MANNING, S. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1922

There's many a puzzlin' problem that attacks a feller's mind, when discoursin' to a Public, of a mighty various kind. . . There's some will differ with ye, and there's others that applaud—an' some that won't believe ye on yer oath, so help ye God! Which brings the solemn query into this here humble song: Can anything be honest—yet remain, dead wrong?

HONESTY

I've allers heard that Honesty was fust among the things, that took a man to Heaven, on the shiniest of wings; that a man that wuzzent honest, had mighty nigh as well, consult the ticket agent fer the slowest train to hell— So, a little sober thinkin' will arouse the question strong.—Can any man be honest—yet, remain dead wrong? I try to foller reason in the ideas I evolve—an' I sometimes pray fer guidance, when I've got a thing to solve. . . I've catered more to judgement, than to tolerance or taste, in these days of much palaver where the syntax goes to waste. . . Let me cast this humbly pebble in the philosophic pool —That Honesty is resky—in the bosom of a Fool!

Summerton Sayings

To Public Spirited Summertonians: Last week, after having heard several people deploring the fact that Summerton was scarcely represented in any newspaper in the State, we gathered "Summerton Sayings" and sent them to The Times. Pending their reception, we preferred to remain incognito to the greater number of you. This reception has been so cordial, however, that we are emboldened to ask each one of you to aid us in this venture for the good of our town. It is our desire to represent every one and not become limited to one street or to one "set." To do this we must have your cooperation. If you, or your friends, are entertaining a friend, if you, or your friend, are going away, if you observe anything of interest let us know; just give us a hint and we will get the facts. Don't be afraid to see your name in print—honestly, it's a grand and glorious feeling." Try it!

Remember that we receive no financial returns. Our whole desire is to see our town boosted. It is a pity that our town has not a press club or publicity bureau for wider dissemination of information throughout the State. Here is a wonderful opportunity for a wide awake school superintendent to render a real service to the community.

If we are willing to do our best, won't you help us? Let's put Summerton on the map.

on the Summerton Democratic Club roll. One hundred and fifty-five women have registered. This means that 155 women of Summerton should vote in the coming elections. No woman can neglect to vote and still claim to be a good and patriotic citizeness.

Miss Lottie Huggins, of Lake City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. L. Godwin.

Bill Stuckey led Christian Endeavor Sunday night in the Baptist Church. Grace Allen and Emory Rogers gave talks and special music was rendered by Pearle and Sudie Davis.

Mrs. Bennie Land, of Bamberg, is visiting her parent, Mr. I. Y. Eadon.

Miss Beverly Carrigan spent a few days in Sumter with her aunt, Mrs. L. W. Folsom, last week.

Miss Hallie Carson returned Saturday from a visit with her uncle in Remberts.

Mrs. H. S. Parish, of Manning, spent last week in town with Mrs. D. M. Rogers.

Mrs. Grier Skinner, of Charleston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cantey.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Smith, of Bishopville, were the week-end guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. James Nelson.

Mr. Willie Simpson is at home for a few days. Mr. Simpson is working on the bridge at Eastover.

Mr. J. G. Senn, who is now working in Florence, is at home until business conditions caused by the strike grow better.

More effects of the strike on our town: Messrs. J. W. Anderson, Ollie Abrams, Willie Croskey, Esler and Ulysses Bronson left Thursday to work in the A. C. L. shops in Florence.

Miss Eleanor Carson returned Saturday from Winthrop Summer School. We are sorry to report that Jack, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Riechbourg, and Mary Edith, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Copeland are both very ill.

Mr. Morrison, of McClellanville, spent the week-end with his niece, Mrs. L. A. Bronson. Mr. Morrison is desirous of representing the First District in Congress after the fall elections.

Mrs. H. A. Riechbourg and Mrs. F. R. Dingle returned from Hendersonville Monday.

Mr. P. P. Mood has returned from Camp McClellan, Aniston, Ala. Mr. Mood, who will graduate from the Citadel next year, has been awarded a Captaincy, one of the highest honors conferred upon a Citadel undergraduate.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Stuckey, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harvin and Mrs. Jeff M. Davis motored to North Carolina Monday, where they will spend about two weeks in camp between Hendersonville and Flat Rock.

Miss Dorothy Carrigan is the guest of her uncle, Mr. S. W. McClary, in Anes.

Miss Annie Varnadeaux is home from Charleston. Miss Varnadeaux expected to be home for the week-end only, but on account of her father's illness she is remaining.

We are proud to learn that one of the two four-year county scholarships to Winthrop College was awarded to Miss Sue Esther Pitts. Miss Pitts, a graduate of Summerton high school class of 1922, won this honor over six opponents in a competitive examination.

Miss Alice Wilkie is spending the week in Camden with her friends, Mrs. McCain and Mrs. B. S. McNeely.

Mr. Andrew Hunter, who is working in Asheville, is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hunter.

Mr. Pres Stuckey motored to Lake City last Tuesday for a stay of two days.

Mr. Vera McClary and Mr. Ashton Carrigan are in Andrews as guests of Mr. John Heineman.

Misses Mattie Horton and Virginia Coffey, of Manning, Carolyn Riechbourg and Mary Louise James, of Summerton, and Messrs. Conner Wells and Lucius Heriot, of Manning, were guests at an enjoyable house party at the home of Mr. Carlyle Eadon.

Mr. J. G. Senn is visiting his brother at Black Mountain, N. C.

JACOBUS HUNTER

The marriage of Miss Rebekah Carolee Hunter and Dr. Authur Forest Jacobus was celebrated at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hunter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. E. Morris, the couple standing beneath a lovely arch of ferns, asters, zinnias and other summer flowers. The bride, attired in a bridal dress of flesh crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of white asters and ferns, entered with the maid of honor, Miss Manrie Hunter, who was attired in a dress of peach organdy with turquoise blue trimmings. The groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Richard Richardson, met the bride at an improvised altar beneath the arch. The wedding march was played by Miss Annie Churchill, of Sumter. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Pearle Davis sang "Thou Art So Like A Flower," and "At Dawning I Love You." While the guests were being ushered in by Misses May Elizabeth and Sarah Hunter, Schubert's Serenade was played.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served, Miss Martha Pitts presiding at the punch bowl. The young people present found much pleasure in putting the cake, each hoping to find the ring. The bride and groom left for Sumter to take the 6:20 train for New Jersey. A number of the bridal party accompanied them to Sumter to wish them much happiness and a bon voyage on their life's journey.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobus will spend a few weeks at their parent's home in New Jersey, after which they will leave for Seattle, Wash., where they will embark on the 19th of August for Souchow, China. Dr. Jacobus has accepted a position in the Souchow hospital.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jacobus were very popular young people in the community and their friends wish them much happiness.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were. Mrs. A. F. Jacobus, of Red Bank, N. C., mother of the groom, Mr. Andrew Hunter, of Asheville, N. C., Mrs. Bennie Land, of Bamberg, Mrs. A. E. Hunter of Sumter, Miss Virginia Brawley, of Gastonia, N. C., Mrs. E. C. Coskrey, of Wilson Mill, Mrs. S. O. O'Bryan of Manning, Mrs. G. L. Dickson, Misses Fannie James Davis and Lela Margaret Dickson of Manning.

Funeral services were held by Rev. J. A. Ansley in the home Tuesday
