

The Manning Times.

Published Every Wednesday

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1921

Remember Clarendon's first hog show in Manning next Friday.

Have you paid your taxes? No, not this year's, but last year's—which?

Mesdames. I. I. Appelt and H. R. Rembert spent last Friday in Sumter.

Mr. L. A. King spent Wednesday at his home in Bethune.

Mrs. Hampton Lackey, of Silver, visited friends here Friday.

Everybody meet everybody at the hog show in Manning Friday.

Mr. W. M. Turner, a former resident, was in Manning yesterday.

Mr. Ralph Kennedy visited in Darlington last week.

Miss Leonora Johnson is visiting relatives in Greenville.

Mrs. W. M. Brockinton is visiting friends in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Sue Harvin is taking in the Tri-County Fair at Andrews today.

Judge J. M. Windham spent a part of Monday in Sumter, on business.

Misses Addie and Irma Weinberg spent Monday in Charleston shopping.

Don't forget the football game Friday, Manning vs. Kingstree. Admission 15c and 25c. at 4 p. m.

Mrs. T. L. Bagnal was taken to Columbia, Tuesday morning to undergo an operation.

Remember the date of Kindergarten opening October 19th. Parents are requested to come and look over the varied equipment for the work. Other visitors also welcome.

Miss Corinne Barfield spent the week-end with Miss Mary Wilson in Sumter.

The stores of the Jewish merchants are closed today. This being their day of atonement.

Mr. and Mrs. Desse O'Bryan of Kingstree, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Oliver O'Bryan in Manning.

Fire destroyed the home Mr. J. S. Cantey in Summerton last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Watson Cantey of Charleston, spent Tuesday in Manning, with his brother, Mr. J. B. Cantey.

Miss Annie McRoy is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. Hesse in Charleston.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Harvin went to Columbia, yesterday, where Mr. Harvin is receiving medical treatment.

Mrs. Mitch Wells, Miss Earle and Miss Rieves spent Friday shopping in Sumter.

Mr. Joe Sprout of Jordan, has accepted a position with J. H. Rigby during the big sale.

Mr. J. O. Lee, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C., has returned home after business trip to Manning.

Mrs. Frank Huggins chaperoned a congenial crowd who motored to Sumter Thursday.

Mr. W. I. Hudnal, a former Clarendon citizen, is a visitor to Manning this week.

Mrs. Sue Davis was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Sprout, in Jordan, for the week-end.

Mrs. W. E. Merritt has returned to Alcolu, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Bradham.

Though an oversight we failed to make mention of the return of Hon. Charlton DuRant from Europe. Mr. DuRant arrived home last week after a six week's tour of several European countries where he went as a representative of the Methodist church.

Material is being placed at Brewing for the new bridge which is to be built across the stream.

There is only one thing that prevents the average wife from saving money. She can't save what she doesn't get.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Floyd, who have had an apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Floyd, have moved to their country home.

Mr. Ingram Bradham returned home last week. Mr. Bradham acted as one of the judges at the Virginia State fair for the hog show.

In the suit of Bain against the Northwestern railroad last week resulted in Mr. Bain getting a verdict for $2,500.

Mrs. Heyward B. Ewart and young son, Heyward Jr., of Spartanburg, arrived Friday for an extended visit to the former's mother, Mrs. B. A. Johnson.

Miss Laura Keels of Black Mountain, N. C., is a guest of Mayor and Mrs. W. C. Davis. Miss Keels is a former resident of Manning and her many friends are always glad to have her among them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ness entertained at a dinner Sunday, the following guests from Sumter were present: Miss Pearl Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. William Berg and daughter, Mr. Hyman Love and Mr. Joe Kahin.

In a football game between Manning High School and Summerton on the local grounds Friday afternoon, the Manning team won the score being 12 to 0. This was the first game of the season. The feature of the game was the two touchdowns made by McLeod and the speed work of Richardson.

Some people must still think paper cost us nothing, as they never offer to pay for a copy of the paper, but simply come in on Wednesday afternoon, pick up The Times and walk out with it. Now, we are not going to stand for this any more. If you want to read our paper, pay for it, otherwise leave it alone. A single copy is five cents cash to everybody, and if you haven't a nickel, put off your reading—we mean this.

A Vaughan Car, of North Carolina manufacture attracted much attention on the streets here Saturday. J. O. Lee, Jr., and J. A. Hursey two representatives from the motor corporation of Greensboro, N. C., are making a demonstration trip in this car and stopped here long enough for many to see this make of automobile which received so much favorable comment in the recent "Made in the Carolinas" show held in Charlotte.

The manufacturing plant located at Greensboro, N. C., produces on an average of one car a day; their object being to make each car a perfect car. The Vaughan Car comes in the class with all other custom built auto-

Very Important! Read! and Take

It positively will happen at 5 o'clock SATURDAY SURE

NOTICE

Everybody please be on time, and bring all YOUR TICKETS.

The time has come when the hearts of some family in Clarendon County will throb with joy, we do not know who this family will be, but on Saturday afternoon promptly at 5 o'clock the biggest crowd you ever saw will be at Hirschmann's store to participate in the drawing for the lucky number, which will entitle the holder to the beautiful

Grand Opera Phonograph Absolutely FREE!

To participate in this drawing you have to be present with your tickets. If ticket is drawn and no one holds the corresponding one in the crowd, we will draw until some one present wins.

EVERY DOLLAR YOU SPEND FROM NOW UNTIL SATURDAY up until 5 o'clock entitles you to a chance. You may be the lucky one. The more you spend the better your chance to win.

Mr. Shade Wilson who you all know so well will be in charge and give the phonograph away FREE.

D. HIRSCHMANN
Manning, S. C.

Dr. Arant is doing some very satisfactory eye examinations and glass fitting these days. Are you one who is enjoying the comfort these glasses are giving? If not see me at once.

DR. J. E. ARANT'S,
THE OPTOMETRIST

WANTED!

5,000 Bushels Porta Rica SWEET POTATOES

Our sweet potato curing house is nearly completed. We want 5,000 bushels of select Porta Rica sweet potatoes for curing and storage until they are sold in the spring.

The charges for curing can be paid when the potatoes are sold. We are members of the South Carolina Sweet Potato Association and will sell potatoes stored with us through this agency. Last year the South Carolina cured sweet potatoes sold through the Sweet Potato Association brought an average price of $1.35 f. o. b. shipping point. We do not know what the price will be this year but we believe that it will be as good or better.

If you have a good patch of Porta Rica sweet potatoes and can bring us from 15 bushels up to 500 bushels of select average size smooth potatoes sign the blank below and mail it to us now.

Manning Curing House, Inc.
Manning, S. C.
Gentlemen:—

Please reserve space in the curing house for about _____ bushels to be delivered in Manning between now and the first of November as you direct. It is understood that you will notify me when to deliver them and will furnish me with instructions about grading so that my potatoes may be graded in the field.

Signed _____

Post Office _____

R. F. D. Route No. _____

biles and is a car of which the South should be proud to claim credit for its production.

Mrs. J. A. Cole and children spent Sunday in Kingstree with Dr. J. A. Cole.

Mr. W. R. Pendergrass of Florence, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Dickson over Sunday.

The Civic League gave a benefit rook party Tuesday afternoon in the Masonic club rooms. There were eighteen tables playing and a neat sum was realized for the Civic League fund.

CITATION NOTICE

The State of South Carolina, County of Clarendon.
By J. M. Windham, Probate Judge:
Whereas, Sam Watson made suit to me to grant him Letters of Administration of the Estate and effects of Susan Parker.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the Kindred and Creditors of the said Susan Parker deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Manning on the 31st day of October next, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand this 10th day of October Anno Domini, 1921.
J. M. Windham,
pd. Judge of Probate.

The State of South Carolina, Clarendon County.
Court of Common Pleas.
Decree.

Mrs. L. B. Cook, Plaintiff, against W. S. Woodward, Aretus Watt, Athena Way, R. B. Mellette and J. E. Mellette, Defendants.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Common Pleas for said County and State made in above entitled action dated February 19, 1921, J. E. Gamble, Sheriff of Clarendon County will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in front of the Court House Door at Manning, S. C., on Monday, November 7, 1921, being salesday, within the legal hours for judicial sales, the following described real estate:

All that tract of land in the County of Clarendon, and State aforesaid, containing forty acres (40) more or less, and bounded now or formerly as follows: North by land of R. B. Mellette; East by land of Moses Levi; South by land of John S. Watt, Mrs. Mellette, and Estate of Dingle, and West by land of John S. Watt, being the tract of land conveyed to Julia E. Woodward, then Julia E. Mellette, by Julia E. Mellette and R. B. Mellette Jr., by deed dated October 6, 1914, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court for Clarendon County in Book Q-3 at page 32.

Purchasers to pay for papers.
J. E. Gamble,
Sheriff of Clarendon County.

NOTES FROM CLEMSON ABOUT CLARENDONIANS

Clemson College, S. C., Oct. 8. Clarendon County has as its representatives at Clemson College this year eight bright, energetic, young men. These are: Junior: J. E. Hodge of Manning Route 1. Sophomores: W. B. Bagnal of Manning and E. D. Plowden of Jordan. Freshmen: L. A. Davis of Manning, C. H. McIntosh of New Zion, J. F. Timmons of Manning, J. H. Timmons of Manning, and H. L. Wilson of Manning. All of these are very promising young men and Clarendon should feel justly proud of them.

Hon. J. H. Scarborough, of Clarendon County, was one of the Legislators who attended a meeting of that body of men at Clemson College on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Clemson defeated the Presbyterian College of South Carolina in a football game here yesterday by a score of 34 to 0. Marion DuRant, a Clarendon County boy, is captain of the Presbyterian team.

Mr. W. R. Gray, Clarendon's live wire County Agent, attended a meeting of the County Agents here on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week.

Sent in by E. D. Plowden, a member of the Students Newspaper correspondence Club of Clemson College.

Subscribe to The Times

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of Fairlawn Development Company at Summerton Thursday, November 3rd at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of voting to increase the capital stock of the company from $32,000 to $47,000.
A. E. BROCK, Secretary.
Oct. 12, 1921. 41-41-c.

NOTICE OF DISCHARGE

We will apply to the Judge of Probate for Clarendon County, S. C., on the 7th day of November, 1921 at 11 o'clock A. M. for Letters of Discharge as Executors of the Estate of Amanda Samuel, deceased.

Robert Samuel,
Geoffrey Samuel,
Executors.
Manning, Oct. 7, 1921 pd

NOTICE OF DISCHARGE

I will apply to the Judge of Probate for Clarendon County on the 14th day of November, 1921 at 11 o'clock a. m. for Letters of Discharge as Administrator of the Estate of Edgar C. Dickson, deceased.

Joseph S. Dickson, Administrator.
Manning, Oct. 10, 1921 pd

When the Thermometer goes DOWN our Drinks go up—not in Price, but in Temperature. They are gauged by the weather. When the Thermometer goes UP they go DOWN and when the Thermometer goes DOWN they go UP.

Dickson Drug Store.