

MINE WORKER IN JAIL

Williamson, W. Va., May 23.—A. D. Levenbar, organizer for the United Mine Workers of America, was arrested by a state trooper here late today and held without bail on a charge of carrying a pistol.

David Robb, international financial agent of the United Mine Workers, when informed of the arrest, declared that he had warned his men not to carry weapons.

All was reported quiet tonight in the region where the recent disorders have taken place.

Florence, May 23.—State Detective Eichelberger in company with Sheriff Gamble captured two illicit stills in Clarendon county in raids last week and arrested two men in connection with their operation.

TESTS OF BRAKES

Roanoke, Va., May 23.—More than 150 representatives of railways in every part of the United States will leave Roanoke tomorrow on a special train over the Virginian railway as guests of the Westinghouse Airbrake company to witness brake tests on the heaviest trains possible to be drawn over a mountain grade. The tests will cover a period of four days.

You'll enjoy the sport of rolling 'em with P. A.!

FIRST thing you do next—go. get some makin's papers and some Prince Albert tobacco and puff away on a home made cigarette that will hit on all your smoke cylinders!

No use sitting-by and saying maybe you'll cash this hunch tomorrow. Do it while the going's good, for man-o-man, you can't figure out what you're passing by! Such flavor, such coolness, such more-ish-ness—well, the only way to get the words emphatic enough is to go to it and know yourself!

And, besides Prince Albert's delightful flavor, there's its freedom from bite and parch which is cut out by our exclusive patented process! Certainly—you smoke P. A. from sun up till you slip between the sheets without a comeback.

Prince Albert is the tobacco that revolutionized pipe smoking. If you never could smoke a pipe—forget it! You can—AND YOU WILL—if you use Prince Albert for packing! It's a smoke revelation in a jimmy pipe or a cigarette!

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handy some pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top.

CATTS MAKES BOND IN FLORIDA COURT

Pensacola, Fla., May 23.—Sidney J. Catts, former governor of Florida, made bond in the United States district court here today in the sum of $2,500. He is charged with peonage, having been indicted on two counts by the federal grand jury last week. Bondsman for the ex-governor are A. F. Paderick, H. Whitaker, B. A. Davis and C. P. Lybrand of Pensacola and A. F. Bullard of DeFuniak Springs, Fla. Attorneys John P. Stikes and John S. Beard, counsel for Mr. Catts, were granted until June 13 by Judge Sheppard to file demurrers to the indictment. Arguments on the demurrers will be held June 20, at which time it is expected the case will be set for trial.

Ex-Governor Catts arrived in Pensacola this morning from Jacksonville, accompanied by Mr. Bullard. He was met by his attorney and escorted to the federal building, where he immediately made bond.

HOUSE PROVIDES POSTOFFICE MONEY

Washington, May 23.—The house today without a dissenting vote accepted the item in the deficiency bill appropriating $23,000 for the purchase of necessary furniture for the Columbia post office. The fact that no question was raised as in similar cases of Birmingham and Honolulu is attributed to the missionary work of Representative Fulmer. Apparently he had very cleverly paved the way. The money will be available as soon as the senate passes the bill. Senators Dial and Smith said this afternoon that they did not anticipate trouble in the senate.

CADDIES ON STRIKE

Asheville, N. C., May 23.—One hundred caddies of the Asheville Country club struck here this afternoon and the golfers were without caddies. The cause is due to the refusal of the management to allow a gallery to follow the caddies who had entered for the annual caddies tourney.

MRS. BERGDOLL WINS EXCHANGE

Two Hours of Cross Examination at Washington Gain But Little Information.

Washington, May 23.—Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, the slacker, again went to the bar today with the house committee investigating his escape.

At the end of a two hours' cross examination Mrs. Bergdoll came up smiling, for the committee refused to send her before the bar of the house of representatives for not answering questions bearing on her buried gold. There were times when the witness, rising from her chair and slamming the floor with a parasol, sharply denounced the inquiry as another of a long series of persecutions.

It was while Representative Johnson, Republican, Kentucky, had the witness in hand that the clash developed which caused him to offer a motion charging her with contempt. The committee, however, thought best to decide this question in executive session and ten minutes later the doors opened and Mrs. Bergdoll was told that she might return to Philadelphia.

On Bergdoll Farm While making no attempt, as he explained, to find where the woman had buried $105,000 obtained from the treasury in 1919, Mr. Johnson drew from her the statement that it was on the Bergdoll farm, out on the West Chester pike leading into Philadelphia. It was while he was trying to learn who actually assisted in hiding it that Mrs. Bergdoll flew into a rage and declared it was a "sin and shame" for members of congress to be "so nossey."

Mr. Johnson replied that he was trying to lay a foundation to see if she was telling the truth at which Mrs. Bergdoll launched into a tirade. This was quickly checked by Chairman Peters.

"I refuse to give you any other information about the gold," Mrs. Bergdoll shouted, banging the table with the parasol. "I am sick and tired of it. You ought not to be so nossey. It's a waste of time and I don't propose to console you by answering."

Before getting away from the subject of the gold, Mrs. Bergdoll declared that all of it was placed in one hole, that nobody knew where, and that if she died it never would be found.

Won't Dig It Up Representative Lühring, Republican, Indiana, wanted to know if she would dig it up and let the committee have a look.

"No, I won't," she exclaimed. "Nor my children, either; I would not put that temptations in your way."

"I don't believe you have it buried," Mr. Lühring said.

"Ha, ha," Mrs. Bergdoll replied, and the crowd roared.

Asked how Grover had been named for President Cleveland, Mrs. Bergdoll shouted: "He has got as good a chance as anybody in this room of becoming president."

"How many Liberty bonds did you buy?" Mr. Lühring asked.

"None, that's how many," she replied. "All the posters had in big words, 'Kill the Huns.' And I'm not willing to kill anybody. How many did you and how many did the president of the United States with his big salary buy?" But Mr. Peters stopped the outburst. The committee found from Mrs. Bergdoll's books that a year ago Grover Bergdoll paid income tax amounting to $5,330 and $137 for the current year. The slacker, he said, was worth $500,000. The hearings will end tomorrow.

BIG LOSS FROM FIRE

Nashville, May 23.—Fire which broke out in a lodge room over the People's bank at Trezvant, Tenn., early today swept Front street, leaving only a garage standing at either end and causing damage estimated at $250,000.
