LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Oliver Plowden of Statesburg was a visitor to Manning yesterday.

Misses Rounette Hirschmann and Grace Nimmer spent Tuesday in Sumter, shopping.

Mr. Tom Nimmer returned home from Charleston last Sunday morning.

Mr. W. B. Dickson has moved his family into the home with Mrs. M. M. David.

Mrs. C. W. Barron, who has been spending several days in Manning, has returned to her home in Columbia.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Price on Friday morning a 11 pound baby boy.

There are several applicants for the office of game warden made vacant by the death of Mr. S. W. Barron.

Dr. and Mrs. Watson B. Duncan, after spending several days in Manning last week, have returned to their home in Cheraw.

There will be a meeting of the members of the tobacco and cotton associations of the Manning School District in the court house Saturday morning, December 16th at eleven o'clock. All members from said district are urged to be present.

If you want a nice up-to-the-minute necktie for Christmas, go to Morris Ness. He has all kinds and they make a fine Xmas present.

In a few days the old town will be gay with college boys and girls coming home to enjoy Christmas eats and other festivities.

We learn that Mr. Jack Metropol will move to Sumter the first of next month, where he will locate his bottling plant.

There will be a marriage in town right soon, but we cannot tell who now. Don't get too anxious, may be we will let you know next week.

Messrs. P. B. Harvin and R. H. Belser returned to their homes near Summerton last Saturday night from a deer hunt near McClellanville.

The body of Dr. Fischer of Columbia, was carried to Summerton last Friday and interred in the Summerton cemetery. Dr. Fischer was a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Fischer of Summerton.

Miss Lenora Johnson who has been on an extended visit to relatives in Fountain Inn, and Greenville, returned home last week.

Riff and Ness have a complete line of useful presents for everybody. Stop in and let Miss Esther tell you about them. Their crying dolls are all the go now.

The Times is loaded with Xmas ads, this week, and we ask our readers to read each adv., carefully and then go and make your Christmas purchases before the stocks are picked over.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Levy, of Bishopville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Hannah, to Mr. Emil R. Ackerman, of New York City. Miss Levy is a sister of Mrs. Morris Ness of Manning, and is well remembered by the younger set.

The Clarendon County Winthrop Daughters Chapter will meet with Mrs. J. E. Arant on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. All former students and graduates are cordially invited.

Santa Claus is here in all his glory and old time "pep." Go by and take a look in the window of the 5-10-25 cents store, and see what old Santa has deposited for the kiddies happiness.

We are told that an effort will be made to devise some means at the coming legislature to put a bridge across Santee river at Pinckney's landing. This would be a wonderful help to Clarendon, and we believe when the time comes the people will vote for it.

Yesterday morning about three o'clock fire destroyed the barns of Mr. J. E. Tennant across Black River. Everything was a total loss. The barn was full of feed stuffs, and there was an automobile and Ford truck under the shed which was also destroyed. Mr. Tennant had no insurance.

We call special attention to the big show window of Jos. S. Dickson. This window is one of the prettiest and most artistic windows we have ever seen. The display of Christmas articles for the kids is complete. It is a dreamland of toyland which will make the hearts of the old as well as the young throb with joy.

We are told that Jack Flowers of Manning has been appointed a State Constable by the Governor. On last Sunday night he captured a Ford belonging to Ed McCall and containing two quarts of moonshine. McCall was not with the car but a negro man and white woman who were using the car escaped. Jack took the Ford and the two quarts.

Last Saturday morning passenger train No. 52 that passes Manning was run into by train No. 80 about twelve miles out of Charleston. Thirty-five passengers were hurt and one Mr. Edwards of Sumter killed. Messrs W. T. Lesesne, J. W. Wideman, Harry Curtis and Sheriff J. E. Gamble were on No. 52 coming home. They all escaped injury except Sheriff Gamble who was severely shocked and bruised. The party was taken back to Charleston for examination, but allowed to proceed home on the evening train. Sheriff Gamble suffered a great deal on Sunday, but is now much better.

The Manning Choral Club will give its Christmas concert in the Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, December 24th. At this service "The Angel and the Star," a Christmas cantata will be sung by a chorus of well trained voices. At the conclusion of the musical program the Business Men's Evangelistic Club will take charge and a free will offering for the poor in our own community will be taken. This will be a united service of all the Churches in town and the general public is also cordially invited.
