when you see them. And, better still, you will not complain at the price.
