The County Executive Committee met yesterday and appointed managers, fixed the dates for the County campaign, and made the assessments for different offices. Also at this meeting the committee thought best to let the people say whether or not they wanted the following offices continued: Rural Police, Farm Demonstration Agent and Home Demonstration or Canning Club. There will be a separate box placed at each polling precinct to vote on the above offices. The sentiment of the people will rule. If they vote no the above offices will be abolished, if they vote yes the offices will continue. There is a lot of dissatisfaction and unrest about the high taxes, and this step was taken to allow the people to determine for themselves what they want.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION TOMORROW

Manning, July 24.—A county-wide attendance contest has been announced in connection with the approaching County Sunday School Association Convention to be held at Sardinia Presbyterian Church on Thursday, July 27th, according to the County Association officers in charge of arrangements.

At this Convention a banner is to be publicly awarded to the Sunday school having the largest number of persons (over 16 years of age) present at the Convention, in proportion to the distance traveled. Under this plan, ten persons coming ten miles each to the convention count the same as twenty who come only five miles each thus making it fair for all, both near and far. There is no limit to the number who may attend from any Sunday school.

The banner becomes the property of the Sunday school winning it and may be taken home for permanent display in the Sunday school room.

Manning At Auction!

As it has been for the past 26 years.

R. D. Cothran will operate an Independent warehouse up on Levi block, in the heart of Manning business section.

Independent Tobacco Growers of Clarendon and Adjoining Counties, Sirs:— I am very busy trying to get things shaped up for the opening sale Tuesday, August 1st. I have arranged and gotten re-built two warehouses on Levi block. We are going right ahead shaping things up.

I expect to handle all the tobacco I can take care of, but I will have room for you and your neighbor. I am expecting to handle your tobacco. Tobacco with color and character will sell well I think. Do not let your tobacco get too much moisture in it. Keep what's in the field well cared for, suckering, etc—let it get ripe.

I am too busy to write. But will say that we will have a full corps of buyers representing all the big Companies in this country and Europe, all reports to the contrary is false propaganda. Do your own thinking, and when you get ready to sell tobacco come on and sell with Cothran where you will get all your money that day. Thanking you for past patronage, I am

Yours to serve,

COTHRAN'S Independent Warehouse, R. D. COTHRAN, Prop.
