Card of Thanks
I wish to take this means of thanking our friends in Manning for their signatures to the petition, asking the General Assembly for a Chiropractic Examining Board in this State. Personally, I do not need a Chiropractic Board as I have passed the State Medical Board, but am interested in the Chiropractic profession in the State and am anxious to see it on an equal footing with the other professions as it is in other States, and appreciate the influence of friends in making it so.

Announcement!

I have purchased the mercantile interest of D. W. Alderman & Sons Co., at Manning and Alcolu. We therefore will discontinue business as the Dickson Grocery & Feed Co., and conduct business in Manning at the store formerly known as Alderman's under the name of the undersigned. We are very grateful to our friends that have given us a portion of their business and will strive to continue to merit it. Our motto shall be HONESTY and PROMPT SERVICE

JOS. S. DICKSON.
